All of the chairpersons for Genesee Community Day deserve a pat on the back and much praise for a fantastic day last Saturday. The runs, parade (even if our "one horse shay" did not make it through) races, lunch, Battles of the Classes and Sexes, Boy Scout Rope Bridge, Trap Shoot, contests, etc were great. A spirit of cooperativeness such was demonstrated makes us feel proud to be a part of this community.

To Make Annual Ride

"Gentlemen on Horseback"

The 35th annual trip of the "Gen- aspects of grass seed production tlemen on Horseback" is to come The tour will be of interest to any through the local area this year. The one who would like information on 150 men and their horses will assemble near Desmet. Idaho on Saturday,

Early Sunday morning, 90-yearold C. C. "Chuck" Glover, retired cattleman from Spokane, will lead off the group for the 6-day trip that winds through the mountains and meadows and ends 150 miles later with a ride in the parade the morning of Saturday, June 25 at the Craigmont Spring Festival.

Plans call for the men to be at the Boulder Creek Camp ground near Helmer, Tuesday night, June 21 and the following night at the Marek Ranch near Southwick.

The ride began when cattlemen of the Spokane and surrounding areas rode to the Cattlemen's meeting in Ellensburg, Wash, and it has grown with each passing year. With the exception of two half days last year, Mr. Glover has ridden every mile on all of the previous rides, one of which was 40 miles in length.

Enthusiastic riders come from all parts of the northwest including the Spokane area, Colfax and Dusty and Seattle in Washington. St. Maries, Moscow, Deary, Lewiston and Reubens in Idaho.

Local men who plan to participate this year include Louie Tribble, Arnold Zimmerman and Orval Schu-
