A Note of Appreciation

School began this week -vacation and summer activities are now a pleaand summer activities are now a pleasant memory for our children. One Needed for Kendrick added activity this summer was a youth baseball program, it was a good program. Everyone who participated got to play. They each learned the fundamentals of baseball and fair play. Winning was not stressed, but it was fun when we did, Much of the credit for this goes to our coach, Kenneth Brown. He is a master of yards down field under the guidance izing the program and their coaching; to parents Bud Henson, Roger as Roy, Nels Sneve and Carolyn Gravelle for their turns at coaching and providing transportation; to Marga Blair for scorekeeping duties; to Nina Woods for the end-of-season party; and to the Juliaetta Market for the donation of ice cream bars for that party.

It was a good season!

> Kenaston Corporation of Lewiston plans to begin work on Monday, September 14th, and the preliminary volunteer work needs to be finished before they can begin.

A dollar value will be placed on all donations of labor, equipment, and materials, and 50 percent of this value will be reimbursed to the District under terms of the Idaho Parks and Recreation Department matching grant which has been approved.

In addition to willing workers the following items of equipment will be needed: backhoe; trucks (with hoist if possible); crowbars and sledgehammers; cutting torches, wheel-barrows; hammers and other hand tools; shovels; pickup trucks. The Kendrick-Juliaetta Lions Club has committed its members to help with this project in any way possible.

If you have any questions regarding the project or donations, contact any of the Directors. This is an opportunity for all area residents to show their appreciation for the swimming pool which has served for Mr. and Mrs. Arley Allen attended a potluck dinner Saturday after-noon at the home of Mr. and Mrs. life and other major surgery. Your help is needed!

The pool was originally constructed by volunteer labor: 1947-48.

Frats Pledge 310 In Fall Rush

Moscow University of Idaho social fraternities are filled after pledging some 310 men at the end of fall rush activities this week, according to Bruce Pitman, dean of students.

Pitman said the total number of pledges is down "some from last year," but most of the houses are filled to capacity. A few could still accomodate two or three more, but all have enough members and pledges to satisfy their goal.

He said rush went smoothly and nearly all the men who w anted to pledge a fraternity found a place. Among those pledging were GENESÉE:

Women Pledge Sororities

Moscow-In the traditional atmosphere of excitement, 193 University of Idaho women received invitations to pledge the local chapters of nine social sororities at the close of for-mal fall rush activities, Wednesday,

According to Bruce Pitman, dean of Student Advisory Services, rush went smoothly and houses were able to fill their membership spaces, "It was a fantastic rush" he said, "For the first time ever, we were able to place every woman that went thru rush and wanted to pledge.

sorority chapters deserve a lot of credit for their willingness to cooperate. "This is the first time I've heard of this happening anywhere in the country," Pitman said.

He said the number of pledges was down from the 232 invitations issued
