Hill and Valley Garden Club Prepares For Fall Activities

Hill & Valley held their first meeting for the '82-'83 year Oct. 27 at the club center with Mrs. Wm. Petticord presiding. Year books were distributed and various corrections made.

The club has purchased and planted several trees at the Juliaetta Elementary school. Each class has it's own tree and will take continuing care and observation of it. Further shrub plantings are planned for spring.

A beautification project at the Kendrick Park has in most part been completed.

The club is most appreciative of the able assistance of Don Bateman in soil preparation and planting.

Pacific Regional meeting was announced to be in Moscow April 27th. There was a brief report on District meeting held Oct. 21st at Kooskia.

The official state pins were available to members. Also Blue Bird pins were on sale.

Plans for Christmas sale were discussed and the date of Thursday, December 10 was set for Sale Day beginning at 8:30 a.m. Lunch will be served by the Friendly Neighbor club.

The budget for 82-83 was presented and adopted. President Doris told the group that the weeds study needed to be completed and sent to District president.

County, District Election Results

Since the introduction of the computer voting card and tallying methods, it has been difficult to get local results at election time. Ballets cast in Genesee, Juliaetta and Kendrick, as well as elsewhere in the county are taken to a central computer in Moscow at the closing of the polls and counted there. So early Wednesday morning, the Gazette has no ac-There will also be a grab bag for cess to individual precinct results.

> Most local people will have the results of state and local contests before the Gazette goes to press, but for those readers who live a distance from home, here are the results as the counting stands very early on Wednesday morning.

For Governor: Evans: 141,322; Batt 139,277. 85 percent of the vote in. Race undecided.

Lt. Gov.: Leroy (R), 22,645; Mitchell, 15,809. Leroy considered as the winner.

U. S. Rep. Dist. 1: Craig (R) 75. 687; LaRocco (D), 65,686. Craig is considered winner.

Latah County Sheriff: Laune Odenborg, 6,677; Dave Wilson, 3,116.

Latah County Comm. Dist. 1: Tom Spangler (D) defeated incumbent Wilmer Cox. Spangler had 5,355 to Cox's 4,330.

For Representative from Latah County: Tom Boyd was unopposed and was re-elected. The race between Betsy Thomas and Doc Lucas was undecided, but Lucas had a very slim margin.

Norma Dobler was returned to the Idaho Senate by a comfortable margin over Rankin an independent.

In Dist. 7 contests: Marguerite McLaughlin of Orofino led Andre Moslee for the Senate seat.

Dist. 7 Representative Races:

Claud Judd appears to have won over Republican Pat Richardson; Carl Braun looks like an easy winner over David Krasselt.

Ron Reynolds, the son of Richard and Lucille Reynolds, is a senior this year at G, H. S. Ron enjoys sports and plays football, basketball, and baseball. This past summer he played baseball for the Moscow American Legion. He is a member of the G Club. In his free time Ron can often be found outdoors, either cutting wood or just enjoying its natural beauty. He also likes working in his Grandpa's shop.

After graduation Ron plans to do what he does best, play baseball for L. C. S. C. and major in business. Best of luck to you, Ron by Sheri Mahal

SHRINERS HOSPITAL FREE MINI--CLINIC

Potentate Harry M. (Red) Emrson of Calam Temple is pleased to announce that the Shrine will sponsor a Free Hospital Mini-Clinic. This program is designed to help the Shrine local children who are in need of the Shriners Hospital Orthopedic services.

Children up to 18 years of age with orthopedic problems, rheumatoid arthritis, cleft lip or palate, or those who need plastic surgery to repair burned tissue are eligible. The services provided by the Shrine Hospital will be explained and admission requirements outlined to the parents of potential patients.

Three orthopedic surgeons from the Lewiston Orthopedic Associates of 320 Warner Drive, together with nurses will be in their Clinic examing all children.

Services at Shrine Hospitals, whether out-patient or in-patient care, including surgery are completely free to those who do not have the means to provide the care required .

To gain admittance to a Shrine Hospital, parents much provide Birth Certificate, parent or guardianship release and immunization records of their child. These are not required for the Mini-Clinic screening. The Clinic will be held on November 19, 1982 from 1:00 p. m. to 5:00 p. m. For more information, please call Shrine office. (208) 743-6916.

She wishes to receive two majors, Grieser and Beverly Moser. The next regular meeting of the group will be held on December 15th at the Legion hall. A Christmas party with the Legion will follow that meeting .--- mh
