Kendrick's School Audit Created Much Interest; Some Misunderstanding

Joint School District No. 283, the | that for this audit to be truly effecfirst school district to receive the tive, that each teacher, administrator much publicized state audit, emerged and school board member must have from the examination with hardly a a copy of this report available to ripple on the smooth operation of the institution, but Supt. Don Blake- One teacher was critical of the ley, who recently returned from Boise and a meeting of State Superintendents, found there was still a great amount of interest and some misunderstanding, concerning the audit.

Blakeley, who spoke before the state meeting, said he was amazed at the interest shown by educators in the audit, all of whom were anxious to know just what occurred dur-ing the audit, what it consisted of and why it was happening. District 283 was one of three districts in the state selected to be audited. Idaho Falls, District 91; and Canyon County. District 139, were the other two schools selected for this first audit.

The local superintendent was surprised when his school was one of the first in the state to come under hurt anything and I think it was an the review of state auditors. honor for our school to be one of

The secretary reported; "They were very thorough and cooperative and if the audit helps improve our school system I feel it was well worth the effort.'

The Student View

Intelligence and loyalty showed in the comments of the students at KHS. One student said: "I don't know alot about the audit but I think that it might bring out new ideas and ways in which our school system might be better ran. Supt. Blakeley seemed to sum up the feelings of everyone connected with the school when he said "we hope to profit from the review."

New Telephone Bills

Patrons of the Potlatch Telephone Co. will notice as they receive their statements this month that the company is using a new billing system.

With the new method, customers will receive duplicate copies of their bill. One is to be returned with payment; the other for personal records. Another difference patrons may not be aware of is the reduction in the excise tax from 10 to 9 percent. Although minimal, the 1 percent reduction will affect each patron's bill. And, it's always worthy of note that occasionally taxes do go down.

THANKS FOR A FINE HOLIDAY -

Before the memory of the Holiday Season fades away, we would like to take this opportunity to say thanks to those who helped make the season bright and memorable — to the Lions Club for the decorations and the visit from Santa; (thanks to the Firemen for this, too); thanks to our fellow merchants for their gayly decorated stores; to the residents of the community who put up lights to make our town so pretty; and to the school for the fine Christmas programs. These are traditions we all should cherish along with the true meaning of the season.
