Annual Crop Production Tour

The annual Crop Production Tours, organized by the Latah County Extension Office will be held July 9. The tours will enable you to observe cereal variety nurseries and research trials on nitrogen and phosphorus placement, soil applied insecticides, erosion control and weed control.

For more information on the Annual Crop Production tours, contact 1984, Leona M. Trump and James the Latah or Benewah County Ex-L. Trump filed with this Court, a Petition for Adoption and for Ter-mination of Parental Rights.

K-J Babe Ruth League Tgers Complete Season

The Babe Ruth Moscow League games have ended this summer and the Kendrick Juliaetta Tigers fin-ished tied with the Dodgers and Ro-yals, all having 8-4 records for the

Even though the Yankees took 1st place with two losses, it was the Kendrick-Juliaetta Tiger team who sow that the Yankees lost each "Never losing to the firstplace team says something of the Tigers," voiced a neutral fan up in the Moscow crowd.

And for the Tigers' first year in the Moscow League, they did well.

Here are the final standings:

Yankees: 10-8 Dodgers: 8-4;

Tigers: 8-4; Royals: 8-4; A's: 6-6;

Orioles: 3-9; Pirates: 0-12. Even with all the broken bones and stitches and sore arms Jay Henderson and Clark Woods were forced to coach around, these are the boys who produced the winning season: Shad Blewett, Jason Butler, John Gravelle, Matt Gravelle, Chad Hen-son, Ron Hewett, Aaron Konen. Brenden Millard, Scott Morey, Brian Parks, Doug Taylor, Dallas Vallem, Brian Witt, Jim Woods, and Tom

A very special thank you goes to both Jay and Clark for all the effort, patience, sense of humor, expertise, and especially for their valuable volunteer time to help our teen-age boys. Although the pay in dollars is nothing, the contribution to our K-J community from these men is a treasure. Thanks again, Coaches Henderson and Woods!
