High School Choir Entertained At Golden Sunset Meeting
(Delayed from Last Week)

The Golden Sunset Senior Citizens held a potluck dinner Monday, May 9. Approximately 80 signed the guest book. The boys choir of Kendrick H. S., under the direction of Miss Loa Russell sang a number of songs, some were new and several were oldies from the early 1900's. They were all greatly enjoyed. It is wonderful for the young people to share their talent with us.
The potluck table was well filled plus the pie table and all enjoyed the feast. Following dinner we were entertained with a style show, the likes of which is seldom enjoyed in our town. The wives of former presidents modeled clothes of a varied assortment. The narrator was Miss Piggy (Bill White). Others participating were Bill Rogers, Ike Ostman, Gene Taylor, Ross Armitage, Bill Lublow and Jim Bower.
Twenty-seven senior citizens from Troy were guests of the Golden Sunsets.

Next Ross introduced 4 members of the FHA: Sharon Hoogland, advisor; Lucinda Groseclose, Vicky Renfrow, State FHA President, Jennifer Parsley, local chapter president; and Angie Abrams.
Each girl gave a brief talk and informed the Grange of State Conventions; what the FHA was, about its local activities and what each girl received from belonging.
After these interesting discourses the Grange had a lunch followed by a business meeting.
