October 11 Final Day For Election Filing

Tuesday, October 11 is the final date for filing nominating petitions of candidacy for the November munucipal election in Juliaetta and Kendrick, Juliaetta Clerk Ruth Hall and Kendrick Mayor Bob Watts said Tuesday.

Three positions on the council in both Juliaetta and Kendrick are to be filled including the office of Mayor in both towns.

Juliaetta is having more success in finding candidates than Kendrick. Clark Wood, who is filling the unexpired term of Juliaetta's Paul Gravelle, who resigned recently, will be a candidate for Mayor. Bruce Sherman and William D. Turner have both indicated they will seek the two seats on the council being vacated by Eugene Taylor and Art Boe, both of whom declined to run again.

In Kendrick the term of Mayor Robt. Watts and councilmen Don Millard and Darrel Brocke expire in December. None of these men plan to seek re-election and as of Tuesday night, no petitions have been

A small boy wanting a bicycle very badly and without funds felt that his last resort was to write to God. He wrote: "Dear God, I have been a very good boy and need a bicycle very badly and I would like you to send me $100." He addressed the letter to God, and sent it through the local post office. The postmaster upon seeing this letter, was in a quandry about exactly what to do with it, but finally decided to send it on to the President of the United States. It finally worked its way through a line of secretaries and came to the attention of the president. He didn't know what to do either and knowing that he should not spend Federal Funds for this and also not wanting to set a precedent, he finally took $5 out of his pocket and enclosed it with the boy's letter and mailed it back to the boy. When the boy received the letter from the President of the United States he was so very excited, but upon opening the letter disappointed to find only $5. Where upon he sat down and wrote a thank you letter to God in which he said: 'Dear God, thank you for the money you mailed me for my bicycle, however I am sorry you routed it around through Washington, D. C., as they kept $95 there."

The princess style was enhanced with a high neckline trimmed with chocheted Venice lace, which was used as an overlay on the bodice, sleeeves and appliques on the skirt. Pearls were used in a scalloped design on the lace. The full skirt and train featured a wide lace ruffle of Venice lace leading to a full chapel train. The bride wore a long-tiered mantilla edged with Venice lace and softly gathered to a lace headpiece. She carried a cascading bouquet of white roses and stephanotis. Her jewelry was a gold chain necklace, gift from the groom, and a small gold locket given to her by the aunt after whom she was named. Matron of Honor was Mrs. Craig Mandeville, Lake Wenatchee. Bridesmaids were Molly Huddleston, College, Alaska and Lisa Lybecker of Ephrata.

The bride's attendants wore long polyester gowns featuring a lace trimmed yoke and a flounced ruffle at the hemline. Each carried a basket of greenery, carnations and baby breath with matching flowers in their hair coordinated with their gowns of blue, peach and mint green.

Attending his brother as best man was Sheldon Israel, Ephrata. Ushers were Dan Wierma, Ephrata and John Friend, Aberdeen. Their tuxedos were dark brown. The groom wore a white tuxedo with a white rosebud bouton-

Make Home a Safe Place For Expresion of Feelings

Society teaches people not to show negative emotions. But everybody has them, even "nice" people. Even kind and loving people have them. Try to make it safe for family members to express emotion. Don't suggest to loved ones that they are bad for feeling as they do, or that they should not fell the way they do.

Instead, let family members blow their cool once in a while. Then, they won't be overwhelmed by their emotions.

What makes a safe environment?

1st never tell anyone "you shouldn't feel that way." If your frustrated teenage son, for example, says he hates school and wants to quit, he's being honest. He's admitting his feelings. Accept them. And don't counter this anger with logic. Wait until his temperature cools.

2nd, let actions speak loudly. Do something positive about anger. Learn to describe negative feelings. Then you won't have to act on them. Actions taken in anger may be in-

Actions taken in anger may be inappropriate, harmful, or destructive. They could even land you in a hospital or in jail. Talking about your feelings brings relief. It lowers emotional temperature and brings the situation into focus. Once you've cooled down, you can begin to look at your problem rationally. Only then you can begin to look for solutions that meet your real needs and

Osborns Honored on 25th Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. Milford Osborn ob-served their 25th wedding anniver-sary Sunday, Oct. 2 in a setting of pastel colors decorating the Kendrick Fire Hall. Violet followed the color scheme wearing a long, green dress flecked with silver and wore her mother's pearls that were given to Mrs. Ed Brown by her father-inlaw. The pearls have become a tradition in the family to be worn by the girls in the family on their wedding day. Milford was attired in a powder blue suit.

Mrs. Wilber Corkill made and decorated the beautiful four-tiered cake, each tier a different pastel color, The cake was served by Mrs. Denny Chandler of Harvard, a niece of the couple. Another niece, Patty Os-born of Moscow poured tea and a daughter, Judy Osborn served punch. About 80 friends and relatives were present to honor the couple on this happy occasion that was hosted by their children.

Hill and Valley Garden Club Members Toured Juliaetta Homes

Seventeen members of the Hill and Valley Garden Club gathered at the lovely home of member Earlen Taylor at Juliaetta Wednesday morning before taking a tour of the newly landscaped yard and garden of a beautiful new home being constructed by T & T Contractors at Juliaetta. Cindy Taylor, daughter and sister of the contractors, planned and carried out the landscaping details. Cindy received an Associate Degree in Horticulture from Boise State University this spring.

The Club members than went to the home of another member, Crystal Gruell for a sack lunch. Pie and coffee was served by the hostesses, Mrs. Gruell, Mrs. Taylor and Mrs. Roy Glenn, All enjoyed seeing the varied and beautiful flowers and plants at the Gruell home.

New Officers Presided

Preceding the lunch, the regular meeting was conducted by the new officers present. They were: President dent, Marge Wilken; vice-president, Agatha Perkins; secretary, Doris Pettichord; and treasurer, Betty Watts. The new standing committees were named. Cindy Taylor became a new member.

The annual Mum show dates of October 19-20 to be at Clarkston was announced.

On October 21, the District meeting of the Garden Clubs will be held at the Latah County 4-H building at Moscow. Announced theme, "Birds of a Feather, Flock Together". A noon luncheon is planned. All attending are asked to contribute a plant, produce, food, etc, for a sale table. A highlight will be the tour of the new Auboreteum, Moscow Garden Club will host the meeting.

The date and place for the October meeting will be a later issue of the Gazette News.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to express our sincere gratitude to all our friends, neighbors and relatives, who have been so kind to us during this past week. Thank you so much for the cards, flowers, food and the many other acts of kindness you have given us. A special thanks to the ambulance crew and to the group of ladies from Big Bear ridge including Helen Fey and Esther Schreffler for the lovely dinner they prepared on Saturday. We have a special feeling for these communities in which we live.
