

Genesee Council Hears Street Queries

The Genesee City Council met Monday, April 13th, at 7:30 p. m. Mayor Wilson presiding and all council members present.

Don Jain attended the meeting to inquire if Ash Street at Beech was being used by the city for stockpiling dirt or if it was to be built up and opened. The city has no plans for opening the street for traffic but are building it up so some access will be available.

Two members of the Jaycees, LeRoy Ziemer and Alan Odenberg attended to discuss a possible fireworks sale in late June, inside the city limits. Ordinances prohibit a sale inside the city, and the Jaycees will contact the Latah County Commissioners, and will discuss a sale outside the city limits.

Dave Wagar was present and asked if Evans Street would be opened for traffic now that it was surveyed. Wagar also questioned why Oak Avenue wasn't paved when other east to west streets were. Street Commissioner Moden felt the amount of traffic didn't warrant paving. Moden told Wagar that Oak would be graded and maintained but no dust control could be done this summer.

City Engineer C. Moray attended the meeting as did City Attorney Barker. Bills in the amount of $16,235 were reviewed and approved for payment. Ordinance No. 268, an ordinance specifying and adopting a plan prohibiting cross connections to the water supply system of the city was adopted and will take effect immediately upon its publication.

Sue Craig and Group Return From Southwest Vacation

(Delayed from Last Week)

Sue Craig returned last week from a three-week vacation in Nevada, Arizona, California and Mexico. She accompanied her sister Hattie Evans, Nephew Paul Evans and wife Barbara and friends Richard and Patricia Colbeck, all of Moscow.

Leaving Kendrick March 5, Sue went to Moscow where she joined the rest of the group and all left early Saturday, the 7th, stopping at the home of Harold and Donna Evans of Weiser for lunch.

Three days were spent at Las Vegas. They camped in the desert two days and took a side trip to Havasu, Arizona, to see the London Bridge. This was very interesting as the McCallough Chain Saw Co. has presented London, England with a plot of ground and they transported the historical bridge and erected it over part of the lake formed by a large dam. Several other quaint little shops were also brought over and rebuilt even down to the cobble streets. It is a little corner of England.

Parking their trailer in an RV park at Yuma, the group then made many side trips by car including 3 trips into Mexico. One they entered at Mollena and drove down 40 or 50 miles and then across, coming out at San Luis. The poverty in Mexico is unbelievable, and Sue felt most folks around here wouldn't put pigs or chickens in the places the Mexican peasants live in.

A trip was made to San Diego one day, returning the next. While there the group toured the "Chicken of the Sea" tuna cannery and also went to Sea World and watched Shamu, the 40 foot, 4-ton killer whale perform. His intelligence is almost human.

They also took a two-hour harbor excursion and while on the tour saw the world's largest air craft carrier in the Navy come in and dock. There are 5,000 crewmen on board the ship. The unbelievable thing was that Sue's grandson, Haven Craig, was one of the crew and for the carrier to arrive at the exact time Sue was touring the harbor was an incredible coincidence. Of course, she was unable to contact him.

The Idaho folks picked oranges, grapefruit, lemons and tangelos, and in the hot desert sun, went to dog races, viewed a burlesque show in Las Vegas, ate at fabulous restaurants and much more. They left Yuma on March 25 where they had basked in 92 degree weather and two nights later near Battle Mountain, Nev., their car broke down in a raging snow storm with about 9 inches of snow falling whipped by winds near 80 miles an hour. The women stayed in the camper while the men drove to Bishop, Calif., for repairs. A 400-mile trip. The last night of the trip was spent at Weiser with Harold and Donna Evans. They drove in rain

Stony Point

By Nellie Dean Steigers

Frost on the railroad ties at Cherry-lane, but real ice on windshields and puddles on top the Ridge was our first Monday morning news collected! Fog lay in between, but layered with beautiful sunshine! April Weather?

Erma Stevens reported the Ridge conditions, laughingly commenting daughter Fern saying, "using the air conditioner in Charleston, S. C."

Mildred Heath reports she's feeling fine, under the loving care of her many children! Many pills, taken daily, probably help. Daughter Flora Gibbs and husband have spent some time here. Work on their Cherrylane blue home on the hillside progresses. Fay Heath Scoggin, with daughter Deanna, arrived on Saturday from San Bernadino, Calif., for a helping visit with her mother, Mildred.

Erma Stevens and Gertrude Heimgartner, enroute from a Lewiston call on Mother Mystic Heimgartner, were

Thursday callers of friend Mildred.

Alvin and Mabel Steigers of Culdesac were Sunday evening callers in the E. Steigers home, bringing word of the Tuesday operation to be performed on older brother, Bob Steigers, of Vancouver, Wash., on Tuesday, April 14.

Many Guests—

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Glass, with sons Tom and Billy, enjoyed Saturday eve supper at the Glen Stevens home. The parents, from Boise, had attended festivities at the U. of I. where sons Tom and Billy are students.

Sunday dinner guests included Rev. and Mrs. Leroy Judd, son Steve and daughter Marybeth, also Mr. and Mrs. Bill Stillman, with sons Brian and David of Craigmont. The Judd family are missionaries from Kenya, Africa.

Easter Events at Cottonwood Creek Community Church—

Next Sunday, Easter, April 19, Sunday School will convene 15 minutes early, at 9:45 a. m. with a program given. During Church there will be special Easter music.

Good Friday Services, April 17, will open with a 6:30 p. m. potluck dinner at the church, with later, a special Easter Message.

Club Will Meet—

Stonypoint Friendship Club will meet Thursday, April 16, at the home of member Marjorie Stevens.

Arnold Holisington visited Wednesday for a little while at the home of his parents, Cletis and Bea.

Pine Creek People—

Michael Prince, after spending his Spring Vacation at the home of his great-grandmother Helena Brown, except for two days in Lewiston with grandmother and grandfather Cooper, returned on Sunday afternoon to Kennewick with his father, Jim Prince. Bill and Merle Cooper have joined

American Ridge

By Jo Benschoter

Andy and Minnie Cox arrived home Saturday after a week's visit in Boise with their daughter Andy Sue Reid and family.

On Sunday the Coxes attended the Slead's 40th wedding anniversary in the Fraternal Temple building in Kendrick.

A group excursion to Mexico recently. Sunday dinner guests of Helena were son Don, and Allen Brown of Lewiston. Allen played drums in the recent Lewiston Kiwanis Kapers.

Mr. and Mrs. Rick Heimgartner and family were Saturday afternoon callers in the Eldon Heimgartner home. All goes well with the little ones, great-grandmother reports.

C. F. Lindor Celebrates Birthday!

A birthday dinner honoring C. F. Lindor was given at his home in Juliaetta on Thursday of last week. Present for the event were family members Mr. and Mrs. Roy Heimgartner, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Peters and the entire Lee Heimgartner family.

Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Heimgartner enjoyed a Sunday, Apr. 12, "up-river" visit with their families. A first since X-mas! Enjoyed Northern Lights on the home trip—rosy pink.

River Notes—

A very "too brief" call at the Ernest Steigers home, by Mary Steigers, daughter Charlotte Sauers and little son David of Salt Lake City, Utah, and daughter-in-law, Sharon Steigers, with baby son, Chadron Dean, of Orem, Utah, enroute to the home of Marianne and Don Ahles of Genesee, was made early last week. The group stopped a few minutes at the Ken Steigers home, also. The two young mothers with little ones departed homeward early Sunday morning, April 12, intending to make the entire trip, around 600 miles, to Salt Lake City that same day! Charlotte and son spent several days with grandfather Julius Sauers at Lomont, Wash., during the visit.

Hoskins News—

Mrs. Wanda Hoskins of Cottonwood Creek phoned to proudly report the birth of a 4th child, at Portland, Oregon, on March 28, to her daughter Sharon Johnston, a missionary to Africa. The little Miss arrived a month early, but is doing nicely. Grandmother Wanda spent a week in Salem caring for the family. Taking the Am-Trac to Seattle, Wanda visited son Howard and family, who then brot her home and with his family, were guests in the Wayne Hoskins home during Spring Vacation. They returned to Seattle on April 10. With house repairs, meat care, company, etc., a busy, busy time!

Another Old Time Neighbor,

Sol P. Jones Passes at 87— Sol J. Jones, for several years a resident of Cherrylane Ranch during the '30s, passed away at his Lewiston home April 10. A good neighbor and friend, he is fondly remembered by many of us. His funeral was held on Tuesday, April 14, at Brower-Wann Chapel and burial at Normal Hill Cemetery. We all loved Sol, and he will not be forgotten.

Bekalyn—"Sweet Sixteen"—

On April 10th, Bekalyn Maida Steigers reached her Sweet Sixteen birthday—one of the nicest ages! After birthday cake at home that evening, a celebration trip to Lewiston to view a play presented by the combined high school of Weippe and Pierce (Timberline) pupils, in which friend Buffy Webster played a part was enjoyed by Bekalyn, Brant and mother Linda.

Linda served as a substitute teacher for friend Reva Luvaas during the past week at Lapwai.

Ken, to not too spry with his Shingles, has slowly resumed his fencing and other spring activities. A trip to the Kamiah home of Linda's cousin, Hunt Hatch, was enjoyed by the Ken Steigers family, meeting from opposite directions, on Sunday afternoon.

The Bob Callison family attended the horse sale on Sunday at the Spencer Live Stock Sales Yard in Lewiston.

Jack and Molly Benschoter were Saturday evening callers in the Walt Benschoter home. On Sunday Priscilla and Arlie Armitage enjoyed lunch with Walt and Babe.

Rena and Ernie Andrews visited with the Wesley Andrews family in Vale, Oregon from Tuesday to Friday. Curtis and Angie Russell spent the weekend with their grandparents.

Sunday dinner guests in the Andrews home were Mr. and Mrs. Art Bomon. Vicky Benschoter called on nearly all neighbors this past week collecting for the American Cancer Fund.

May you all be blessed at this Easter Season.
