IT HAPPENED WAY BACK WHEN

Kendrick Gazette June 7, 1935

Linden—The pupils recently hearing from their 8th grade examinations are happy to know they all passed with good averages. The pupils are John Keller, Ruth Cuddy, Helen Hunt and Billy Weyen.

School closed Thursday with a picnic. Most of the parents were also present. All are happy to know that Mr. and Mrs. Perryman will be with us again this next school year.

Little Bear Ridge—Tuesday evening several relatives and friends helped Gunder Referson celebrate his birthday. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Long and Barbara, Mrs. Arlos Crocker and children, all of Kendrick; Mr. and Mrs. Jim Benjamin and Eileen, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Boverncamp and family and Gilbert Rudy.

We are told that the next relief project will be on the Little Bear Ridge road. It seems almost too good to be true.

Cameron News—Mrs. Walter Koepf entertained a group of children and their mothers Tuesday afternoon, honoring her daughter Lynn's birthday. Guests were Sharon and Perky Powell, Leonard and David Eldridge, Rhoda Johnson, Patricia and Dorothy Mielke, Glen and Reggie Wegner, Ted and Duane Meske, Judy Lynn and Walter Koepf and Ted Havens. Adults present were Mrs. Roy Ramey and Jeanne, Mrs. Theo Meske, Mrs. Glen Wegner, Mrs. Ed Mielke, Mrs. Elmo Eldridge and Mrs. Kenneth Powell.

Herbert Brunseik of Kellogg spent last week with his sister, Mrs. August Brammer and brother, Wilbert Brunseik and other relatives and friends.

Genesee News 50 Years Ago

Another big free celebration will be held in Genesee on July 4th.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. John Vandenburg was the scene of a very pleasant family reunion and dinner on Sunday when their sons and wives gathered at the family home to spend the day and partake of the splendid dinner prepared by "Mother Van." Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Emory Vandenburg and Dick Vandenburg of Troy; Mr. and Mrs. Harry Vandenburg and little daughter of Seattle and Jack Vandenburg, who came out of the forest reserve for the occasion and will spend a week at home.

Arthur Flomer, son of Mr. and Henry Flomer had the misfortune to dislocate his left ankle last Sunday, when a horse he was riding slipped in the wet barnlot and fell on the lad.

Fourteen In County Given Job Finding Help Last Week

14 Latah Co. workers were given job finding help by the Moscow office of the Idaho Dept. of Employment during the past week. Frank J. Hartstein, Moscow office manager, said that this is a few more than the 9 placed on jobs during the previous week and equals the number successfully referred to jobs during the first week of June a year ago. During the week, a total of 12 new job listings were received at the office, just one less than listed during the previous week. At the end of the week, there were 11 jobs still open. Included among these jobs were secretarial positions, laboratory assistant, an administrative assistant, auto mechanic, cafe and domestic workers, and others. Hartstein indicated that job opportunities are picking up some what now that better weather conditions seem to be here to stay for a while.

In addition to the regular jobs on the regular labor market, Hartstein reports that his office has helped youngsters find employment in the special summer youth program being operated by the Department of Employment in conjunction with the Comprehensive Employment and Training Act. Many of these young people had been working under the in-school Program and were transferred from a 15-hour week to a 40-hour week. However, many more were employed for the first time.

About 80 persons discontinued filing claims for unemployment insurance during the week, according to Hartstein's report. He said that a large number of those were construction workers returning to work, some loggers going back into the woods, while others had become ineligible for a variety of reasons and therefore discontinued their claims. 52 persons filed new claims for benefits, however, and most of these were in some manner education connected, either students or employees of various schools and/or colleges. The total number of persons seeking jobless pay in Latah county now stands at 442, down from the 481 of last week, but just 100 more than the 342 claimants tallied at the end of the first week of June 1974.

In the immediate Moscow area, the total is now 208, up slightly from the 203 of last week, but up sharply from the 165 of a year ago. In the Troy-Deary-Bovill area, reflecting

National Oldtime Fiddlers Contest In Weiser June 15-21

Weiser, Idaho—"The 13th annual National Oldtime Fiddlers' Contest should be the best one yet," according to general chairman Rod Herriott. With only 2 weeks left, it seems that more fiddlers than ever before will try their luck here in the national championship contests, June 15-21.

The purpose of the contest is to preserve oldtime fiddling. The contest is open to anyone because there are no professionals in the oldtime fiddling field. The contest is separated into 5 divisions: Junior-Junior (less than 13 years old); Junior (less than 18); Ladies (over 18); Senior (over 65); and National (men and women over 18).

Fiddlers in all divisions must play a waltz, a hoedown, and one number of their choice. An added attraction in the Certified Winners' Contest in which anything goes. Only winners of other certified fiddling contests can participate in this division, with the cream of the crop playing trick and fancy fiddling numbers. Special judges chose the Best Fiddler, Fanciest Fiddler and Fanciest Dressed Fiddler from this field of experts.

A pioneer spirit pervades the entire community of Weiser as residents dress in old style western clothes. A parade, booths downtown, a public barbecue and several special bicentennial events are planned during the week of the contest.

As part of the nation's bicentennial celebration, national radio and national television in the form of NBC's Today Show have been allowed to tape the contest for future broadcast.

Cash prizes totaling $3,000 and trophies are awarded to winning fiddlers. Excitement runs high and fiddling spills out onto every available parking lot and street corner during the week as the fiddlers practice for the contest.

"Fiddlin' is different from everything else," as one contestant put it. Tickets are going fast so plan now to see how much fun the 13th Annual National Oldtime Fiddlers' contest will be. Chamber of Commerce office, Weiser, Id. 83672.

Home Cookin' ...

Rhubarb Upside Down Cake
13x9 pan—bake 375d for 40 min.

Our recipes this week are from the files of Mrs. Miriam Cook. Mrs. Cook has had so many requests for these particular delicacies that she decided to put them in the home cookin' column so every could enjoy them—so clip and save!

Cut 6 cups rhubarb and snip in 3 pieces some 20 large marshmallows. Place in pan, sprinkle with 1 1/3 cup sugar, mixed with 1 tsp. nutmeg.

Sift 2 cups flour, 2 1/2 tsp. baking powder, 1/2 tsp. salt and 1 cup sugar. Add 5 tablespoons melted margarine, 2/3 cup milk, 1 tsp. vanilla and 3 eggs.

Beat on medium speed until smooth. Pour batter over rhubarb and bake. Banana Cake

(Tastes like the new "box" snackin' cake)

1 1/3 cup sugar
1/2 cup butter or margarine...
1/2 cup buttermilk
2 eggs, (well beaten, separately)
1 cup bananas (crushed)
1 level teaspoon soda
1 teaspoon vanilla
2 c. flour (measured after sifting)
1 c. chopped nuts—pecans/walnuts
Mix as given and bake at 375d for 30 minutes in a 13x9 pan.

Siltation—Or How To Smother a Fish

By Ken Norrie
Regional Conservation Educator
Idaho Dept. Fish & Game

This year's high runoff made the opening weekend of fishing season one of the poorest anyone can remember.

Heavy snowpack melting all at once brings on the fast water. Soil erosion provides the mud. It adds up to poor fishing wherever it happens.

So much for the fisherman's point of view. What about the fish? How does the muddy water affect them?

Biologists call the muddy water siltation. It's simply the suspension of small bits of soil in the water. It can be caused by a number of things. Heavy, fast runoff is the major cause, but it is aggravated by some agricultural practices. Farming steep slopes and side hills in many parts of Idaho often results in bare hillsides in spring, and a lot of the soil is trickling into rivers.

Overgrazing in some areas knocks down cover plants making the soil more vulnerable to erosion. Timber cutting and road construction in forested watersheds also play a role as siltation contributors.

Whatever the cause, many of Idaho's streams carry a heavy load of silt. For example, the Idaho Water Resource Board reports 6 million tons of silt were carried past Lewiston last year from the Snake and Clearwater rivers. This was soil in suspension; it doesn't count the tons of soil that settle to the bottom of slackwater reservoirs.

Water gets muddy, the stream bottoms get covered with mud and even the configuration of the stream can be changed as pools fill and riffles

Latah County Pioneer Ass'n
Will Meet Sunday, June 15

The Latah Co. Pioneer Association will combine their summer potluck dinner with the Moscow Elks Lodge with a celebration June 15th, at the Moscow Elks Temple.

Doors will be open at 10:30 when old pictures and scrap books from many areas in Latah and surrounding counties may be viewed. Past Presidents of the Pioneer Association will be on hand as a reception committee. A potluck dinner will be served at 12:30 followed by the Elks annual Flag Day observance.

become clogged.

Fishermen know it is of little use to fish in a very muddy stream, but for the fish it means pools where they rest are filled and the riffles where they feed are muddy, providing less food than they once did.

But the insidious result of siltation is its effect on fish spawning. When spawning beds become covered with silt, the fish will spawn but the eggs become covered. As a result, the eggs don't get enough oxygen from water. They smother to death.

Many streams throughout Idaho are affected to some degree by siltation and the siltation creates its own vicious cycle.

As the water runs downhill, it washes some of the soil and cover away, letting the water run a little faster the next time. Water digs its own furrow as it goes and each year the situation gets a little worse. More soil is lost each year as the water runs faster and faster, and in larger and larger amounts.

Fish and fishermen are not the only ones who suffer. Farmers lose valuable topsoil by erosion. The nutrients lost to muddy streams must be replaced with expensive fertilizer. The cycle continues.

The Department of Fish and Game is looking into the problem with a water quality study in southeast Idaho. John T. Helmer, a regional fishery manager, will have analyzed about 700 samples from 50 different locations in southeast Idaho before he finishes his study.

The lab work is being done at Idaho State University, and the outcome of the study will form the base for comparing water quality in future years. The Idaho Department of Health and Welfare also is monitoring various streams in the state to get a measurement of the magnitude of siltation and pollution.

GENESSEE GRADE SCHOOL NEWS

4th Grade (Mrs. Peterson)

Hi! We did an experiment. We put sugar in a pan with a little bit of water in and stirred the sugar up till we could not see it any more and then we boiled the water until it was all gone then we went to see if the sugar was still there and it was!

We are all glad when school gets out and we hope the sun will start shining.

Monday, May 19 we went down to the 3rd grade and heard them say the poems. Reporter Traci Stout

We have reviewed everything we had in the past year. Group 2 is in a new reading book which is called Codes to Captains.

We are starting Your Community and States in social studies which begins on Page 227. We have been listening to Lost Treasure and Idaho Forts. We have been studying Idaho for the last semester.

These are tapes we are listening to. They go along with our social studies book on Idaho. We have made a map of explorations. Every body made a map of the U. S. to show the different countries that were interested. Vickie Teigen

Local News of Kendrick

The Bill Johnsons of Mesa, Arizona arrived Friday and are staying at the home of their daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. Roger Courtright. Weekend guests were the Vancel McCurdy of Lewiston, the Phillip Courtright and Joseph V. Taylors of Boise and James Prathers of Mt. Vernon, Wn.

Mrs. Ben P. Cook attended a luncheon at the home of Mrs. Kenneth Hoduffer in Oraigmont Saturday. Guests for the day were the eight daughters of the late Mr. and Mrs. Jack Blewett. This was the first get together when the eight sisters had been alone together, since they were girls.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Clemenhagen were Thursday and Friday overnight guests of Mr. and Mrs. Harold E.

Wilson in Spokane. On Thursday evening Mr. and Mrs. Clemenhagen attended her son, Harold's, graduation from Spokane Community College. He received his degree in Fireman Technology during the ceremonies held in the new opera house, for the 913 graduating seniors. Friday Mr. and Mrs. Clemenhagen visited in the home of Mr. and Mrs. John McRae of Spokane and returned to Kendrick Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Ervin Draper visited Ervin's father, Robert Draper Tuesday at the Paradise Villa in Moscow. Gayle Vandecar and son Brian of Lewiston spent Wednesday through Saturday in the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ervin Draper. Steve Vandecar joined the group for dinner Saturday and returned to Lewiston later that evening with his family. Mr. and Mrs. Ervin Draper called on Mr. and Mrs. Steve Vandecar at their home in Lewiston Sunday.

John Vincent was a caller at the Ervin Draper home Thursday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Blewett and Mr. and Mrs. Ben P. Cook attended the 2nd Annual Pioneer Picnic at Culdacac Sunday afternoon.

Tuesday Mrs. Ed Brown called on Mrs. Dan Salter and great-grandchildren Ryan and Nicole of Lewiston. It was quite a treat for Mrs. Brown to see her new great-granddaughter awake for the first time.

Mrs. Mammie Weber returned home to Kendrick with Mr. and Mrs. Ed Brown where she had been visiting her daughter Mrs. Dennis Lohman. While in Lewiston, Mrs. Weber attended her grandson Robert Cline's high school graduation at Clarkston.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Brown returned Saturday from Elk River where they had been camped with their trailer since Thursday.

Mont Hibbard and Dan Trieber were Monday overnight guests in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Bill Blewett. They left Tuesday morning for their new home in Wallace.

Sunday, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Blewett attended a Vintage Valley Street Rodgers Club meeting in Clarkston at the Ron Lee home. After silk-screening their new burgundy jackets with the club name the group enjoyed a pot-luck dinner.

Mrs. Robert Draper and Mrs. Sue Craig visited Robert Draper at the Paradise Villa Tuesday. During their trip to Moscow, they were luncheon guests of Mr. and Mrs. Vester Evans.

Mrs. Steve Vandecar and baby of Lewiston were Friday evening callers on Mrs. Robert Daper.

Mrs. Mildred Johnson and Mrs. Robert Draper were guests of Mrs. Elsie Hoffman in her Leland home on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Kirchan of Klamath Falls, Oregon were Wednesday until Friday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Blewett. Mrs. Kirchan is a sister of Mrs. Blewett.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Blewett called on Mr. and Mrs. Len White at their home in Culdacac Friday.

Mrs. Mike Rishling was honored at a birthday dinner in celebration of her twenty-first birthday Monday evening. Becky's family and grandmother, Mrs. Alberta Schupfer helped her celebrate the occasion.

Mr. and Mrs. Milton Lind and son Greg of Lewiston and Mr. and Mrs. Leon Lind of Moscow were dinner guests at the home of Mrs. Grace Lind on Sunday.

Gwen Deobald and children, Jan, Julie, Lee and Lyle left Wednesday morning for a summer vacation. They traveled through Oregon to Crater Lake National Park and then on to the Redwoods of northern California. The family followed the Oregon coast on the route homeward, visiting beautiful beaches, a wax museum, the Under Sea Gardens and the Sea Lion Caves. Their trip, a very memorable one, ended when the group arrived home on Sunday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Meehan and their two children were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Doc Little.

Tuesday afternoon Mrs. Gunder Reiersen called on her sister, Mrs. Pearl Long.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Dammarell and Mrs. Pearl Long visited with Mr. and Mrs. Ben Gibbs of Arrow Wednesday evening. The group toured the buildings that still remain from the "Breakheart Pass" set.

Mr. and Mrs. Norman McIntyre were Friday afternoon visitors at the home of Mrs. Pearl Long.

Mr. and Mrs. Lester Crocker, Mrs. Eula Miller and Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Long spent Sunday at the Emerald Creek campground near Clarkia.

Dana Magnuson of Stanwood, Wn., will be spending part of the week here in Kendrick with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Magnuson. He will be accompanying his brother Leo back east, and will visit friends there.

Mr. and Mrs. Robin Magnuson and family of Troy visited at the Mr. and Mrs. Robert Magnuson home on Sunday.

Mrs. Loyd Ware, Amelia and Carl spent Sunday visiting Mr. and Mrs. Warren Gillis in Orofino. They are the new owners of the Orofino golf course and have recently moved to Orofino from Clarkston. Mrs. Gillis, sister to Clara, recently broke her leg; however Mrs. Fay Corkill, their mother, is staying in the Gillis home to help her out. Carl is also staying in Orofino but will return home on Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Rick Rogers and family of Lewiston have completed moving into the former Mont Hibbard home this weekend. Rick, Tina and children, Michele and Ian were Sunday dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Vincent.

Mrs. Vincent accompanied Mrs. Bill Rogers to Moscow Monday.

Mrs. Robert Draper and Mrs. Mildred Johnson called at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Bailey of Leland Sunday.

Mrs. Mildred Johnson spent all day Thursday with her sister, Mrs. Andrew Drepps, in Lewiston. Sunday Mrs. Drepps called on Mrs. Johnson here in Kendrick.

Mr. and Mrs. Burton Souders, Sr., and grandson, Eric, left Friday for their cabin at Long Meadows. They returned Sunday with their limit of fresh fish.

Mr. and Mrs. Mike Richardson of Lewiston were Sunday visitors of Mr. and Mrs. Pat Morey.

Well Tuned Cars SAVE GAS!
 It has been proven that a well-tuned conditioned car or truck provides better gas milage. With the energy crunch and high prices, motorists just can't afford to pour dollars out of the exhaust pipe.
 That's why we recommend keeping your car or truck in the best mechanical shape at all times. And—we can help with a good tune-up job. Why not drop in or call and set up an appointment? It'll mean savings in money and gasoline.
