Mrs. Laura Ringe has just completed a lesson on Raising the Nutritional Value of Homemade Breads at the Genesee Community Library. Her class was well received and a tasting time was enjoyed later when Laura's breads and samples of others attending were brought and shared. Following are some of the recipes so generously handed in by the ladies. They all sound great! More next week, too.

Glazed Potatoe Donuts
 (Mary Louise Esser)
 1 pkg. active dry yeast
 1/4 cup warm water
 1 cup milk (scalded)
 1/4 cup shortening
 1/4 cup sugar
 1 tsp. salt
 3/4 cup mashed potatoes
 2 eggs, beaten
 5 or 6 cups sifted flour
 Dissolve yeast in warm water. Combine milk, shortening, sugar, and salt. Cool to lukewarm. Stir in yeast, eggs and potatoes and enough flour to make a soft dough. Knead till smooth and satiny. Let rise in warm place till double in bulk—about 1-1 1/2 hours. Roll out 1/2 inch thickness. Cut with 3" donut cutter. Cover, let rise until doubled, about 30 min.
Glaze:
 1 lb. Confectioners sugar
 6 tbbis. water
 1 tbbil. vanilla
 (will be like thick cream)
 Fry donuts in hot fat (375F). Drain on absorbent paper. Drop hot donuts into glaze. Place on cooling rack till glaze is set.

Logan Bread
 (Mrs. Laura Ringe)
 2 cups water
 1 cup honey
 1 cup molasses
 1 cup melted shortening
 2 lbs. (7 1/2 cups) wholewheat flour
 1 lb. brown sugar
 1 1/2 cups powdered milk
 1 1/2 tsp. baking powder
 3/4 tsp. salt
 2 cups dried fruit (raisins, dates, etc.)
 Mix all dry ingredients. Stir in wet mixture of honey, molasses, water, and melted shortening. Add nuts and fruit last. Spread in two greased large, shallow pans. Bake at 350 degrees F. or until done.
 To carry on hiking trips, cut into squares, return to oven (with heat turned as low as possible and door partially open) and dry to desired texture.

My Favorite Whole Wheat Bread
 (Mrs. Ringe)
 4 cups water (or scalded milk)
 2 T. dry yeast
 1 1/2 T. salt
 1/2 cup honey
 1/2 cup shortening
 2 cups white flour (hard wheat flour is best)
 About 6 to 7 cups cups whole wheat flour
 1 cup rolled wheat
 1/3 cup raw, unprocessed bran
 1/4 cup cracked wheat
 Soften yeast in lukewarm water. Add honey, salt, shortening, and white flour and stir until thoroughly mixed. Stir in rolled wheat, bran and cracked wheat. Add enough wholewheat flour to make a soft dough. Let dough rise for 30 min. to allow gluten to develop then knead in any additional flour needed. Let dough rise until doubled in bulk. Punch down and form into loaves. Place loaves into well-greased pans and turn loaves to coat with fat. Let rise and bake in 400 degree F oven for 15 minutes. Then reduce heat to 350 degrees and bake for 20 min. When done, turn out on rack to cool, grease tops with unsalted shortening. Cut a fresh slice with a heated knife (place on top of warm burner for a few seconds), and ENJOY!

Pumpkin Nut Bread
 (Dorothy Holben)
 1 2/3 cups flour
 1 1/2 cups sugar
 1/4 tsp. baking powder
 1 tsp. soda
 1 tsp. salt
 1/2 tsp. cloves
 1/2 tsp. cinnamon
 1/2 tsp. nutmeg
 1/2 cup salad oil
 1/2 cup water
 1 cup pumpkin
 2 eggs
 1 cup chopped dates
 1 cup chopped walnuts
 Sift dry ingredients together. Mix oil, water, pumpkin and eggs together on low speed of mixer. Add dry ingredients and combine. Fold in nuts and dates. Bake in a greased standard loaf pan 325 d. for 1 1/2 hours.
Sweet Dough—Yeast Bread
 (Kathryn Zenner)

Mix together:
 2 cups lukewarm milk
 1/2 cup sugar
 2 tsp. salt
 Put 2 cakes Fleischman's yeast in bowl with 1/2 cup water and 1 tsp. sugar. Let yeast dissolve and come to top of a small bowl.
 After you remove the milk mixture from heat (having scalded it put in 1/2 cup soft shortening.)
 Let the milk cool to lukewarm — then add the yeast to 3 1/2 cups flour. Make a well in this 3 1/2 cups of flour and add one egg. Add the cooled milk gradually, stirring as you do so. Then add the yeast mixture—if you haven't already done so. Measure out 4 more cups of flour and continue kneading your bread until it is elastic and moist.
 Place in greased bowl. Let rise until double in bulk. Then punch down dough and knead some more. Let rise again.
 Work down dough again—divide into thirds.
 Bake at 400 degrees for 15 minutes, then 350 degrees for 30 minutes.

Fishing Safety Tips

Fishing is good therapy—both physical and emotional.
 The American Medical Association points out that the millions of Americans who head for the lakes and streams across the nation each fishing season don't need a doctor to tell them that fishing is good sport. They likely have seen their doctor sitting in the next boat with a line in the water.

Fishing can be elaborate, complete with a trip to the seashore and renting deep-sea boats and equipment. Or it can be the cane pole and worms affair on the banks of a neighborhood creek. Either way it gets us out in the fresh air and sunshine, gets our minds off the care of the day.

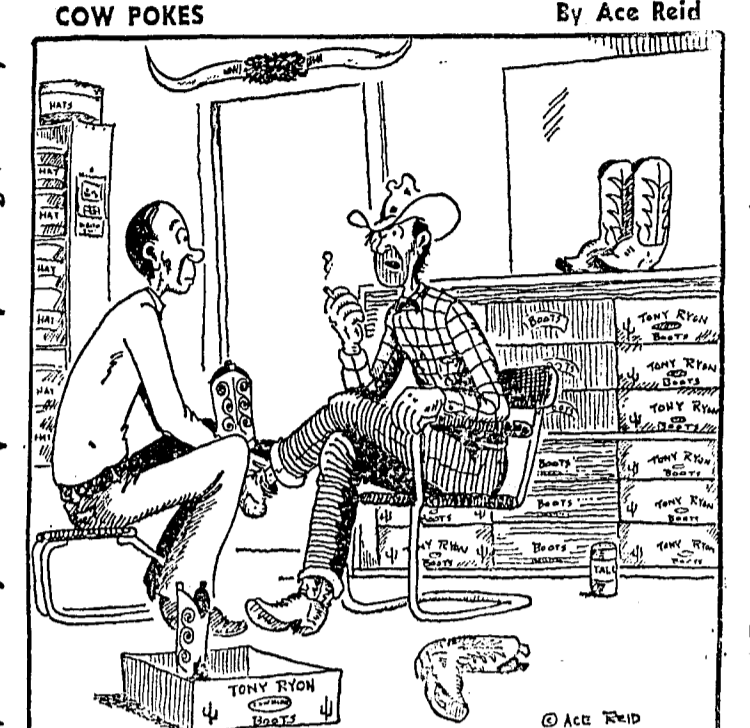

Unless you are the vigorous type who wades through racing rapids or rows hard for miles, fishing is only mild exercise, but still is good for the body and spirit. Fishing also is a relatively safe sport. But it does have some built-in hazards and most of them can be avoided.
 The most common fishing accident is catching a barbed hook in the flesh, usually in a finger or hand, but sometimes a leg or other part of the body. Lures and hooks left unprotected on a dock or on the bottom of a boat may cause many accidents. The wise fisherman guards against hook accidents by shielding the hook. One simple way is to stick a small cork cover over the barb. Lures should be stored in the tackle box until needed, and returned promptly to the box when removed from the leader. The band of your favorite fishing hat is, of course, a reasonably safe place to keep lures you intend to use later in the day.

Fly or bait casters are responsible for many hook accidents to their fellow fisherman. Train yourself to look before each cast to make certain no one is in the way. This will also save lures from snagging on trees and bushes as you cast.
 In removing a hook from the fish, hold the fish firmly under the gills, so that its head can't flop or wiggle. A freshly caught fish is slippery and hard to hold. Get a firm grip before dislodging the hook.
 If, despite precautions, a hook becomes imbedded in your hand or fin-

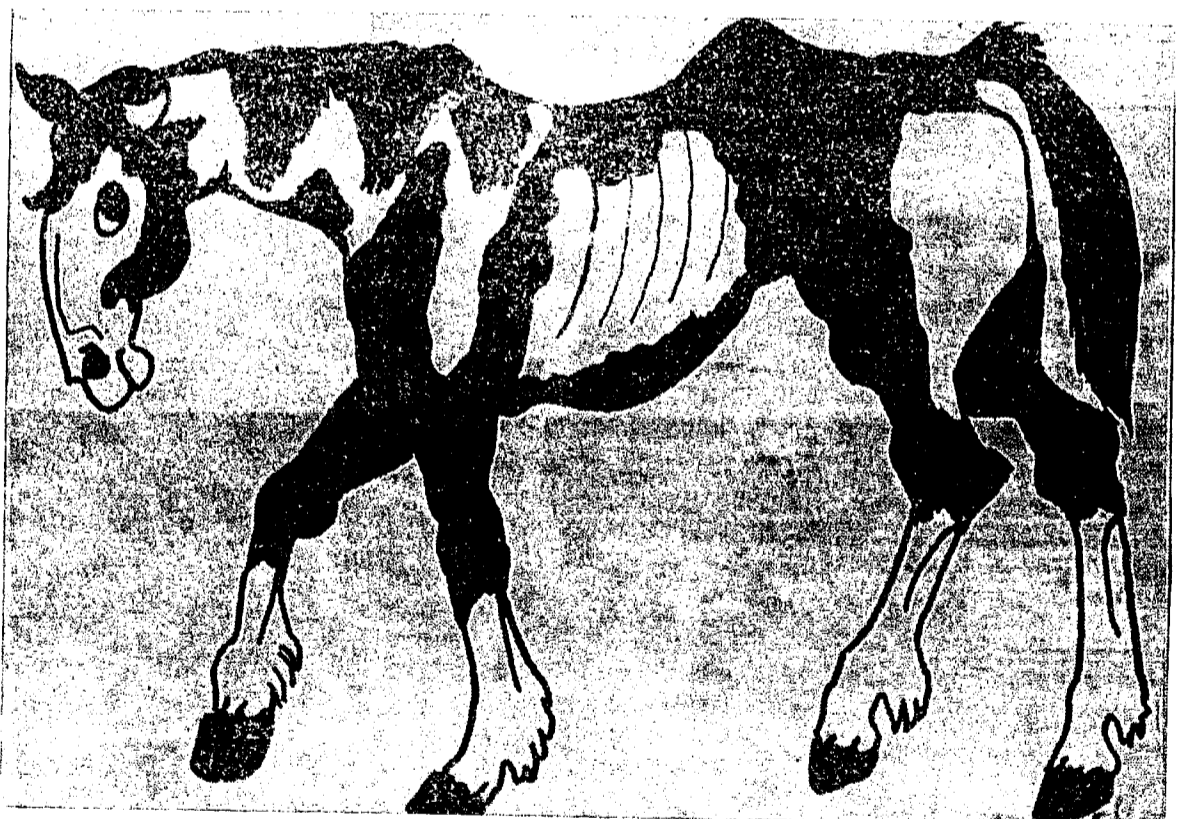

Pumpkinseed
 Idaho has a record pumpkinseed sunfish to add to the Department of Fish and Game's official state records list.
 The 14-ounce sunfish was taken from Chase Lake in Bonner County. The 9 3/4-cnh fish (10-inch girth) was caught on a Wedding Ring spinner by Bob Russell of Coeur d'Alene.

 Idahoans who think they may have landed a record fish should get the fish to an official scale, such as a meat market scale, and have a witness present to attest the fish's weight and other measurements. A receipt from the weigher is necessary.

Lists of Idaho's record fish catches are available at the Department of Fish and Game's headquarters of—
 Self-confidence is a good trait, but be sure you are in a position to back it up.

August Is Immunization Action Month In Idaho

August will be observed as Immunization Action Month in Idaho as part of a statewide campaign this year to immunize all people in need of protection, the Idaho Department of Health and Welfare said today.

Gov. John V. Evans signed a proclamation designating August as an official Immunization Action Month in Idaho and urged participation by all local governments, all organizations, and all people in alerting the people of Idaho to the potential dangers of low immunization levels and to initiate action to immunize all Idaho children against vaccine-preventable childhood diseases.

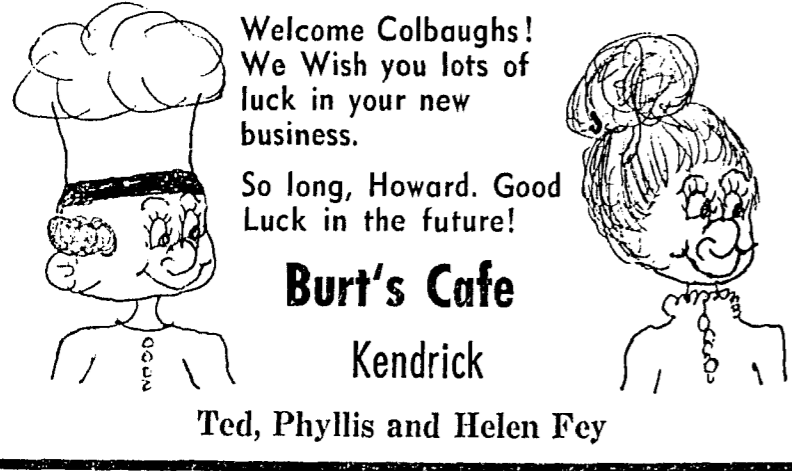

"Idaho is still plagued by the presence of serious, even life-threatening childhood diseases," Bob Medlin, the department's vaccination assistance coordinator, stressed. In response to these inadequate levels, the Idaho Department of Health and Welfare and the Idaho District Health Departments, aided by Mrs. Lola Evans and numerous public and private organizations, are spearheading a campaign to raise immunization levels to 90 percent or more against all vaccine-preventable childhood diseases.

During August, an effort will be made across Idaho to bring the need for immunization to the public's attention. All people are encouraged to check their immunization records and make sure all vaccinations are updated.

All of the immunizations against these dangerous diseases are available, free of charge, at public health clinics operated by district health departments. Immunizations also may be obtained from most private physicians by paying a standard fee.

Medlin encourages parents, "act now and don't take chances with your child's health."

FOR SAFE DRIVING
Safe, Dependable Winter Driving Requires Extra Care and Maintenance

A leaky or faulty muffler or exhaust system can be deadly on a car or truck in the wintertime when the windows are closed tightly most of the time.

Worn or poor snow tires can cause dangerous driving conditions when winter snow and ice are on the roads.

Brakes that grab or are out of adjustment could cause you to lose control of your vehicle when streets are icy.

Worn out points or spark plugs can make your car hard to start, especially on these cold mornings. And, an old, weak battery just can't give you the power you need in cold weather.

Good Anti-Freeze in the proper amount can mean the difference between complete protection and a costly repair bill.
