Genesee Crab Feed Saturday Evening Feb. 24

Members of the Genesee Community Firemen, Inc., will present their 14th annual public crab feed Saturday evening, Feb. 24 in the upstairs of the Firemen's Hall. This annual event attracts customers from as far away as Spokane and is one of the most popular attractions of the community.

Serving will begin early this year, at 4:00 p. m. to allow sports fans to attend the feed and then go down to Lewiston to the District basketball tournament. The serving will comtinue until 9 p. m.

The crab are flown in from the coast Friday and will be cleaned and wrapped and then iced by the Firemen Friday evening. Duane Roach reported that 2100 pounds of crab had been ordered for the Saturday feed. In addition to crab there will cole slaw, plus the usual sauces, crackers, etc. A lot of preparation of the potato salad is made by the wives of firemen. Without the help of these ladies the feed would be very difficult to stage.

Admission prices are $6.00 for adults; $3.00 for children under 12, and pre-school children are served

Kendrick FFA Teams Competed at Sandpoint

On February 10 at Sandpoint, the Kendrick FFA Chapter competed in the Farm Mechanics and Public Speaking contests. The teams arrived at Sandpoint late because of car trouble.

The Farm Mechanics contests consists of six different pacts, tool identification, acetylene welding, soldering, tool sharpening, are welding and rafter cutting. Each participant must do at least two of these.

Pat May did are welding and rafter cutting. Danny Lohman participated in tool identification and acctylene welding. Mike Courtright did well in soldering and placed 2nd high man in tool shapening.

After the Farm Machanics contest ended, the Public Speaking contest was held. In choosing Kendrick's participant, Mr. Mickelson assigned all Vo-Ag students to do speeches for class grades. The best speeches were chosen and these were delivered to the Kendrick student body. These speakers were Mike Hutton, Brian VonBargen and Danny Lohman. Brian won, so he was selected to represent Kendrick at the district contest. Brian's speech concerned wildlife conservation in North America. He placed high at the contest with 4th high overall.

Team members returned home with teams from Deary and Troy.

Wedding Reception-

Close at hand, on Sunday, Feb. 18, the 40th wedding anniversary of Lawrence and Nellie Heimgartner was celebrated at Kendrick Grange Hall. A huge pot-luck banquet dinner was held at the Hall, preceding the afternoon festivities! Many, many attended. To list the names separately would be a "monster" chore! Suffice it to say all children, and all brothers and sisters attended! Plus friends and other relatives galore!

A Pleasant Winter Trip-

Leaving their Cherrylane home on Tuesday, Jan. 23, the Ken Steigers family braved wintry conditions for a successful journey, arriving safely home Feb. 12 at 8:30 p. m.—a 21-day trip! The itinerary read as follows:

Jan. 23-24, Ray and Marilyn Anderson, Tigard, Oregon; Jan. 25-Tom and Barbara Rupers, Salem, Ore.; Jan. 26-Mike and Mary Helen Wickel. Eugene, Ore.; Jan. 27-Feb. 3-Orville and Rose Alene McArthur, Pacificia, Calif.; Feb. 4-7—Dennis and Charlotte Sauer, Salt Lake City, Utah; Feb. 8-11-Roger and Peggy Harrer, Pocatello. All proceeded per schedule, and a warm welcome from their cat, dog and elders greeted the travelers on their arrival home! From Missoula, Montana-

Mr. and Mrs. Keith Steigers and daughter Chris Gowan were Idaho visitors over the weekend. Christine, a University of Montana student and a member of the University Bowling Feam came to Pullman for bowling team competition there. Montana was "whipped." Poor Chrissy, arriving with her parents at Cherrylane Friday evening, was suffering from eyes nearly shut and in much pain. due to the tobacco smoke and her contact lens having stopped the flow of oxygen necessary for the eyes! She was in good shape by the time of depart-Mrs. Hunter of Lewiston spent ure Monday. The Montana group from Friday until Sunday evening spent some time in Lewiston at the Art Eller home.

On Saturday, Mr. and Mrs. Ken Steigers and son Brant, Ernest Steigers and Mr. and Mrs. Keith Steigers drove to Moscow and in the rain attended an "antique hardware sale". Money seemed to be flowing freely there! Crooked axe handles, rusty tea Strainers and empty wooden barels and boxes plus many other items brot fabulous prices!

Mike Steigers of Mt. Home AFB, and brother Jim of Weippe were out and in weekend guests, so life was not dull at the Steigers.
