When Santa Lost His Fur-Trimmed Cap

The North-pole wind was sharp and cold, the night was crisp and clear,

So Santa hooked up his reindeer, for the journey he made each year. He knew the children were waiting, as they snuggled in nice warm beds, And dreamed of toys, candy and books, bicycles, games and sleds. He gave Mrs. Santa a hug and a kiss, and scrambled into the sleigh, Then whistled to Rudolph with the red nose, who always led the way. The team took off like a lightning bolt, the snow did crackle and snap, When swiftly a gust of icy wind, took off Santa's cap! "Hold on, now team!" Santa Claus yelled, but Rudolph was feeling his his nose.

"Oh dear!" he cried, "What will I do?" "My ears will surely freeze," So he tried to tuck his snow-white head between his flanneled knees.

But that just did not work at all, with his tired, rheumatic back. So he started to rummage among the bags, till he came to a certain sack. This sack was filled with caps and hats of every shape and size, "Surely," he thought, "I'll find just one that will keep me warm and

First he tried on a baseball cap, but that didn't work at all. His ears still froze, and anyway, the cap was much too small.

Next he fished out a cowboy hat with a wide and handsome brim. But still he froze, for the hat had failed to cover his ears and chin. A swimming cap he tried on next, but it was clammy and cold,

And the strap kept hitting him in the face, 'cause the fastener wouldn't

Then he tried on a pink lace scarf, (meant for some little girl)
But the snow blew right through the holey stuff, and stuck to his chinwhisker curls.

A football helmet he put on next, but it was awkward and heavy, "Oh my," he said, "I've a long night ahead, and I'm worn out already!" His hand then pulled out an Easter hat, all covered with flowers and

'Twas the bonnet he'd made for Grandma Black, who lived in Oregon.

It was sewn from brightly flowered cloth, with a sensible tie 'round the chin, It nicely covered up the ears, and shaded the eyes with a wide, sturdy brim. He tied it on his poor frozen headit felt so toast-y and warm, Then he settled back to enjoy the trip as they flew through the wintry storm. At last they arrived at a village, and went from house to house. Down the chimney he slid with his pack, as silent and quick as a Just one more house at the edge of town, and then they'd be off and away. But one little girl had stayed awake, to wait for Santa and his loaded sleigh. She quietly tip-toed down the hall, as he dropped into the room, And startled at the sight, she laughed aloud, and tripped across a broom. All the family quickly appeared, to see what was taking place, And then they were laughing and rubbing their eyes, when they saw his comical face. He really was a queerly sight, as he reached into his pack, From the back he looked like a Santa from the front like a bearded Granny Black.

Santa quickly told the tale, of why he looked this way,
Then they hugged and kissed his kindly face, as he bustled about and climbed in his sleigh.

And as he merrily drove from sight, everyone heard his exclaim-'I know I look strange, but I'd rather be warm, than to ruin my ears with frozen chill-blains!" Poor Santa Claus," said the little girl, "he must be getting old!"

"But he came through the storm with all of our gifts, even though his poor head was so cold." Yes, that's the true Spirit of Christmas," answered the little girl's mother.

Save on your taxes by saving for retirement

Do it in December and save this year

First Security Bank has qualified to provide you with a federally approved IRA (Individual Retirement Account) or Keogh (HR10) retirement plan. They are designed for people who don't have a plan where they work.

How do you benefit?

With IRA. You can save up to $1500 a year or 15% of your income, whichever is less, plus the interest it earns, without paying one cent of income taxes on either amount in that calendar year. You don't pay taxes until you retire, usually at a lower rate.

We have made opening an approved IRA account quick and easy, so that you can qualify for your tax savings this year. First Security makes no charge for this service.

With Keogh. You can save larger sums annually. This plan permits self-employed people to save a maximum of $7500 per year, or 15% of their income, whichever is less. It also has tax advantages similar to the IRA plan. Inquire at any First Security banking office.

If you don't have a retirement plan where you work, get one at First Security Bank. Remember, to get a tax break in 1975, you must start your retirement plan before December 31st.

Jr. High Girl Cagers Finish

Season With Deary Win Kendrick's Jr. High Girls basket-ball team finished a short but sucess-ful season last Friday afternoon with a double win over visiting Deary. Coach Linda Wahl's 7th grade team downed Deary 13-4 behind the 7 point effort of Cheryl Hutton, Cynthia Millard, Gina Rae Whitinger and Wendy Wallace each had 2 points.

In the 8th grade game, the KHS gals survived a cold third quarter when they were outscored 6-2 to go on and win 22-8. Kendrick jumped hout to 12-2 halftime advantage. Bonnie Lawrence paced the Kendrick attack with 12 points; Ferris Cuddy added 4 and Lord Courtright, Lori Glenn and Cherri Christensen each had 2 points. The 8th grade was undefeated, winning all four of its games. The 7th game had a 3 win-I loss record.

KKK Party

The Kendrick Kanyon Klub annual Christmas party was held at the home of Mrs. Herman Schupfer on Wednes day, December 10 at 1:30 p.m.

Ther were 14 members and one guest present. The group voted to donate $10 to J-K ambulance fund.

Sunshine sisters were revealed and new ones selected for 1976. Plano and organ Christmas music by Mrs. Schupfer and Mrs. Glen Steens was greatly enjoyed. Delicious refreshments of Christmas cake, coffee, punch, homemade candy and nuts were served by the hostesses Sue Craig and Emma
