Fifth Grade

Howdy! The fifth grade is just great. Lots of homework ain't that great. Lots of math, English, Soc. Stud., Reading, Science. In math, we're rounding numbers off, and doing time tables. In English were studying the parts of a sentence. In Soc. Studies we're studying parts of map skills. The class officers are: Grady Shawver, president; Larry Gillispie, vice-president, and Keith Ingle, secretary.

The fifth grade has two new students — Eva Sandquist and Marie Burdich.

Shari Brown and Cheryl Hutton, class reporters

Sixth Grade

The sixth grade has only one new teacher. Her name is Mrs. Plank. She teaches art, spelling and reading.

The first four days we didn't do much work. But this week we are starting to do a lot. For art we made pictures. We used different types of colors. We couldn't use scissors. We had to tear. We elected officers for the class. For president, Charl Christensen; vice president, Richard Wolff, and secretary, Eric Souders, Librarian is Mike Hutton, Treasurer will be Bonnle Lawrence and Lori Courtright, reporter.

We at the Juliaetta Elementary School would like all of you to know that you need not have a child in school to come visit and see what we are doing. It is always a good idea to see firsthand the programs that are being offered in your school and how your tax dollars are being used. Please do not wait for a special invitation. You are all welcome any-time. We would appreciate your calling the office so we can let you know th schedule and make your visit most beneficial. If you are interested in any special classroom and would just like to look over the facilities and shoot the breeze for awhile, no call is necessary.

DIMMING OF EYESIGHT

The dimming of evesight is one of the earliest signs of cataracts, observes the Idaho Medical Association. Lights may appear double or reduplicated many times. The patient may feel as if he is looking at things through a spotty windowpane. Excessive dazzling in sunlight is other frequent complaint.

As the cataract extends and blocks off the pupil of the eye, sight becomes more and more reduced.

General medical treatment is ways advisable. When vision is markedly impaired, the ophthalmologist may remove the cloudy lens. A cataract operation usually requires only a short stay in the hospital—usually with excellent results.

Eyeglasses are later prescribed to act as a substitute lens.

A cataract is not a growth, tumor or cancer. Cataract merely means that a cloudy lens is blocking vision.

"The new farm bill contains provis-ions which will encourage farmers to produce more grains, cotton and other crops the marketplace demands," according to Roy R. Glenn, chairman of the Latah County Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation (ASC) cmmittee. Glenn outlined the basic job of the farm program agency in carrying out the provisions of the new law, titled August 10 replaces the Agricultural

Glenn said, "Our job will be to administer the new bill's provisions in such a way as to encourage a level of Agricultural production which will sure ample supplies of food and fiber for American consumers and for growing export sales opportunities. Under the provisions of the new law, farmers will have more freedom to use their resources in the way they feel will earn them the most income from the marketplace." pointed out that farmers incomes will be protected through commodity loans which assist producers in mar-keting their crops in an orderly man-

"Also adding income protection is the new target prices feature of the bill. The guaranteed price provision offers income assurance to farmers by triggering deficiency payments when market prices fall below the target levels. The guaranteed prices for 1974 and 1975 are $2.05/bushel for wheat, $1.38/bushel for corn and 5. Measure detergent and use on- 38 cents /pound for cotton." For ly the amount recommended on the 1976 and 1977 the target prices will be adjusted to reflect changes in farm costs and yield levels.

"Another form of income assurance offered to farmers will be payments to eligible producers prevented from planting or harvesting crops by natural disasters."

"The bill also authorizes the continnation of a program to offer costsharing assistance to farmers for con-servation projects," Glenn said. "This feature establishes long-term, perma-nent conservation practices under the Rural Environmental Assistance Progam and the Water Bank Program."

"The new law provides that the total amount of payments a person may receive under one or more of the feed grain, wheat and upland cotton programs may not exceed $20,000."

FILLING MANY NEEDS

Through the efforts of the forest products industry in implementing the multiple-use concept the nation's commercial timberlands have become virtually an outdoorsman's paradise. Each year thousands of hunters, fishermen and nature lovers drive or hike cross these lands in pursuit of game, to fish or simply relax amid the beauty of nature. While these forests may eventually provide the wood products for our homes, or those of our children we are now able to use and enjoy them for a wide variety of recreational purposes.

Timber companies have recognized the need for more outdoor recreational areas, and they are doing considably more than simply making their forest lands available to out For example, one doorsmen. ern wood products company has opened its two million-plus acres in 7 states to the public without charge and has built some 7,000 miles of roads for easy access to its 92 lakes, 636 miles of streamsides and 88 camp grounds. It has also set aside five miles of marked nature trails in Oregon and a bird sanctuary in Washington, which is regularly used by the Audubon Society. Last year these lands provided an estimated 628,000 visitor-days of recreation of all kinds, including hunting, fishing, hiking, camping, swimming, boating and winter sports. A spokesman for the company said, "lands used for growing trees for tomorrow's homes and paper products can also play an important role in helping satisfy the public's need for outdoor recreation.

The need for timber will continue to grow, as will the need for outdoor recreational areas. Timber is a renewable resource, and with proper management we will be able to have adequate supplies of it. Land, on the other hand, is growing scarce particularly for outdoor recreational pur-poses. Multiple use of timberlands is a sensible answer to satisfying the great variety of human needs that our forests are capable of supplying.

Lewis and Clark encountered the most hardship on their entire trek crossing what is now the Clearwater National Forest in Idaho.

in your town?

The public has a right to know what it costs to build or improve a street or building in your town. Your local newspaper is the publication where you find that information.

For centuries, people have recognized the right of the community and of the individual to be put on notice.

Many citizens don't understand what a legal notice is, or why they're printed in your local newspaper. Many people don't read them until it's too late.

Legal notices keep a citizen informed on all school, city and county action by official bodies. Legal notices also give a citizen an opportunity to do something about some proposed action that may affect his rights.

Your local newspaper is a long established medium for such notices as provided by law or by official designation. And, it's one of the many public services provided by this newspaper.

Dry Conditions Still Plague Idaho Farmers

August weather conditions were generally favorable throughout the state for crop development and harvesting operations according to the Idaho Crop and Livestock Reporting Service. North Idaho areas continued to be very dry and short of foreign Dryland pastures and ranges age. Dryland pastures and ranges provided below average grazing for ivestock in all except southeastern Idaho. However, August tempera-tures remain above the frost level and the late maturing crops made good progress during the month.

Except for drybeans, crop prospects as of September 1 continued to place forecasted yields per acre for most Idaho field crops below 1972 levels. The prospective yield of 41 bushels for winter wheat is down 2 bushels from the August 1 forecast and 4 bushels from the August 1 forecast and 4 bushels less than last year Prospective yield for spring wheat at 49.0 is un-changed from August 1 but 2 bushels less than the outturn of 51.0 bushels. The increased 1978 acreage of all wheat will however result in an indicated production of 47.1 million bushels 6, percent more than last year.

The September prospective yield for the barley crop held at the August 1 level of 53.0 bushels per acre, 1 less than last year. The increased barley acreage for 1973 is expected to result in a crop of 43.5 million bushels up 9 percent from last year.

The August 1 production estimates carried forward to September 1 indicated more corn and oats for grain than last year because of larger plantings, but with a smaller produc-tion of mixed grains from the smaller acreage and lower yields than last

ACCIDENTS HIT YOUTHS MORE THAN OTHER AGES

Juveniles and young adults appear more likely candidates for hunting accidents and even death than people in all other age groups combined.

Figures maintained year after year by the Idaho Fish and Game Department show that most of the victims are found in the age group ranging from 10-29 years.

During 1972 there was a total of 33 hunting accidents—6 fatalities and 27 injuries. The age span of 25 of the 33 hunters was 10-29 years.

Nineteen of the 33 injuries were self-inflicted, though accidentally.

Rifles and handguns accounted for 25 of the accidents.

It's Going To Take Some Money ...

It's true that the best things in life are free, but some where along the way you're going to need some money. . . right now we're thinking about school expenses. If you are a young person heading back to college this fall, why not think about putting some of your summer wages in a safe, convenient First Bank of Troy checking or savings account. You'll have some money when you need it.

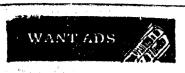

If you're a parent, why not start adding a little extra to your present savings account so you'll be pre-pared for the expense of school clothing, books, shoes and all the "little" extras that add up so fast.

Another Dull and Quiet Week Week at Cherrylane

Mrs. Loren Ratliff, her daughter, Mrs. Larry Marston and baby, Amie Kny Marston, departed for their home at Bothell. Wash., on Thursday, Sept. 13, at 8 a.m. after five days at the home of Mrs. Ratliff's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Stel-gers of Cherrylane. While there the two visiting ladies laboriously and skillfully applied fresh paint and enamel to the kitchen and bathroom. In addition Mrs. Ratliff bought and brought the materials to accomplish this labor of love! Mrs. Lily Ratliff returned as far as Soap Lake with the departing group. The Steigers home seemed very lonely, clean, fresh and orderly again for a day or so, but life moved on. On Tuesday last, Leonard Wolff, Leland, stopped in for a chat with Ernest following an unsuccessful try at river fishing. Alvin Johnson, Lenore, came from Lewiston late Thursday afternoon and joined Ernest for his regular Thursday evening trip to help oldtime fiddlers entertain at one of Lewiston Nursing homes. Young Aaron Lowe, of Spokane, a well-known prize winning fiddler who many have seen and heard on "Starit Stairway," was present to make that evening's program a really bang up" performance! First Grade

Nancy Cook shared a pretty green parakeet with the class. The chil-dren enjoyed watching the parakeet. Helpers for this week are Kelly Cooper and Neil Oliver. They helped pass out papers and other classroom

The children enjoyed a juggling assembly Monday at the high school. The two children who participated from the First grade were Mark Harris and Brenda Hamilton. They would toss a rubber ball and the juggler would catch it on a narrow

The First grade children say Happy Birthday to Donald Downs. Donald is seven years old.

Grade Two News
Our sharing time has brought many interesting visitors to our classroom; so far Paula Fliger brought a kitten. Joy Balley brought a frog, and Theresa Johns brought two rabbits.

We've enjoyed birthday treats from Mrs. Parks and Heidi Porter. Mrs. Farks and Heidis Forter.

Mrs. Kolva, speech therapist, visited with each student in our room this past week.

The Parent-Teacher dinner was enjoyed by all and the third grade is quite pleased with their new mascot. (The mascot, of course, is the tiger won by the Third grade for having the most parents in attendance at the dinner.)

Fourth Grade

The Fourth grade class had 24 children but now they have 23 because Lonnie Simpson moved away to Utah. Monday we gave a party for Lonnie and had fun, too; but we miss Lonnie so, "look out Utah; here comes Lonnie!"

We had a national school assembly Monday and it was all about juggling. Fave the girl and Floyd the man were juggling for us. Floyd rode a unicycle too. Some different grade and some high schoolers tried to ride a unicycle and fell down on their seats. Potluck dinner was Monday night. They had lots of good food. We had fun. The teachers were introduced

In the Fourth grade the teacher, Miss Stefonek, thought of an idea. She said we could tell time by the shadows. So we're going to go on the playground where the bars are and tell the time.

Our class is growing magic rocks and they are growing beautifully. You can order the rocks from Miss Stefonek, Some are short and some are long. They have a solution that they grow in. They are different colored rocks and look pretty. You grow them in a glass jar and the rocks make a violet red color. I hope you like the news from the Fourth grade because this is the first time we wrote the news.

In arithmetic we are on page 36.
We are studying proper and improper fractions. We have been viewing film strips about housing, clothing, major cities, and children. Also, we have been listening to records about longtitude, latitude, the equator, imaginary lines, the axis, and the northern, western, southern and eastern hemispheres.

In science we are learning about water vapor, steam, clouds and evaporation. In language we are learning about simple subjects, simple predicates, complete subjects, complete predicates, nouns, pronouns and

This week was spent visiting classrooms to become acquainted with the students and to enable each class concerned to become accustomed to someone new in the classroom.

We are also testing this week starting in the Second grade and progressing up through the other grades. Each test is done individually

As soon as we have the test results, letters will be sent to those anniversary" from the Fourth grade parents having children in the program, and a meeting will be arranged to form the Parent-Teacher Council. We are most anxious to get the council going again this year, but will need your support as parents. When that time comes hope to see
