April 30 Deadline for School Trustee Petitions

School district patrons are reminded that April 30 is the deadline for filing petitions of candidacy for the Zone 5 (Leland-Cameron area) school trustee position. School board chairman, Luther Parks, is the incumbent trustee in Zone 5. The petitions must have at least five signatures of registered voters in Zone 5, and must be in the office of the superintendent by 4:00 p.m. on Friday, April 30.

At the special school board meeting held on April 19, the board ratified the negotiations settlement on teachers' salaries and fringe benefits that had been agreed upon by the district's negotiators and representatives of the teachers.

The board also voted to petition the Idaho High School Activities Association to remain in the A-3 classification for girls and boys' basketketball and track competition. That petition has since been granted.
Official notice of the May 18 trustee election appears in the legal notices of the Gazette-News. Also on the ballot will be the levy override of 5 mils for the 1976-77 school year.

School Play

After a 7-year drought, Genesee high school is producing another play. Thursday, May 6 at 7:30 in the multi-purpose room, the curtain with piano selections by Stephanie will rise on Christopher Sergels adaptation of The Mouse That Roared. The play is sponsored by the high school speech class. Class members make up most of the cast and are also responsible for the publicity, make-up, costumes, lighting, sound effects and set. Other GHS students fill in the remainder of the cast. Tickets will be sold at the door or may be purchased from any cast member. Adults, $2.00; students and children, $1.50. Proceeds used to defray cost of production.

Follow Simple Safety Rules In Handling, Storing Medicine

Treatment is now available that would have been impossible a few years ago because of drugs that did not then exist, according to the Idaho Medical Association.

There is another side to the coin: Thoughtless or careless handling of medicines can be disasterous.

you and your family: Keep only medicine currently in use. Throw away old prescriptions. Many drugs lose strength and ever change chemically with time.

Be sure medicines are out of reach of children, especially those that look and taste like candy.

Keep medicines in their original containers. Follow directions Here are some rules of safety for containers carefully.

On Tuesday, April 20, Mrs. Inez Inghram of Winchester came to Hubbard Gulch for the day with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Newt Heath, taking them to Kendrick for the Blood Pressure Clinic held there. This event proved a big pleasure in their life .meeting and visiting with many old friends, and enjoying a "good" meal at a local restaurant! After her regular weekly trip to Lewiston the following day and there meeting daughter Norma Rugg for a little visit, the elected membership in the Idaho week settled for a quiet and peaceful period!

Bridal Shower

Honor Trina Steigers, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leroy Steigers of Culdesac, a pre-wedding shower was held at the Cottonwood Creek Community Church on Monday evening, April 19. Attending from our community were Gertrude Heimgartner, Erma Stevens, Ruth Heimgartner and Patti Stevens. A pleasant evening and many lovely gitts was reported Trina will graduate from Culdesac High School this spring. As is usual for this talented young person, her name led the list with straight A's, during the last names published! An early wedding is planned, following ing graduation. All wish her the very best of life!

Mrs. Erma Stevens was a Sunday dinner guest in the Ernie Fliger home in Moscow. Mrs. Crystal Fliger is Iver. now improving, following a severe flu-pneumonia bout.

Supplemental Reading—
Spring has arrived and along with it comes the annual spring tests. The entire elementary school is taking their spring achievement tests Tuesday and Wednesday of this week. Next week, May 3 we will begin testing in the reading program. I plan to carry through with the morning classes as usual and will test in the afternoon. However, if progress is too slow, then the morning classes will have to be dispensed with also. Spring also means our annual visitations. Arrangements have been made to visit Moscow this year, Those parents wishing to accompany me, please be at Juliaetta Elem. by 7:45 a. m. Thursday, April 29. I am sure you will find it much easier to make your evaluation which must be completed soon.
