The Award was to honor Mrs. Braden for her inspiration, her help, her efforts and her friendship to the community during the past years. The response to this effort by the friends of Mrs. Braden was a tremendous outpouring of warm Christian understanding..

Under the direction of Mrs. Ruth
White, chairman of Women's Activities of Kendrick Grange No. 413, the ladies of the community had prepared and execellent turkey and Ham dinner which was served buffet style. Jaycee wives did an outstanding job in preparing tables, clearing dishes and keeping tables clean and set for the steady flow of diners.

Kendrick High School's Swing Choir, under the direction of Robert Pendergrast, entertained with a series of well - presented musical numbers. A Greek Folk Dance group also performed during the evening.

In the State of Idaho, only 2 percent of the membership can receive this degree. Russell is proud to hold this honor. Russell also received the Union Pacific Railroad's scholarship of $400. This was awarded to the most active members of the State according to grades, projects and leadership. Russell has done a fine job and deserves a great deal of approval. The last session of the convention involved the awards ceremonies. Kendrick made a good showing as it received three awards for its previous year's projects. The first award was a silver medal for the chapter's scrapbook. The scrapbook is a collection of newspaper articles and pictures from the previous year's activities. The award is based on the number of points obtained from the pictures and articles and their quality. PAIN WHEN LIFTING To avoid the risk of considerable pain when lifting suitcases or heavy bundles, the Idaho Medical Association has a suggestion: Let your legs do the heavy work. There is a tendency on the part of most people to lift heavy loads with their backs. To let your legs do the lifting, your knees and grasp the object.

When you have a good grip, straighten your legs. Do not pull upward

As you walk, keep the object close to you and maintain body alignment. Raising your free arm, when carrying a heavy object with one hand, will help keep your spine straight.

Supplementary Reading News

On Thursday, March 31, three parents visited the Reading Rooms at Webster Elementary School and Whitman Elementary School in Lewiston. Attending parents were Mrs.

The visitation was conducted in order for the parents to compare teaching techniques used in teaching reading skills. The group observed second and third grade students at the two schools in the supplemental reading classrooms. The reading teachers explained their programs and answered questions. In all, it was a very interesting and informative visit.

The final supplemental reading meeting will be held on April 18, All parents of the children in the Supplementary Reading Program are urged to attend.

Clean Water Week

Governor John V. Evans has set aside the week of March 20-26 as Wildlife Week in Idaho.

The Governor signed a proclamation including Idaho in the state and National Wildlife Federation's campaign urging "a rededication to the principle that 'We all Need Clean Water' and renewing determination to achieve the clean water goal just as quickly as we can." Evans said the week has been designated as a special time for focusng attention on the importance of the nation's water crisis.

He said the people of Idaho and its wildlife cannot live without water, and the purity of this natural resource has been sacrificed in many ways. "The struggle to restore cleanliness to our waters, though begun, has a long way to go and will require a large comitment from both the public and private sectors," he said.

Sex Education Class— Next week, Ruby Hawkins, School Nurse, will present a five-day sex education unit to Mr. Barker's Sophomore Biology classes as part of their study of human development and re-production. Mrs. Hawkins, who taught the course last year at Kendrick, Consideration for the rights of also provides other area schools with sex education instruction as part of our cooperative contracted services through the Latah County Health Department. A. meeting was held Monday night at the High School so that parents of Biology students could meet with Mrs. Hawkins and Mr. Barker and learn more about the sex education class. Course content and materials were reviewed so that parents could become more informed about the class. I am pleased to have Mrs. Hawkins working with our kids in that area. I am also appreciative that she afforded the opportunity for parents to preview the materials and ask questions about this one week unit.

> Elementary Talent Show— Bob Pendergrast, Music Director, gave upper elementary students the opporunity to display their show-manship and talent at an Elementary Talent Show last Friday night. The participants performed musical numbers and other specialty acts which were learned outside of school. The most difficult task in organizing the program was trying to screen the performers so that a three-day talent marathon could be reduced to a onehour show. It seemed that everyone wanted to participate. Through auditioning and by some very hard decision making, Mr. Pendergrast was able to select his company. Pianists, singers, a gymnist and several one act skits were included in the variety show. The evening was cap-ped by the fourth and fifth grade chorus singing the cantata "100% Chance of Rain." This light hearted experience was enjoyed by the kids and was entertaining for the Good Learning Atmosphere

I have been visiting classrooms on a regular basis for the past 2 weeks making formal observations for sec-ond semester teacher evaluations. Something that has made me feel good all year is the atmosphere in out schools, which I feel, is conducive to optimum learning. are motivated to learn and there is evidence of the teachers effect on their work habits. Teachers' organization of planned activities to accomplish meaningful studies object ives is evident in every classroom. Students are serious about their stu-dies and work hard to maintain their scholastic averages. Things are quiet too, Visitors entering our building during class hours are amazed to learn that school is in session. Kids are reading and studying before school, at noon and after school as well as taking books home at night. Most experienced educators can walk into a school or a classroom and can "feel" if learning is taking place. I've had this "feeling" since coming to Kendrick and attribute it to the attitude of the community, the fine teaching staff and the serious approach to school by the stu-

FOR SAFE DRIVING

Safe, Dependable Winter Driving Requires Extra Care and Maintenance

A leaky or faulty muffler or exhaust system can be deadly on a car or truck in the wintertime when the windows are closed tightly most of the time.

Worn or poor snow tires can cause dangerous driving conditions when winter snow and ice are on the roads.

Brakes that grab or are out of adjustment could cause you to lose control of your vehicle when streets are icy.

Worn out points or spark plugs can make your car hard to start, especially on these cold mornings. And, an old, weak battery just can't give you the power you need in cold weather.

Good Anti-Freeze in the preper amount can mean the diffeernt between complete protection and or a costly repair bill,
