Orofino—Action on the high pole by Malcolm Harper will climax Orofino Lumberjack Days held in conjunction with Clearwater County Fair Sept. 16-18. This year's theme is "The Past Supports the Future."

This celebration with something to interest every member of the family begins when fair exhibits open about noon Friday showing the finest from Clearwater County's homes, farms, forests, and industries.

It ends Sunday with a three-hour free logging show beginning at 1 p. m. Spectators in bleacher seats thrill to action on the high pole and contests of skill in logging, including cross-cut sawing, power sawing, chopping, choker setting, birling and ax throwing. A contest new this year is spring-board chopping. A crowd-pleaser is competition in hot saws run on nitro. Veteran announcer, Jim Bessent, makes sure there is entertainment every minute. Preliminaries for this show are at 7 a. m. and 3 p. m. Saturday.

Horse pulling contests have increased in popularity yearly and this is set for 11 a. m. Sunday to be preceded by truck driving contest at 8 a. m.

Kiddies march in costume Friday noon, while Saturday at 10 a. m. colorful floats parade with bands, log and lumber loads, horses and novelties.

Saturday afternoon loads of logs and lumber and other products are auctioned at 1 p. m. 4-H fat stock

Unlawful to Nail Signs On Utility Power Poles

It is unlawful to nail signs on utility power poles in Washington and Idaho.

David A. Damiano, Spokane Division electric plant superintendent for the Washington Water Power Company said signs on poles are not only unsightly, but they also pose a hazard for linemen. "The tack or nail can cause a lineman to slip or fall when climbing a pole for maintenance or repair work," he said.

WWP requests that political candidates, organizations and others refrain from using utility poles for posting signs.

Damiano said the problem is especially bad during political campaigns and in good weather months when individuals advertise garage sales, open houses and other events.

goes on the block at 3 p. m. Two dances Saturday night include "Captain Jack" playing for teens at the Armory while adults dance to "The Kludis" at the VFW building.

Other activities during the three-day event include livestock judging, carnival with over 18 rides, Lumberjack breakfast, specialty food booths and Old Timers' Social and a 4-H Style Revue.

Additional information can be obtained from Ingrid Penozzo, manager, Orofino Celebrations, Inc., sponsors of Lumberjack Days or the Clearwater Extension Office, sponsors of the fair.

One of the most impressive weddings of the season took place Tuesday morning, September 20 at 8:15 o'clock at St. Mary's Catholic church when Miss Angie Castle became the bride of Alfred Hasfurther.

The bride was beautifully attired in a dress of orchid and silver georgette with silver hat and slippers and carried a bouquet of pink La France roses and maiden hair fern. The bridesmaid, Miss Fern Herman, wore a frock of pale blue taffeta with a blue-gray hat to match. The groom wore a suit of conventional black. Edwin Hasfurther, brother of the groom acted as best man and wore a suit of blue-gray. At 2 o'clock the happy couple left amid a shower of rice for Camas, Wash., where, after a short trip, they will make their home.

FITNESS AT 40-PLUS

Many men over 40 fight their own physical fitness.

These are individuals who assume that because of their age they no longer are capable of much physical effort. One of the greatest dangers to men past 40, says the American Medical Association, is lapsing into sedentary ways, either because of job confinement or sheer laziness.

The male past 40 is advised to do two things with regard to physical exercise—
* If not reasonably adept at a specific sport—bowling, golf, tennis, swimming—take instruction in at least one of these, or some other form of recreational sport. Learn to do it well and it will be fun to keep fit.

* Take an inventory of physical activity in the course of regular daily schedule. This includes physical activity at home and on the job. It might include gardening and maintaining the home, sports activity, and regular workouts. Often these do not provide thorough enough activity.

For the sedentary person who decides to become more active, a good start is walking. This means a brisk posture walk, holding/ a belt line level and raising the breastbone. Then, in addition to regular physical activity, devote part of the weekend to a pleasant physical activity like golf, bowling, dancing or swimming.

Fifteen minutes of regular exercise every other day is hardly enough to produce results quickly but it is a good start. Over a period of time the benefits will be evident.

With regular exercise, the sagging, dragging middle-ager will begin to exhibit a total change in his attitude, enjoying meals more and showing more interest in home and work.

Physical appearance will be more vital.

For the man past 40 who decides to begin an exercise program, a physical examination is advisable, to make certain there are no conditions that would limit exertion.

Geese Limits

It happens every year.

The question always comes to the Department of Fish and Game concerning the number of geese a goose hunter is allowed to take.

The regulations say the bag limit on geese is three and the possession limit is six. However, hunters should note that this is an aggregate limit, and the only way these limits can be filled is with snow geese.

That means the bag limit on Canada geese is two birds. The regulations list the same makeup for the possession limit.

This two-bird limit includes all counties of the state except the 10 northern counties, where it is a straight or mixed bag and possession limit of three and six.

Get a preferred rate loan at First Security for any of these home improvements.

Insulation in the ceiling and walls keeps your home warmer in winter and cooler in summer.

Weather siding is one more way to save on heating and cooling bills.

A new or improved heating system can reduce fuel costs.

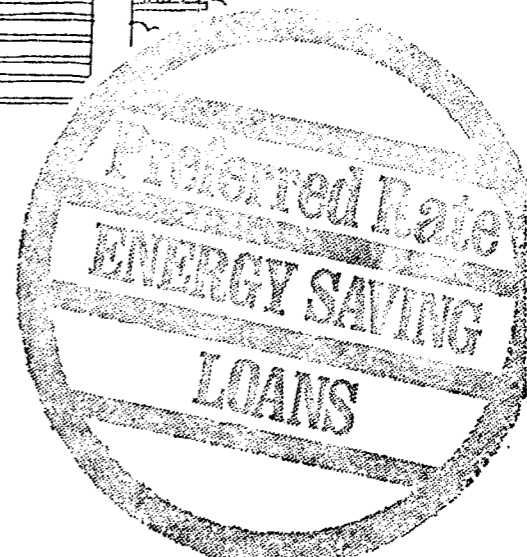

A heatilator can make a fireplace a more effective heating system.

Storm doors and windows let you look at the cold outdoors from a more comfortable indoors.

It's very simple. When you save energy you're saving money. And when you get an energy saving home improvement loan from First Security, you can save even more with a special preferred interest rate. And because it's a Timeway Simple Interest Loan, you can also pay a little ahead and save interest. Or pay the entire loan off early without a penalty.

How to Cut Your Doctor Bills

The cost of treating a serious illness or accidental injury most often is unanticipated and always is unwanted. Often it is not included in the family financial plan and often it presents an extra expense on top of an already tight budget.

Like all other living expenses, the price of medical treatment has risen in recent years. But, says the American Medical Association, there are still a number of ways in which you can stretch your medical dollar and at the same time get better protection for yourself and your family.

* Have a family doctor. He will keep a permanent record of your medical history, which may save duplicating many expensive and time-consuming tests. He will know your background and be better able to tell promptly if anything is wrong.

* Don't wait too long. Many people try to save money on medical bills by not seeing the doctor until they are seriously ill. This not only defeats the purpose of preventive medicine, the only sound way to preserve your health but it also is more expensive in the long run.

* Have regular checkups. Early detection obviously offers a better chance to control and cure disease. * Go to the doctor's office. House calls are not only more expensive, they are also less efficient. Without his office equipment and his trained staff, your physician cannot perform a complete examination. The doctor can give you better care, sooner and at less expense in his office.

* Use the telephone. This not only saves money but also often makes good medical sense. A family doctor who has examined you regularly can sometimes advise you over the phone about minor health problems. For anything that seems serious he will ask you to come to his office to be examined.

* Follow your doctor's orders. If you refuse to follow the advice you

What's For Dessert? . . .

Tangy Spice Cake

Dish out a delicious dessert tonight—"Golden Bartlett Spice Cake!" Start with a traditional spice cake batter, add raisins and a superb highlight of delicate sweet fresh California Bartlett pears—and slice some more juicy Bartletts on top along with a sprinkling of lemon juice and brown sugar right after baking. It's a moist, flavorful cake that can be served warm or cold, with ice cream, fruit, coffee or a glass of milk.

|--|---------------------------|
| 3 to 4 fresh California Bartlett pears | 1/4 teaspoon nutmeg |
| 2 1/4 cups sifted flour | 3/4 cup shortening |
| 2 cups sugar | 1/2 cup water |
| 1 1/2 teaspoons soda | 2 eggs |
| 1 1/2 teaspoons salt | 1 cup seedless raisins |
| 3/4 teaspoon cinnamon | 1/4 cup brown sugar |
| 1/4 teaspoon baking powder | 2 tablespoons lemon juice |

Pare, halve, core and dice enough pears to make 2 cups; slice remainder for top of cake. Sift together flour, sugar, soda, salt, cinnamon, baking powder and nutmeg. Add shortening, water and diced pears to flour mixture. Beat 2 minutes or until smooth. Add eggs; beat 2 minutes more. Stir in raisins. Pour into greased and floured 13 x 9-inch baking pan. Bake at 350° F. 45 to 50 minutes, or until cake tests done. Remove from oven and arrange sliced pears on top of cake and sprinkle with brown sugar and lemon juice. Serve warm or cold. Makes 12 servings.

FAMILY AFFAIR

Recognize Feelings/Don't Bury Them

We all have feelings, both good and bad. When we're happy, we don't hide it. We let our friends and family know. That is considered healthy. And letting people know when we're angry is healthy, too, as long as we express our feelings in healthy ways. Learn to admit your feelings. Don't bury anger inside yourself. Holding anger within, called repressed feelings, is bound to explode sometime.

Try to become aware of your feelings. See if you can describe how you feel. Talking out a situation helps you blow off steam without hurting anyone or anything. One young woman recalls how helpful this can be. Evelyn had been to a club meeting where things did not go well. In fact, she became so upset she got up and walked out. Evelyn hardly remembers driving home. But when she got there, she did something positive about her feelings. Evelyn sat down and talked out her feelings while her husband listened. When she finished, her headache was gone and she felt human again. Her husband realized she didn't want advice. He merely listened while she blew off steam.

Driving home angry is dangerous. It's also an example of an unhealthy way to deal with anger. Talking it out is much safer.

Feelings are not bad, they just are. When you begin to describe your feelings, you may not even know what they are. But when you share your feelings with someone you trust, you begin to know what you think and feel. This is a most important first step in dealing with your anger.

There is no true security for the individual except as he finds it in the security of all.—Edwin Markham solicit and pay for, you are throwing your money away.

Buy Health Insurance. Health insurance is a bargain considering the shattering effects on the family finances that prolonged illness can have. Buy as much as you can afford but especially protect yourself against the catastrophic expenses of serious illness.

* Take allowable tax deductions. Doctor bills, hospital bills, and drug costs not covered by insurance and beyond a certain percentage of your income, may be claimed as deductions for tax purposes.

Senior Citizens Met At Winchester Monday

A good time was had by all as 35 Golden Sunset senior citizens from the Kendrick-Juliaetta area traveled to Winchester in lieu of the Sept. meeting in Kendrick, on Sept. 12 to attend the North Central Idaho Senior Citizen Assn. (5-county) meeting potluck dinner.
Twenty-five of the seniors traveled by school bus with Ross Armitage as "pilot" and Doc and Irene Christensen riding "shot gun". Ten more seniors plus the many containers of delicious "potluck" were taken in private cars.
The trip was beautiful as the weather really cooperated.
The gathering proved to be great, as 135 seniors from the 5 counties attended. Rep. Mike Black of Lewis County was the featured speaker.

Piano and violin music by seniors of the Winchester area also entertained.
A nominating committee was appointed as well as a committee to plan a turkey raffle for the Dec. 4 meeting in Lewiston.
E. M. (Bill) White, president of the 5 county group was very proud to be greeted by so many of the "home seniors" as this area was the largest delegation present.
We, the Golden Sunset Senior citizens wish to thank the Board and administration of School District No. 283 for allowing the use of the school bus. Also, we wish to thank the driver for his kind consideration of everyone.
