Everyone's been wanting a report on our trip to Japan. Here it is, for better or worse.

After several months of planning and preparation, Barbara and I left for Japan July 22. The plane left Spokane at 3:00 a.m., stopped in Alaska for refueling, and on to Japan, arriving about 15 hours later, about 6 a.m. Tokyo time. We stayed for three days at the Olympic youth center, the facility built for the 1963 Olympic Games in Tokyo. Then we pleted and mailed. Win Football Games

Genesee, Kendrick

Defense was the keynote of football action this past week for both the Genesee Bulldogs and the Kendrick Tigers. Both teams held their opponents scoreless with the Bulldogs romping to an easy 33-0 win over the Nezperce Indians while the Kendrick Tigers pounded out a 24-0 victory over the Highland Huskies.

Thursday night the Genesee Jr. Varsity came down to Kendrick for a match with the Tiger Jv's and edged out the young Tigers 8-6 in a wet, slippery contest.

Tigers Win 24-0 Coach Dick Ruark was well pleased with the ball control and defensive work of his KHS Tigers following their 24-0 win over the Highland Huskies Friday night at Craigmont.
The Tigers scored in every period but the final one and rolled up a total of 305 yards of offense while holding the Huskies to just 28 yards total offense while folding the Huskies to just 28 yards total offense.

What Ruark was especially pleased with was the steady, sustained drives which preceded each touchdown. In the first period Marty Clemenhagen climaxed a 70-yard drive by going four yards up the middle to score the first TD of the game, Kelly Clemenhagen made it 8-0 with a quarterback keeper play for the successful con-

22 Given Job Finding Help In County

Job placement activities increased during the past week reports the Moscow office of the Department of Employment, 22 workers were placed on jobs during the week compared to 11 last week, 31 new jobs were received and at the close of the week there were 49 listings available: Many of those positions are for domestic workers. Other listings inservice station attendant, waitress, farm equipment operators, truck driver, cook, automotive work ers, raidio repairman, TV repairman and meat cutter. 23 new claims for unemployment 23 new claims for unemployment insurance were filed bringing that total to 217. This is down from last week's total of 237, but still higher than the total last year. Moscow residents receiving benefits total 145 in addition to 5 in Genesee, 29 in the Troy-Deary-Bovill area, 2 in Kendrick and 36 in the Potlatch area.

Latah County Bookmobile Schedule

The Latah County bookmobile has resumed its fall schedule with stops at Juliaetta from 10-11 a.m. and in Kendrick from 11:45 to 1:00 p.m. on Sept. 18, Oct. 2, 16, 30; Nov. 13, 27, and Dec. 11. Books are checked out for four weeks with most any book obtainable through inter-library loan requests.

New features on the bookmobile include a science fiction section, a shelf of recently published books and a new driver. The new bookmobile librarian is Marsha Schoelfler, a 1970 graduate of Kendrick High School. As an English major, she attended: the University of Idaho for twoyears and was enrolled for for one. semester at the University of Iowa

KHS Supt. Reports On Governor's Conference

A few comments from the Gov ernor's conference on "Youth in Peril," which was held at the Roadway Inn at Boise, Sept. 13 and 14, are in order and should be passed on to the people in our school dis-

This conference was attended by approximately 350 doctors, nurses, social workers, lawyers, psychiatrics, educators, college students, lay therapists, parents and child protection

The State Department of Environ-mental and Community Services, along with the University of Colo-rado Medical Center staff, provided most of the two days' agenda. The main purpose of the conference was to create an awareness of child abuse in Idaho and to get all agencies working together to assist in identification, reporting such cases, and pro-viding treatment and care.

According to statistics revealed at tistics. Abusive parents come from all economic classes; however, there are fewer among the Jews, Mexicans and Navajo Indians, as their families are street and Navajo Indians. seem to stick together more.

Why do parents abuse their children, which is most generally done the first three years of a child's life? Sitting at home with the child increases frustrations. Loss of a job, unwanted pregnancy, and a tough work day are prime factors for bat-tering the child. Many guilty parents were mistreated at home and unable to recognize physical abuse. Political assassins in the world were often abused as children. Eighty per cent of the abused end up in trouble with juvenile authorities. Many of them want to leave home and marry the first guy that comes along. If either spouse gives love to their children the chances are that they children the chances are that they Lodge. will grow up good citizens, fathers and mothers. What are our high schools doing clude a sister. Etta in California. to aid students abused in their childhood? Generally, when they come eral Home. Into the secondary school the incident of the attacks have been forgotten or they have learned to live with the situation. It's hard to get these type students to reveal abuse at home. Courses are needed to prepare high school students for parenthood. Something must be done to get moral values and ethical conduct into the students heads, so they know what's right and wrong. Communications must be enhanced if child abuse is to end. The reason for its existence must end, and we must define and identify its cause. None of us should be afraid to open our mouth to correct child abuse and neglect.

Faculty members from the University of Colorado Medical Center reported on 58 abused children cases enver Kennedy Center since 1960. These studies revealed that these mistreated children often had the following: Neurological damage, language disorders, growth failure, nutritional disorders, below average I.Q., sexual abuse, withdrawal symptoms, temper tantrums and learning problems.

The Denver staff made these statements about the Kennedy Center survey: "How can a child fit these disorders into his mind and survive? Not all of them are aggressive and and angry, they can't enjoy anything, they seem to be unable to even complain, don't think well of themselves, they think bad, and can't perceive what adults are thinking." Child abuse exists in Idaho. It is an emotionally charged issue, so emotions will have to be involved. Many of us know the situation, but wish it would go away. We haven't looked at overcrowded situations such as large numbers sleeping in bedrooms, and fighting over bathroom use. Do we get up early enough to get our children a hot breakfast? These conditions help set the stage for abuse in Idaho. Bonner County recently had 10 cases of battering out of a population of 18,000 people. 'Anthony is inhabited by many angry, hostile adolescents. Many are there, because of broken homes, some due to the fact the parents don't care enough about them to even prepare their meals; consequently, a lot of the young people are there because they turned to crime.

KHS Principal Tells Of English Dept.

During the coming weeks, we will feature an article on one of the departments at Kendrick High School. This week we present the Department of English Studies and is as

The Department of English Studies was formed in 1971 as an outgrowth of the pre-existing English I-II-III-IV system. Due to changing educational demands on entering college freshmen, the English faculty under-took to re-evaluate what areas were necessary for adequate preparation in the fields of English and Litera-ture. The term "English Studies" was devised in order to express the totality of the material covered by courses within the department.

Under the old system of English preparation, a student enrolled in one course per year. Students were allowed no choices, no variants. No flexibility was available in order to provide peripheral studies. Therefore, the old yearly based system was scrapped in favor of a semesterbased curriculum. The effect of this change was readily evident. Under the old system, only four courses were offered in English for the grades 9-12, Listed below are the available courses under the new sys-

English 10: Introduction to High School English Meant to prepare the incoming high school students for an academic program, the course stresses grammar usage and composition skills. Library skills are developed to aid in future research needs.

English 11— Introduction to High School English. A course primarily based on literature studies, the student is given a general background in literary types. Both English 10 and 11 are required in order to enroll

English 20—Survey of American Literature. Offered at the 10th grade level, this course stresses the development of American literature from its colonial beginnings until the end of the American Civil War.
Emglish 21—Survey of American Literature. Also a course developed for sophomores, this course is designed for the study of American literature from the Reconstruction period up to the Modern School. Stressed sections are modern American poetry and American drama.

English 25—Instroduction to Mythology. Basically a sophomore course offering, this course is offered in order to give the student interested in literature a background in the mythological heritage of western literature. Areas covered are Assyro-Babylonian, Egyptian, Phoenician, Greco-Roman, and Far Eastern. Stu-dents are encouraged to build proj-ects which illustrate facets of study.

English 30-Survey of English Literature. Part of the core study for the junior year, this course covers English literature from Anglo-Saxon times until the end of the Neo-Classic period. This course is a pre-requisite for the study of Shakes-

United Methodist Women Meet

The women associated with the Kendrick United Methodist Church met Sunday evening, September 16th the church. Officers were elected for the coming year with Mrs. Wm. Turner as President; Mrs. Robert Magnuson, vice president, and Mrs. Donald Eichner, secretary-treasurer. Although the turn-out was slight, with only 18 members attending, much was done in terms of planning for the years activities. It was decided to sponsor a training clinic for baby-sitters in the near future. The clinic will attempt to help girls who are seeking babysitting assignments to be better prepared for probems and emergencies if they should arise. Plans were also discussed for the coming fall dinner at the Kendrick church, the creation of a women's recreational group which would be oriented towards outdoor recreations such as back-packing, hiking, bound student, writing skills, career awareness, and vocational oriented writing programs are offered.

English 43—Vocational English.

Companion course to English 42. English 44—Senior Research. A course available only to college bound seniors, research skills are perfected, culminating in a major research project as part of the requirements of graduation and recommendation from the department.

English 45—Shakespeare, Designed for college preps, in-depth preluding studies in Shakespeare are developed before the study of six representa-

Continuing development of courses in the junior high will complete the total reorganization of the department by the fall of 1974.

The Department of English Studies includes Mrs. Mary Bowie, Miss Vivian Rendla, and Mr. Steven Branting, chairman. Parents and interested persons are cordially invited to attend selected classes to view the new curriculum in action.

that were taken up, although no definite plans formulated were: creation of a culture group that would attempt to take in plays and concerts on a regular basis; a "sack lunch" worship group for a day during the week; a group interested in helping the nursing homes of the ar-ea in volunteer projects; a Christian Drama Group; a book-of-the-month discussion group; and the possibility of sponsoring a Girl Scout or Brown-of the evening was a decision to bicycling, etc.

Plans for a quilting and handicraft group were discussed.

Other ideas would be available to help those in need in our local community. The church recently dedicated $380 for such purposes, and the women felt that a permanent means of assisting in such projects was needed.

It's Going To Take Some Money...

It's true that the best things in life are free, but some where along the way you're going to need some money. . . right now we're thinking about school expenses. If you are a young person heading back to college this fall, why not think about putting some of your summer wages in a safe, convenient First Bank of Troy checking or savings account. You'll have some money when you need it.

If you're a parent, why not start adding a little extra to your present savings account so you'll be prepared for the expense of school clothing, books, shoes and all the "little" extras that add up so fast.

Home Again!

After undergoing major surgery for the installation of a new artificial hip joint at St. Joseph's Hospital in Lewiston on Sept. 7, Helena Brown was able to return to her home at Pinecreek again on Saturday, Sept. 22, having spent the two previous days in the home of her daughter and family, the Bill Coopers in North Lewiston. Between crutches and a walker Helena is able to manage nicely at present and everyone, including her two large pet cats, feel overjoyed she is again amongst us!

With full credit to the "Schupfer Boys," the 3-way "round robin" phone calls are again going strong between the "New Teeth" home, the Brown home and Steigers at Cherrylane, adding to feeling of security and neighborliness.

Mystie Heimgariner attended the in the home of her sister and husband, the Bill Heimgartners of Clarkston.

Mrs. Erms Stevens accompanied Mr. and Mrs. Eldon Heimgartner to Lewiston Saturday where they attinc tended the fair, the 4-H livestock sale, and visited also in the Everett Custer home in Clarkston.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Ranta, recent evening callers in the E. Steigers home, reported a most enjoyable vacation trip to Alburquerque, New Mexico, the birthplace and former home of Mrs. Ranta. Making the trip via jet plane, then using a rented car for 800 miles of sightseeing and visiting relatives while there added to the pleasure of their journey.

Hunters Return

A 5-man hunting party, including Lee Heath, Gene Stalnaker, Buck Batterion, Earl Heimgartner and Gilbert Schraufnagel, returned recently from a 10-day moose hunting and Rainbow trout fishing trip to Williams Lake in Canada. One moose and a very few fish were the fruits of their expedition, but a wonderful time was reported by all!

Talia Schneider, daughter of Mrs. Lee Heath, is now attending law school at Moscow U. of L, after two years at Olympia College in Bremerton, Wash., and has been visiting recently in her mother's home, Many friends visited in their home during the past week, among them Mrs. Don Hoisington and daughters as Thursday luncheon guests, Mr. and Mrs. Loren Hoisington on Sunday p.m., and the Ralph Loomis family on Saturday FOR SALE: Used windows with afternoon, Mr. and Mrs. Loomis and Mrs. Flora Gibbs of Spokane spent the day Wednesday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Newt Heath. Mrs. Inez Inghram, Richland, Wash., with daughter Patti Inghram, Walla Walla, accompanied by Pauline Wooley, working companion of Inez, were Saturday guests.

Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Heimgartner brother Roy Heimgartner and wife guests of their grandparents, the enjoyed Thursday supper in the home Ardythe, whose parents, the C. F. Lyndors of Orofino, were also supper guests. The Waynd Heimgartners were among the many fair attendants taking her mother, Mrs. Hunter and Aunt Charlotte with them. The two latter ladies especially appreciated the flower exhibits!

Little Dorrene Straw, Lewiston, visited with Grandmother Delores Heimgartner and Leslie from Wednesday until Saturday of last week. Brother Danny, a kindergarten student this year, had his nose "slightly out of joint" over this especial pleasure that used to be his private prerogative! "The Welcome Rain" was news enuff, for several, including Mrs. Cletis Hoisington.

Teressa and Angie Hoisington, small daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Don Hoisington were fair and carnival visitors with Aunt Karol and coustn Vicki Hoisington on Sunday, especially enjoying the pony rides!

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Steigers, Puyallup, Wash., arrived Monday a.m. Sept. 24 for a visit with area residents, enroute from attending a ham radio convention in Walla Walla.

News Items From Juliaetta School

A Word From the Principal-The public schools of Joint School District No. 283 endeavor to provide appropriate educational experiences for each child enrolled in them. The report cards and the parent-teacher conferences represent our attempt to appraise the physical, social, emotional and intellectual growth of your child. Since each child is different to the conference of the c ent, we suggest that you not compare his growth with other children but consider him in terms of his own interests and abilities.

The report card and the conferences will enable you to gain a more complete understanding of your child's progress. It is therefore recommended that you avail yourself of the two scheduled conferences. Please feel free to arrange with the teachers for additional conference as the need arises. The teacher may also send interim reports to you indicating notable achievement and improvement or calling attention to unsatisfactory work. The best progress of a child in school occurs when there is cooperation between the school and home .We solicit your cooperation and support.
