

Committees Named at Community Church

The next three Sundays in August we will again have Rev. Stan Lyman as our preacher. Stan has consented to "come back up the hill" for the remainder of August and our own minister will be here on September 8th.

Byron McProud has accepted the call extended by this congregation as our full-time pastor. We are all excited about his coming and the future role we can share here at the Community Church.

Straw Supplies New Fuel for Tractors

Straw is likely to become a valuable commodity, now that scientists know how to convert it into tractor fuel and nitrogen fertilizer.

That was the forecast made recently at the UI by Dr. Charles Rohrman, research scientist for Battelle Northwest Laboratories, Richland, Wash. He spoke at the annual meeting of the Western Agricultural Economic Assn.

Seeking substitutes for gasoline, diesel fuel and petrochemicals, scientists are enthusiastic about methanol as an energy source. Rohrman said, Methanol may be obtained from wheat straw, other crop residues, animal manure and municipal waste. At present wheat straw is seen as a "very promising" source of methanol or wood alcohol, he said.

"More than twice the total amount of methanol produced in the US in 1973 could be manufactured from the annual residues of wheat straw in the Pacific Northwest," Rohrman pointed out.

IRS To Mail Out Questionnaire About Taxpayer Service

The Internal Revenue Service today announced that 15,000 taxpayers across the nation are going to be asked if they are satisfied with the help provided by the IRS in the preparation of tax returns.

A direct mail questionnaire will be sent by the IRS to taxpayers whose names were chosen at random by computer from lists of all who filed individual income tax returns.

Taxpayers are under no obligation to fill out the form but the IRS hopes they will express their views so that steps can be taken to improve services where necessary. Signatures are not required on the questionnaire and there is no way of identifying persons who complete it or who do not.

Survey questions cover problems taxpayers have in filling out their income tax returns, quality of IRS service provided, convenience of IRS office locations, and extent of published information available to help in the preparation of the tax returns. The IRS will attempt to compile survey results before the end of the year and to make needed changes in its taxpayer service program in time for the 1975 tax filing season.

DO YOU KNOW ME?

I am a little thing with a big meaning
 I help unlock doors, open hearts, dispel prejudice.
 I create friendship and goodwill.
 I inspire respect and admiration.
 Everybody loves me.
 I bore nobody.
 I violate no law.
 I cost nothing.
 Many have praised me, none has condemned me.
 I am pleasing to those of high and low degree.
 I am useful every moment of the day, in many ways.

The mountain beaver never hibernates. Even in the higher mountains where the snow piles up and stays on the ground for several months, it maintains its daily routine.

The major difficulty blocking the use of straw as a source for methanol is the need for improving straw collection methods so straw can be picked up and delivered to point of use at a cost not exceeding $8 per ton, he added.

Although ethyl alcohol has been obtained for many years from distilling wheat and other grains, the conversion of crop wastes into methanol is a newly developed process. "For industrial purposes, methanol is almost as useful as high-priced ethyl alcohol," Rohrman said. "However, one thing you can't do with methanol is drink it."

Eleven Placed on Jobs In Latah County

11 Latah county residents were given job finding help through the Moscow office of the Idaho Department of Employment during the past week. Frank J. Harkstein, Moscow office manager, said that this was a decline from the previous week's activities when 24 workers were placed in gainful employment.

There are still a considerable number of young workers seeking jobs for the balance of the summer.

The number of persons continuing to file claims for unemployment insurance rose slightly from 225 last week to 231 at the end of the current week. The total was below last year's total of 272, however. During the week 24 persons filed new claims for unemployment insurance and most of them were newcomers into the area who were filing claims against states other than Idaho.

Norco Wheat Yields Seeded in Spring, Fall

A new variety of wheat for Idaho, Washington and Oregon has the ability to produce well from either late fall or early spring seedings.

Developed in the cooperative, federal-state research program in Pullman, Wash., the new variety is named Norco. Breeder and foundation seed is available from the Washington State Crop Improvement Ass'n. Norco is a soft white, semi-dwarf wheat. Seeded in the late fall, Norco equals or exceeds Nugaines in average grain yields. From early spring seedings, Norco's yields are comparable to those of the spring wheat Marfed.

Release of the new variety was announced jointly by the USDA Agricultural Research Service, the Idaho Agricultural Experiment Station, the Oregon Agricultural Experiment Station and the College of Agriculture Research Center, WSU.

Since it requires very little vernalization, Norco can be seeded early in the spring. It does not have great sensitivity to day length.

When seeded late in the fall at Pullman, Norco showed about the same winter-hardiness as Nugaines.

Milling characteristics of Norco are similar to those of Nugaines. However the USDA Western Wheat Quality Laboratory has rated Norco flour superior for noodle-making properties. No commercial variety now grown in the Pacific Northwest equals Norco's outstanding noodle quality.

Norco is resistant to local races of stripe and leaf rust. It is very susceptible to Cercosporiella and Fusarium foot rot.

Seed should be treated with a recommended fungicide before planting since Norco is susceptible to common and dwarf bunt and flag smut.

Supplies of registered seed should be available to commercial growers for planting in the year 1975.

TOME There's a time to get, and a time to give and a time to throw away; There's a time to do a kindly deed, and that time is today.

There's a time to sing and a time to mourn, a time for joy and sorrow, There's a time to love; but the time to hate might better be tomorrow.

There's a time to sleep and a time to wake, a time to work and play; But the time to speak an evil thought passed by us yesterday. —Author Unknown

Pets are Worth Saving

The city of Lewiston impounds about 800 dogs a year. Less than 25% of these are reclaimed by their owners.

The animal shelter receives about 2,500 additional animals a year. About 400 are placed with new owners. The rest are given euthanasia. The problem grows with each passing year. Please help us reverse this trend.

You can help in two ways:

- BE A RESPONSIBLE DOG OWNER—unless you are a breeder, have your dog or cat spayed, or neutered by a veterinarian. (Yes, the statistics on cats are also painful). Write or call us for a pamphlet on the effects of neutering and spaying.
SEND US PEOPLE WHO WANT A DOG—The shelter has healthy pets for adoption. If they are old enough we have them spayed. They have had distemper shots.
If we all just recognize our problem maybe we can solve it.

Mrs. A. C. Wilson, Leona and Eldon, called on Mrs. Anna Bowers Sunday evening.
Sunday Mr. and Mrs. Jerry J. Ingle and family and Mrs. Olga Nelson, Deary, celebrated a joint birthday anniversary for Mrs. Nealon and Diane Ingle with a picnic at Boulder Creek Park.
Kraig and Kari Galloway, Lewiston, spent the weekend with their grandmother, Mrs. Eula Galloway and Uncle Jerry.
Dewey Galloway was a Sunday morning visitor of Mrs. Anna Bower. Mrs. W. M. Leland and Mrs. Harold Peterson, Spokane, spent from Saturday until Monday with their daughter and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Slind.
Sunday Mrs. Mildred Blanford, together with her brother and family, her aunt, Mrs. Kari Thyfault, and grandson Billy were huckleberry picking at Beals Butte.
Mr. and Mrs. Neils Sveve, Chad and Adam, and Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Sveve, enjoyed a barbecue dinner Sunday.
CARD OF THANKS
I wish to express my thanks to all who helped extinguish the stubble fire at my place last Friday. A special thanks to Fire Warden Dick Benjamin. — Walter Zumhofs. 31c

Well Tuned Cars
SAVE GAS!
It has been proven that a well-tuned conditioned car or truck provides better gas milage. With the energy crunch and high prices, motorists just can't afford to pour dollars out of the exhaust pipe.
That's why we recommend keeping your car or truck in the best mechanical shape at all times. And—we can help with a good tune-up job. Why not drop in or call and set up an appointment? It'll mean savings in money and gasoline.
