

Introducing Another Jr. Miss Candidate—

Eva Sandquist Among Six Candidates In K-J Jr. Miss Scholarship Program

EVA SANDQUIST

(This is the second in a series of articles introducing the girls who will be competing for the title of K-J Jr. Miss at the annual program to be held Saturday evening, April 26 at the high school.)

Candidate number 3 in the K-J Jr. Miss Scholarship Program is sixteen year old Eva Marie Sandquist. Eva, the youngest of four children, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. David Sandquist of Juliaetta.

As a junior at Kendrick High School, Eva has become active in many school functions. She has played girls basketball and has been chosen as their most inspirational player; is assistant editor of the annual staff in concert choir and worked in class concessions.

Some of Eva's interests and hobbies are: basketball, backpacking, swimming, music, rafting, canoeing, track, writing poems and being with friends.

Eva is an active member of the Juliaetta Church of the Nazarene, where she has been a volunteer teacher at vacation Bible School. She has also participated in litter and can drives, Girl Scouts and Y. C. C.

The University of Idaho is the college that Eva wishes to attend to pursue her interest in becoming a youth counselor.

Kendrick FHA's Attended Leadership Conference

FHA/HDRO State Leadership Conference was held at Moscow, March 27 & 28. The theme for the conference was "Decade of New Directions." Those attending the conference were Kathy Nail, State Vice-President of Dist. II, Lisa Vallem, chapter secretary, treasurer, Charlene Parks, Cheryl Hutton and Carolyn Stonebraker, president-elect for 1980-81.

Kathy's responsibilities included presiding over a leadership workshop on chapter projects and also organized and presented her state project for the year, a workshop that was presented three times, entitled, "Age Counts." Members of the Kendrick Senior Citizen Site Committee assisted in Kathy's presentation.

Those participating were Mr. and Mrs. E. M. White, Mr. and Mrs. Polunsky, Mr. and Mrs. Bower and Mrs. Fairfield. The program was a great success and the Kendrick Chapter would like to thank these people for their very fine efforts.

V. F. W., Auxiliary Met

VFW Post 3913 held its regular meeting March 27 with thirteen men present. Plans for Locust Blossom Festival were discussed. The group hoped to get the honor roll in the corner of the park fixed before then.

There was such a good response for the Blue Jackets, so more are being ordered. Any VFW member who wants to get one contact Bill Weyen soon, so we will be able to get the right size.

Civic Association News

At 7:00 p. m., March 27th, the ladies of St. Mary's Altar Society served a delicious dinner to twenty-two members and guests of the Genesee Civic Assoc.

The program for the evening was presented by Donna and Phil Heinen of Kendrick. The program began with a film presentation "Pulse of Life." The film showing was followed by Donna briefing everyone on the A. B. C.'s of resuscitation and using a diagram on the slate board she explained the various parts of the heart and their functions in maintaining life. Donna ended the program by demonstrating cardio vascular resuscitation by using manikins and answering many questions. Donna and Phil's program was so well received that it took an hour and fifty minutes to present their one hour planned program. The extra time needed was due to questions and participation of the members present.

Immediately following the Heinens departure, president Bob Herman called the meeting to order. February minutes were read, committee reports from the treasurer and Community day were given. Community Day committees are progressing well. Due to conflicting schedules, there will be no April Civic meeting. The May meeting date will be announced later. The next Community Day Committee meeting will be held at City Hall April 9 at 8:00 p. m.

There was a time when a fool and his money were soon parted, but now it happens to everybody!

I'm just a-keepin' even, which is doin' purty good. Haven't made a fortune that I used to hope I would.

Haven't caused the trump of fame o'er distant hills to sound, But kin allus face the music when the landlord comes around.

I've had my share of sunshine, an' I seen the flowers smile; have the rheumatiz, but only fer a little while.

An' when I come to quit the scene of hope, an' likewise doubt, I'll hardly leave enough for lawyer folks to fight about.

I've had my disappointments, an' I've had my silent fears. But I reckon that the laughs will easy balance all the tears.

regular medical trip to Lewiston on Monday morning.

Spring Vacation—

Allen Brown is spending his spring vacation from Lewiston with grandmother Helena Brown, arriving Friday, while parents Don and Jan Brown attended bowling events at Tacoma.

Tuesday, March 25, Mrs. Carol Richardson with daughters Noelle Rena of Orofino were supper guests at Pinecreek and the group, including Helena, drove to the Lewiston Sacajawea Jr. High Spring concert. Allen Brown played snare drum and cymbals in the event. Later viewing Shannon Brown's 4-H pens of show rabbits at the home of her parents was enjoyed.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Cooper returned this week from a vacation trip to Hawaii, where scuba diving was enjoyed by Bill, while Merle sun-bathed and recuperated further from her surgery.

Visit Mother Mystic—

Finding Mother Mystic Heimgartner about as usual, Emma Stevens and Gertrude Heimgartner were her callers during the past week. Eldon and Gertrude again visited her on Sunday, and on to Juliaetta to the home of Cecil Greenell.

Another Edna Greene enjoyed a Sunday visit from daughter Patti Stevens and family.

Attend Diabetic School—

Three of our matrons, Ardythe, Delores and Ruth Heimgartner drove to Spokane on Friday for overnight and on Saturday attended lectures and work shops on Diabetic problems. A most interesting and informative meeting.

Idaho State Fiddlers Contest—

Held in Lewiston High School Auditorium Saturday, this event was a decided success. Fiddlers of all ages, from all parts of the state competed before a full house. Mr. and Mrs. Henry Steigers, Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Steigers and Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Steigers, as a close group, enjoyed it all thoroughly. The Henry Steigers departed homeward toward Puyallup on Sunday morning, after a winter's vacation in Arizona.

Cattle Thieves Apprehended—

Those guilty of a recent theft of 6 young calves from Pinecreek and the Lapwai area, were brot to justice by the immediate report of the calves disappearance and complete description to the Brand Inspector. These clues enabled the officials to contact the owners on the appearance of the missing animals at the sales yard in Lewiston. It is hoped this will deter a rash of crimes from appearing! A happy reunion between the 3 anxious mothers and the hungry calves resulted at Pinecreek, in the presence of the officials and the owners.

A Journey Back in Time—

Thursday Mrs. Marjorie Stevens enjoyed lunch in Lewiston with a former girlfriend of Marjorie's teaching days in Nezperce. This friend, Helen Marshall, is now of Meridian, Idaho. Marjorie taught one year in Nezperce and 2 years at Winchester, as well as at Stony Point, before becoming a permanent member of our community! (Marjorie Powell, then) Lily Heimgartner McCall, with her brother Everett Heimgartner of Clarkston, were Sunday dinner guests of the Roy Heimgartner family.

Attend Birthday Supper—

The Moscow home of Mr. and Mrs. John Talbot was the scene of a birthday anniversary supper honoring their oldest child, David Talbot. Present besides the guest of honor and his wife, Karen were Mr. and Mrs. Steve Talbot and small daughter Hilary, also Linda and Ken Steigers, with their children Bekalyn and Brant of Cherrylane. Brant made an earlier call at the neighboring new "tree house" of Kelly Pettit, but found the proud little owner not "at home" for that occasion!

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Steigers drove to the Lewiston home of Bill and Mary Steigers for Sunday dinner and a glimpse of Michael Steigers, Air Force member from Mt. Home; John Steigers, Naval force from Moscow's U. of I.; Marianne Ahles, daughters Shae and Jayne and son Joshua and friend Miss Janice Marley, from Genesee. Mary's father, Wm. Taylor, a former Boise resident, is now at the Lewiston home of the Steigers.

The interesting sales and gift day from the estate of well-known and loved Johanna Nelson brot memories of her, and of the past, to many relatives and friends of the Kendrick area, and surrounding area! Among those attending were members of the Glen Stevens family one day the past week. Such a person will be remembered and not forgotten!

Miss Jan'ee Heimgartner arrived Sunday at 2 p. m. by plane from Yakima to spend her Spring vacation with grandfather Leslie Heimgartner and wife Delores at Stony Point. Jan'ee is a daughter of the late Bob Heimgartner and Beverly. All's well in Yakima.

Big Bear Ridge

By The Happy Home Club

A special thanks is extended to all who attended and helped with the Community Hall dinner and Country Store Sunday afternoon.

Last week Brent Adams joined other Boy Scouts on an overnight campout.

Saturday Mr. and Mrs. Willie Adams and Brent went to Spokane where they visited her uncle Sydney Wilson. On their return they visited with their granddaughter Mr. and Mrs. Dennis McDonald in Colfax.

Joy Whitlock and son Kevin and friends Sue and Chris of Lewiston visited her parents, the Willie Adams Sunday evening.

Tel Close, Seattle, visited Mrs. Eula Galloway Friday afternoon. Ted was formerly the driver of the Bookmobile in this county.

Mrs. Pearl Hazeltime and Laurine spent Sunday with Mrs. Grace McMillian in Clarkston.

Gerald Ingle showed slides of a recent trip to Australia and Fiji at Lions Club Wednesday.

LOCAL SWEET ADELINES SANG FOR LEWISTON LIONS BANQUET (Delayed From Last Week)

Marilyn Eichner, Flo Lyons, Pasty Jacobs, and Lucille Magnuson joined the Sweet Adelines last Wednesday evening to entertain the Lions Club banquet at the Lewiston Elks Club. The Lewiston Lions were observing its 50th anniversary celebration and the International President from New Zealand was the honored guest. The Sweet Adelines sang the New Zealand National Anthem especially for him.

Paul Denler Finished Reading Circle First

(Delayed From Last Week)

Paul Denler was the first student at Juliaetta Elementary School to finish a reading circle this year as part of the Reading Olympics. Ben Nye completed his bookshelf. To complete a bookshelf or circle, the student has to read 40 books.

H. E. L. P. Diet Club News—

We weighed in and meeting was brought to order by pres. Darla Moran.

Minutes from last meeting and treasury report were read by secty. Norma Abrams.

It was announced to the club members that Chris Fey will be having her exercises every Tuesday night at Juliaetta grade school gym, 7:30.

Bev Bowers announced that a representative from the Merle Norman Cosmetics Co. will be coming for a make-up session on Mon., April 21st.

Our members proudly paraded their homemade Easter bonnets. The member losing the most weight this week was a Kendrick lady. She lost a total of 3 pounds. Good work! Also a nutritionist from the UI will be speaking to us Monday, April 14. Total weight loss for the club was 12 pounds. We had our exercise session and sang our club song and the meeting was adjourned.
