Hillside Grass Fire Saturday Near Juliaetta

A fire, apparently started by a cigarette or match flipped from a passing car, burned more than 70 the past 8 years. She was 95 years, acres of hillside pasture between Kendrick and Juiaetta Saturday afber of the Lutheran Church for 95 ternoon. The fire burned on the north side of the highway above the Gene Hamilton residence before it was extinguished by Kendrick Fire Protection District workers and dozens of volunteers from Kendrick and Juliaetta

The fire was first reported at approximately 3 p. m. and had begun along the road, which led to the suspicions that it had been ignited by a cigarette or match carelessly thrown from a passing vehicle.

The hillside in that section is so steep that firefighting vehicles were of only limited use and most of the fire fighting was done by Fire Protection District men and volunteers using shovels and wet sacks. There were also six drops of retardant from airplanes on the fireline. One of the drops caused a power outage 7 minutes when the liquid shorted out a power line.

A high-ranking railroad official got lost in the northwoods and finally found his way to a small railroad station. But the waiting room was just as cold as the outside. The man banged on the office window and demanded to know why there wasn't some heat in the place.

"Look, Mister I'm too busy sending telegrams to bother with stoves," the agent snapped.

The official grabbed a telegraph blank and wrote to the superintendent: "Fire agent this station immediately." He shoved the blank through the window. In a few seconds, the agent appeared with kindling and a scuttle of coal.

"Did you send my message?" the official asked.

Said the agent: "Look, Mister, I'm too busy building fires to send messages."

Final Services Held—

Funeral services for Lena Farnell were held on Thursday, August 26, at 11 a. m., at the Brower-Wann Memorial Chapel in Lewiston, with a host of friends and relatives to pay their final respects to this fine lady. A former school teacher, she left her mark on the lives of many children, for their betterment. Lovely floral tributes were presented. She was layed at rest in the Lewis-Clark Memorial Gardens

On Friday, Aug. 27, Effie Bundy-Gilbert, a former Lenore friend and neighbor, was buried near the new Farnell grave, at Lewis-Clark Memorial Gardens, following an impressive service held at Vassar-Rawls Funeral Home. A very large number attended to bid her farewell, several organizations in which Effie had played an important role were represented. Effie was an early member of our old Agatha-Lenore Willing Workers Club. Suffering very poor health in later years, she reached the age of 79, before her blessed release.
