The "high-light" society news of our area for this week was the loveour area for this week was the lovely combination 40th wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Glen Stevens celebrated Sunday, Aug. 19th, at the Cottonwood Creek Community Church, and the 81st Birthday of the still amazingly youthful looking "groom-birthday boy Glen"! Needless to say, the "Bride" is still beautiful, too!

A family dinner was held preceding the afternoon festivities in the church rooms.

The "bride and groom" first met at the old Stonypoint School House at the head of Hubbard Gulch, when she was "Teacher Miss Powell" there.
Pupils of that teacher, now grandparents, were among the many attending Sunday's event! Old friends, classmates of the groom at Juliaetta

High School, now great-grandparents, were grateful to attend and witness this inspiring event!

This "young couple" is wished many more years together!

Mrs. Effic Powell, mother of the "build" was present to expirit at flow "bride", was present to assist at Sunday's guest book table. An estimated 150 attended! She, herself, had been

Lessie Heimgartuer Celebrates
Early 76th Birthday—
Another fine estimated 74 family members gathered on Sunday, Aug. 19 at his home on the Ridge to help celebrate, and visit with daughter Marie Straw, husband Bill, son Bryon Straw, U. of I. student, and baby Brandi Cox, from Mt. Home, Idaho! Practically all of Leslie's many brothers and sisters and families attended and brot potluck, and enjoyed the day together! Granddaughter Jeri, husband Ron Elliott and children came from Yakima. Sister Betty and husband Johnny Surbaugh came from Othello. All of wife Delores' children and grandchildren came from the Cleanwater area!
