Dec. 4 Craft Fair Will Aid Scholarships

No. 48

The Candy Land Bazaar, a scholarship fund raising project will take place on Saturday, Dec. 4th at the Kendrick Grange Hall.

The Craft Fair will feature many activities including tables of crafts ranging from needlework, dried flower arrangements, jewelry of Idaho Gems, art work and Christmas decorations. There will be soup, pie and coffee available for lunch as well as many baked goods for sale.

A beautiful crocheted afghan will also be given to a lucky winner. A special feature will be a photo corner with photographer Bob Bain taking photos in a Christmas setting, a perfect gift for Christmas.

A craft corner for the kids wil help entertain the young ones while parents enjoy the fair-materials will be provided for the children to make some creative gifts. Through the day, fair goers can enjoy special Christmas music.

The fair, scheduled from 10 a.m. to 4 p. m., is free to the public and promises to offer something for evervone.

Plan to join the festivities and get an early start on the holiday fun as well as helping our area students with scholorships. To date, with the loyal support of the Juliaetta-Kendrick communities, the fund has been able to provide $3900 in scholarships since re-activating the program.

In Appreciation-

I'd like to extend my thanks to all of our neighbors and friends for their cards, visits and other kindnesses showered on me during this past and trying year.

I especially wish to thank Vicky contributions when we found out our Benscoter for her thoughtfulness and efficiency in writing the news items for the Gazette. If you have news for the paper during the month of December, call Vicky Sunday or Monday before noon (mail time). Her number is 289-3421. It will be a saving of her time. During the month of Januray, call Judy Callison (phone 289-4117) as she will be relief reporter for that month. Thank you all.

FHA Father-Daughter Banquet The annual Father-Daughter banquet, sponsored by the Genesee FHA Chapter was held Thurs., Nov. 18. The theme for the banquet was "Sunrise, Sunset," and the multipurpose room was decorated in orange, yellow, and gold. Traci Stout, the chapter president, welcomed the fathers, and each daughter introduced herself and her father.

Shawna Broemeling, vice-president said the prayer before dinner and the fathers were treated to a teliious meal.

Wendy Allen sang "Sunrise, Sunset" for entertainment. After dinner, the fathers filled out a questionnaire concerning their daughters. Darci Derganc and her father, Dick, won the contest.

To close the banquet, Leslie Danielson read a poem written by Gena Grieser and dedicated to our fathers. Special thanks to Mrs. Turner, our advisor, and to all the fathers who came to the banquet. -Chandra Zenner, FHA reporter
