Kendrick, which finished fifth in the Central Idaho A-3 league this season, meets fourth-ranking Prairie in the opening game Wednesday evening at 7:00. Prairie holds two regular season wins over the Tigers, but Coach George Nolan, who brought season in six years, is cautiously optimistic about his squad. "We can play with Prairie if we just keep moving the ball and work the backboards better," he told the Gazette Tuesday morning after the pairings were announced. Kendrick received some severe setbacks in the last two weeks were setbacks in the last two weeks. when Kelly Clemenhagen and Marty Clemenhagen both sustained leg in-juries. Kelly chipped a knee bone and missed one game, he has returned to action but, according to the coach is due for surgery after the season. Marty Clemenhagen tore ligaments in his ankle and has missed the last games and definitely will not be ready for this week although he might be able to play the last week of the tournament, if Kendrick survives. Ed Anderson, a big dependable member of the aquad decided to drop basketball for the year.

Nolan will move Paul Hutcheson, Doug Craig and Mike Boe up from the junior varsity squad for the tournament.

According to the coach, Kelly, Ron Rilflow, Ken Brown, Lavern Reed and James Souders will start for the Tigers in the Wednesday night game. Wolan termed Souders as "the most improved player on the team." Rounding out the roster will be Benjamin, Parks, Mike Silflow, Hutcheson, Craig. Boe and Marty C. If Marty is unable to play, Nolan said he will move Eari Lawrence up from junior varsity. Genesco Meets Potistch Thursday

Genesee, which ended the season in second place in the Central Idaho League behind the strong Kamiah Kubs, plays its first game in the tournament Thursday evening at 9:00 when they are paired with Potlatch. Genesco holds wins of 69-54 and 81-56 over the Loggers who finished in a deadheat with Timberline for last place in the league. "But don't sell Potlatch short," said Bulldog coach Ozzie Kanikkeberg Tuesday morning, "they have the stuff to be the sleep-difficulties the last part of the campaign and finished with a 10-4 record.

Everyone on the team is apparently healthy and Ozzie said he plans no particular changes before tournament time.

Kendrick also closed its regular season on a sour note Friday night when they traveled to Kooskia and came home with the short end of a 49-45 score after a game with the Clearwater Valley Rams. Kendrick led at the half 25-21, but saw that lead disappear in the third period when the Rams outscored them 15-10. Kendrick came back to outscore the CV team 10-9 in the final quarter of play but the margin was too much for the Tigers to overcome. Kelly Clemenhagen had 15 for the Tigers.

Representative Butler Reports on Legislature

Just out of a committee meeting at 6:00 p. m. Boise time, Rep. Leo Butler reported on the activities of the Boise legislature Tuesday evening by phone to the Gazette.

Bills and future hearings occupied most of Butler's remarks as he said a hearing on the public employees negotiation bill (HB 420) will be held Thursday. This involves the rights of state employees to engage in collective bargaining.
Butler also said a bill removing the State Liquor Dispensary operation from the Governor's office and put-ting it in the Tax office has been proposed. Butler viewed this as a slap at the governor.

Also introduced in the Revenue and Taxation Committee this week were bills which would give a $15 grocery allowance on the income tax; reinstate Federal deductions on state tax and reduce the sales tax to 2 percent from its present 3.

Many Attended 50th Anniversary of Canyon Chapter, O. E. S.

An estimated 120 persons attended the 50th anniversary observance of the founding of Canyon Chapter No. 67, O.E.S., in Kendrick's Fraternal Hall Sunday afternoon, February 17. In addition to members and friends of the lodge from this area, visitors from Moscow, Pullman, Tekos, Orofino, Lewiston, Genesee, Nezperce, Potlatch and Winchester were also present

The observance was presided over by Ina Fiddler, Worthy Matron and Andy Cox, Worthy Patron. A musical prelude was furnished by Mrs. Inex Armitage at the piano.

In an atmosphere of humble achievement and fond remembrance, sometimes brimming with emotion, the early history of the lodge was recalled by Miss Helen Mielke and Mrs. Ruth Adams, two charter members of Canyon Chapter. Miss Mielke, who was gone from the area for years, said she was always proud and happy she maintained her membership with Canyon Chapter. Mrs. Adams told of the formation of the lodge and how on the day charter was invested, those members from Juliaetta walked to Kendrick because of poor road conditions carrying their good clothes over one arm and a kettle of fried chicken or a cake in the other.

Anne Deobald Honored A standing ovation of honor and appreciation was given Mrs. E. A. (Anne) Deobald as she was awarded her 50-year membership pin and life membership card, Mrs. Deobald served as secretary of Canyon Chapter No. 67 for 41 years until her retirement last June. # Good Neighbors

The main stream of Inland Empire settlers began to pour in just after the war between the states. They were people of every kind and from every place. Some even still wore their striped breeches, both blue and gray.

It wasn't considered proper or tactful to question a man's background or beliefs. The main thing was, how would he be for a neighbor.

Folks were spread out pretty thin and your well-being or even life could depend on the nearest person's ability and willingness to lend a hand. A tradition of hospitality and good neighborliness built up and became a regional characteristic we still enjoy today.

Good thing, too. At The Washington Water Power Company we have been warning of possible energy shortages and the need for everyone to share. This should come easy for folks who really know what neighborliness is.

SOY EXTENDERS-WHAT ARE THEY?

Soy extenders (textured vegetable proteins) are available on many procery shelves today.

Consumers are becoming acquainted with the possibility of using soy extenders instead of bread crumbs or other cereal type foods and eggs to make hamburgers or meat loaves feed more people.

According to Joanne Anderson, Extension Home Economist, U. of I. would like her to visit your group. cooperative extension service, soy please contact her. extenders help maintain the consistency to the texture of beef. They actually simulate the texture, making it more difficult to determine that the dish has been "extended."

Some markets sell a premixed com bination of ground meat and textured vegetable protein. It is quite usual to start with a 30 percent fat content ground beef and add the extender so the resulting product contains from 70 to 80 percent meat and 20 to 30 percent soy protein.

Consumers will have similar percentage composition in their own mixes if they follow directions on the package of the soy extender. In taste tests, 30 percent soy extender to 70 percent meat has been prefer-

On the other hand some bables are more "difficult." They cry a lot, won't eat regularly and are extreme-

Studies have been made that measure babies' temperaments by observing their activities, excitability, sleep and eating behavior.

These studies are trying to find out why one baby's temperament is "perfect" and another's more "difficult" says Lois Pace, expanded food and nutrition education program specialist, U. of I. cooperative extension service.

Some of the research indicates prenatal influences may have something to do with a baby's temperament. Anxious and tense mothers usually have the more difficult labor and dalivery. This fact could be an infinite in the baby's hyperactivity.
