The Spokane and Palouse railway was organized to 1800 by A. M. Connan, A. W. Newberry, Paul F. Mohr and others. That year the road was constructed to Belment. Then it was pushed to Marshall function and in 1888 the terminus was built at Genesee. The Northern Pacific built the first railroad in this territory in 1888, swallowing up some of the smaller lines which had already been built and the first run to Spokane was on July 1st of that year by Gus Bowman, engineer. This was long before Lewiston and other Idaho communities had a railroad. Much freight was shipby rail into Genesce, then hauled by wagon to Lewiston and other points for many miles around.

Because of difficulties in arranging right-of-way and terminal facilities, the railroad stopped about a mile west of the old town site. Tradition has it that the people who owned the land for those last few miles into the original town of Genesee demanded too much money for right-of-way privileges.

IT'S NO PARTY

When another sharpshooting hunter is allowed to bring down your ged animals or leaving excess game game, it's not only poor hunting; the practice is illegal.

Filling out bug limits of unsuces-cessful numbers of the party thru the effort of the more capable hunter is called "party hunting," and it means both the shooter and the unsuccessful hunter who transfer their game tags are liable as violators of at least two different regulations.

It is unlawful to try to kill another's game, and the result often is ex-

It seldom occurs to people in this era of great, graceful spans, that the rivers of the West were real barriers to the pioneers.

In those days, crossing the swift, treacherous streams could be worth a man's life and, too often, that tragic price was paid. No wonder men pooled their skills and time and risked their lives to erect a rickety crossing that might not survive the next spring's floods.

It was a beginning, though; it made travel easier and safer. Trails became roads that supplied the settlements and took out the timber, grain, and ore.

From the first, back-breaking steps, this required energy-muscle power, horse power, steam, and then electricity - often generated by the falling water of the same turbulent rivers that had once barred the way.

Now, more than ever, our world requires energy. It is an irony of the time that with the need so urgent, organized forces are trying to stop or delay the building of power plants. These plants are essential to the public and public support is essential to the building of the plants now, before time

The Elementary school had very good support for the Parent-Teacher conferences. I would especially like to thank the parents that have children in the Supplemental Reading program. I am pleased to report 100 percent of my parents either came as scheduled or made other arrangements.

The school year is zipping by very rapidly. We will soon be facing Thanksgiving and then Christmas. That means there will be many things to interrupt the regular school day strate their interest in the students schedule. These things are also imworking hard now to compensate fr possible interuptions later.

Thanks again parents for your interest and support. Remember you are all welcome to viis and observe -Students, Faculty, Staff and anytime. Prior notice would be appreciated.

Pilgrims from Mrs. Geo. Eggersmade by Mr. Eggers. It is being displayed in the library and the students are fascinated with it and are really enjoying it! Thank you, Mrs. Eggers. We have received 8 new paperback books which the students seem to be enjoying. Also several new sound filmstrips on drugs and self-awareness, that the students are viewing. They're very good! Again, Thank You, Mrs. Eggers and Happy Thanksgiving to every-

Kindergarten News-

Teaching French this year to the kindergarten children is strictly an experimental approach to learning in this school district. I have volunteered my time into Mrs. Bowie's schedule to come in three times a portant factors of sch 1 so we are week to acquaint the five-year-olds with French-an approximate 11/2 to 2 hours a week. So far I have had 20 sessions with them and the results are very satisfactory. There are no books, no grammar or spelling rules to learn, no reading, just listening ears and watching eyes to see the formation of the words on the mouth.

At this point, can talk short sentences and phrases, ask questions, and give commands in French. The children respond! As far as having them say the words themselves, it is much harder; it demands more confidence, more aggressiveness on the child's part to say the words: he wants to say it right so he hesitates. Hopefully, with practice and extended exposure of hearing French, this hestitation will develop into a spontaneous, natural usuage of the langu-

I think, however, it is significant that after two short months, the children can understand French words for their clothing, for parts of their body; know the basic colors; count to ten; exchange oplite expressions and greet-

Believe me, it is a real thrill to see these children pick up a foreign language this fast. -Carolyn Gravelle

In science we are doing heat experiments. For art we are working with paper mache. Mr. Manfull brought us some new games with some of the Auction Sale money. Thank you, Mr. Manfull and everyone who supported the auction. Thursday and Friday we had parent-teacher conferences. Twentythree out of 24 students had parents visit. Lots of fathers visited. We also decorated the room and made a Thanksgiving scene. Many students brought clothing to use... Kevin Lohman brought a vest and boots, Jim Parsley brought a horsehide, Diane Bailey, Joan Carson, Jackie Jones and Corey Cooper also brought things. Donnie Rice had a birthday last week.

a New Styling for Fall

It has been proven that a well-tuned conditioned car or truck provides better gas milage. With the energy crunch and high prices, motorists just can't afford to pour dollars out of the exhaust pipe.

That's why we recommend keeping your car or truck in the best mechanical shape at all times. And—we can help with a good tune-up jeb. Why not drep in or call and set up an appointment? It'll mean savings in money and gaseline.
