Santa and Mrs. Claus Visit Kendrick

Almost 150 young believers crowded around the Kendrick City Fire truck last Saturday afternoon to see and visit with Mr. and Mrs. Santa Claus, who arrived in town with the aid of the J-K Lions Club, the Kendrick Volunteer Fire Department, and Mr. and Mrs. Roy Glenn. It was especially good to see Mrs. "back in harness" again this year. Members of the Lions Club and Kendrick Fire Department joined in packing and seeing that each child received a treat that afternoon. There were 150 bags of candy and fruit packed for the visit from Mr. and Mrs. Claus and most of the bags were distributed, despite some threatening weather.

Turkey Drawing Winners

Immediately after Santa's visit, the firemen held their annual drawing for free turkeys and the lucky winners were:

Ed Meece, Dick Steigers, Jim Swafford, Arnie Brown, Emil Sildow, Alvy Millard, Pattie Brown, Earl Wagon, Jody Fey, Joyce Clemenstagen and Fred Arnett.

The turkey drawing is about the only fund raising event the local fire department sponsors during the year. The money realized from the sale is used for the purchase and repair of department equipment. The firemen expressed their appreciation to the community for its excellent support of this event. Lapwai Clips Tigers 54-51 for First Loss

The Lapwai Wildcats used a big 7 point scoring bulge in the second quarter to tag the Kendrick Tigers boys hoop team with its first defeat of the season last Tuesday night in the Lapwai Christmas Tournament. Lapwai outscored the Tigers 23-16 in the second quarter and then withstood a final Kendrick rush to win 54-51. This non-league defeat was the first loss of the season for the KHHS squad. The Tigers are now 6-1 on the season.

Free throws made a big difference in the game. Lapwai hit a sizzling 13 of 18 from the line for 72 percent while the Tigers were getting 7 of 15 for barely over 50 percent.

After a slow, defensive first quarter that saw the Wildcats take a 8-6 lead, the Lapwai squad broke open the game and scored 23 points while the Tigers picked up 16 points. The Wildcats led 31-22 at halftime.

Kendrick came back to outscore Lapwai 28-23 in the second half, but weren't able to close the gap. The Tigers scored 14 points in the third quarter while holding Lapwai to 10, and outscored the Wildcats 15-13 in the final period of play.

Kendrick got a balanced scoring effort from its starting five. Jack Meyer had 15 points, Troy Hewett 10, Mark Harris 6, Robert Blair 12 and Brian Parks 8.

Chinook Robs Area of White Christmas

The warm winds of a strong Chinook moved across the region last weekend and robbed the Kendrick, Juliaetta and Genesee area of its "White Christmas." Before the warm, moist air front broke the spell of cold and snow, the promise of snow on the ground for the Christmas holidays seemed a certainty. But Friday the temperatures took a sudden rise and by Saturday there was rain and moderate to strong wind that cleared the snow cover in almost dramatic swiftness. The snow pack of from 3 to 5 inches disappeared in a sea of slush and even that went as the warm air dried streets and highways. An improvement in travel conditions was a positive improvement. Temperatures moved into the high 30's and low 40s Sunday and Monday.

There were patches of snow still to be seen Christmas Day, but there was more brown earth visible than snow.

Another Storm Wednesday

Clouds moved in and the temperature dropped enough Wednesday morning early that the precipitation fell in the form of snow again. It snowed most of the day Wednesday, and by evening the ground was white again, covered by several inches of snow. Temperatures were hovering just above the freezing point in Kendrick and Juliaetta Wednesday evening.

UI RESEARCH WORKS TO DEVELOP NEW PEA VARIETIES FOR THE PALOUSE

New varieties of peas better suited to Idaho field conditions must be developed if the state is to maintain its position as one of the nation's leading pea producers, says Duane LeTourneau, a University of Idaho researcher. LeTourneau, a professor of chemistry and biochemistry, said that as production costs continue to rise because of the increased cost of disease and insect control, Idaho farmers will need new varieties of peas better suited to conditions in the region. LeTourneau and his associates hope to develop the varieties faster and at less cost using cell and tissue culture techniques. "Our basic goal is to use these methods to obtain new varieties," he said. One of the procedures LeTourneau hopes to use is called protoplast fusion. The cell walls of two varieties or species of plants are removed with an enzyme solution and then combined. If the fused cells can be regenerated into new plants, the hybrid may contain useful characteristics of both parents. "Hopefully, we will come up with some unusual genetic combinations," said LeTourneau. Idaho farmers harvested an estimated 75,000 acres of dry edible peas in 1983, the last year for which figures are available. The total value of Idaho's dry pea crop was over 10.8 million in 1981, the last year for which dollar amounts are available, according to the 1984 edition of Idaho Agricultural Statistics, issued by the Idaho Department of Agriculture. In addition to dry peas, 23,330 acres of Austrian winter peas were harvested in Idaho in 1983. In 1981, the last year for which dollar amounts are available, Idaho's winter pea crop was valued at over $3.3 million. The Idaho Pea and Lentil Commission has given a grant of $3,000 to partially fund the research, which is also sponsored by the Idaho Agricultural Experiment Station. The program will also work to develop new varieties of lentils, as well as working with Russet Burbank potatoes. Using a grant from the Idaho Potato Commission, LeTourneau wants to improve the fertility of the Russet Burbank potato, the most popular variety grown in Idaho. When breeders try to cross-breed the Russet Burbank with other varieties, the Burbank is largely infertile, making traditional cross-breeding difficult.

NICHE TO OFFER BASIC HUMAN ANATOMY WORKSHOP

Moscow—a better understanding of human basic anatomy will be offered participants in a workshop Jan. 12 at the University of Idaho Student Health Center. Dr. Victor P. Eroschenko, UI associate professor of anatomy, will be the course instructor. He said topics to be discussed include the anatomy and location of vital organs in the human body recognition of these organs during examination of a cadaver in the university laboratory and recognition of major structures in the human body. Pre-registration is necessary and may be done by contacting Judy Browning, NICHE program coordinator, St. Joseph's Hospital, Box 816 Lewiston, Idaho 83501-0816 or telephone (208) 799-5322 Wednesdays and Thursdays before Jan. 3. The registration fee is $10 for NICHE members and $20 for non-members. For more information about course content, call Eroschenko at the UI Department of Biological Sciences, telephone 885-6696.

1985 Big Game Openers Follow Management Plans

The start of most 1985 big game seasons will follow the pattern of Wednesday and Saturday openers established in longrange management plans, following approval by the Fish and Game Commission during its recent meeting in Boise, December 6-7.

General deer seasons in Panhandle Management Units 4, 7 and 9 have been set to open Saturday, October 5, and openers for most of southern Idaho follow on Wednesday, October 16.

Other northern Idaho Panhandle units open November 6, a Wednesday but the backcountry units, first to open, have starting dates on Sunday, September 15, for general deer and elk seasons.

Elk hunters can take to the field in portions of the Department Fish and Game's Region 2 and 3 and in three southeastern Idaho units Wednesday, October 2, and Panhandle elk hunting opens Saturday, October 5.

Those units open in northeastern Idaho near the Montana and Wyoming borders have Wednesday, October 9 openers and others in central Idaho open Wednesday, October 16.

Commissioners set 1985 quotas of 9,300 general nonresident elk tags, 1,200 Panhandle elk and 11,500 general nonresident deer tags. This year, nonresident quotas were 8,300 general elk, 1,200 Panhandle and 400 backcountry elk tags. Nonresident deer tag quotas included 11,000 general and 500 backcountry in 1984.

UI HOME ECONOMIST OFFERS TIPS ON MICROWAVING BEEF ROASTS AND STEAKS

Marlene Fritz, Assistant Agricultural Editor, St. Anthony, Idaho—If you need a break after spending the holidays in the kitchen, a University of Idaho home economist says you can save a lot of time, without sacrificing flavor, by cooking beef in a microwave oven.

Janice Stimpson, of the UI Cooperative Extension Service in Fremont County, recently has prepared materials for the Idaho Beef Council on cooking beef in the microwave. She says many cookbooks have not kept up with changes in the ovens themselves.

"The most likely mistakes people make is to cook roasts at too high a power," she said. "You should never cook a beef roast above the medium-power level, just as you would never put one in a conventional oven set above 350 degrees."

"But a lot of books have instructions to do it higher because, at the time the books were written, the ovens only had high and low settings."

Roasts should be brought to 100 degrees on medium power, then to 130 degrees on medium-low, said Stimpson. From there, the cook can take them to the preferred internal temperature—rare, medium-rare and so forth—at the low setting.

"If you do not have medium-low or low settings, you can cook a roast on medium until it's done and still get an average product," Stimpson said.

Thermometers designed for use in conventional ranges should never be used in microwave ovens, she said. The meat must be removed from the oven before the regular meat thermometer is inserted. Stimpson said the cook should cover the roast loosely with foil and let it set 10 minutes to get an accurate reading.

LEGAL NOTICE

NOTICE OF INTENTION TO SELL THE GENERAL OBLIGATION BONDS OF JOINT SCHOOL DISTRICT NO. 283, LATAH, NEZ PERCE AND CLEARWATER COUNTIES, STATE OF IDAHO, IN THE SUM OF $530,000 AND REQUEST FOR BIDS THEREFOR
 NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN by the Board of Trustees of Joint School District No. 283, Latah, Nez Perce, and Clearwater Counties, State of Idaho, that said school district intends to issue and sell $530,000 fully registered school bonds of said school district.
 Sealed bids will be received by the Clerk of the Board of Trustees at the office of said Board at Kendrick High School, in Kendrick, Idaho, for the purchase of said $530,000 School Bonds of said District up to 7:00 o'clock P. M., P. S. T., on the 24th day of January, 1985, said bids to be filed with said Clerk. At the hour of 7:00 o'clock P. M., P. S. T., of said day and at Kendrick High School, the regular meeting place of the Board of Trustees, said bids will be opened by the Board of Trustees of said school district at a special public meeting of the Board to be held for the purpose of considering such bids, awarding the bonds or rejecting any and all bids therefor.
 The bonds are dated February 1, 1985, denomination $5,000 or integral multiples thereof, not to exceed the amount of each maturity, and mature serially on February 1 of each of the years and in the amounts as follows:

YEAR	AMOUNT
1986	$ 35,000
1987	35,000
1988	40,000
1989	45,000
1990	50,000
1991	55,000
1992	60,000
1993	65,000
1994	70,000
1995	75,000

PRIOR REDEMPTION: Bonds maturing in the years 1992 to 1995, inclusive, are callable for redemption in whole or in part, in inverse order of maturities on February 1, 1991, and on any interest payment date thereafter prior to maturity, upon not less than thirty (30) days prior notice, at the price of par and accrued interest to the date fixed for redemption plus a premium (expressed as a percentage of such principal amount) set forth in the following table:

Redemption Date (Both Dates Inclusive)	Redemption Price
February 1, 1991 and August 1, 1991	102%
February 1, 1992 and August 1, 1992	101%
February 1, 1993 and thereafter	100%

INTEREST RATES: The bonds will bear interest at any number of different rates not exceeding five, any of which may be repeated, expressed in multiples of 1/8th or 1/20th of 1%, but the highest rate bid for any of the bonds shall not exceed the lowest rate by more than two percent (2%). All bonds of the same maturity must bear a single rate of interest. A zero rate cannot be named for all or part of the time from the date of any bond to its stated maturity, and any premium must be paid in the funds specified for the payment of the bonds as part of the purchase price. Interest will be payable February 1, 1986, and semi-annually thereafter, at a rate or rates to be fixed at the time the bonds are sold.
PAYMENT: The bonds will be payable in lawful money of the United States of America at First Security Bank of Idaho, N. A., Boise, Idaho (the "Bond Registrar"). Interest on each bond will be payable by check or draft of the Bond Registrar mailed to the registered owner at the address appearing on the bond register of the district maintained by the Bond Registrar. Interest on each bond shall be paid by check or draft of the Bond Registrar to the person in whose name such bond is registered at the close of business on the 15th day of the month next preceding the interest payment date.
SECURITY: The bonds will be full general obligations of the school district payable from the proceeds of ad valorem taxes to be levied without limitation as to rate or amount.
AWARD: Award or rejection of bids will be made on the date above stated for receipt of bids. The bonds will be awarded to the responsible bidder offering to pay par and accrued interest and specifying a rate or rates which results in the lowest net interest cost to the school district, computed from the date of the bonds to maturity after the deduction of premium, if any.
FORM OF BID: Each bidder is required to submit an unconditional bid specifying (a) the lowest rate or rates of interest and premium, if any, above par and accrued interest to the date of delivery at which the bidder will purchase such bonds, or (b) the lowest rate or rates of interest at which the bidder will purchase such bonds at par and accrued interest to date of delivery. Each bid must be in writing for all the bonds herein offered for sale, and together with the bidder's check, must be enclosed in a sealed envelope marked on the outside, "Proposal for Bonds" and addressed to the Board of Trustees of Joint School District No. 283, Kendrick, Idaho. For information purposes only, the bidders are requested to state in their bids the net effective interest cost and the net effective interest rate represented by the rates of interest specified in each bid. None of the bonds shall be sold for less than par and accrued interest to the date of delivery.

BID CHECK: Each bid shall be accompanied by a certified or cashier's check payable to the Treasurer of Joint School District No. 283, in the amount of $20,000, which certified or cashier's check shall be returned to such bidder if his bid is not accepted. If the successful bidder shall fail, neglect or refuse to accept the bonds so sold and to complete and pay therefor in accordance with the terms of such successful bid within ten (10) days following tender of such bonds, such cashier's or certified check shall be forfeited to said school district, otherwise the check of the successful bidder will be held unencashed as evidence of good faith pending the delivery of the bonds.
SALE RESERVATIONS: The Board of Trustees reserves the right to (1) waive any irregularity or informality in any bid; (2) reject any and all bids for the bonds; and (3) readvertise said bonds for sale until said bonds have been sold as provided by law.
MANNER AND TIME OF DELIVERY: The purchaser will be given at least seven (7) business days' advance notice of the proposed date of delivery of the bonds when that date has been tentatively determined. It is now estimated that the bonds will be delivered on or about February 28, 1985. Pursuant to the provisions of Section 33-1108, Idaho Code, the successful bidder must provide the printed bonds together with CUSIP numbers, if desired, at his expense. The bonds will be prepared and delivered as fully registered bonds in such authorized denominations and registered in such names as the successful bidder shall request as least five (5) business days prior to the delivery date. Delivery of the bonds will be made in Kendrick, Idaho, except that the successful bidder may, at his option and expense, designate some other place of delivery. The successful bidder must also agree to pay for the bonds in Federal funds which will be immediately available to the school district on the day of delivery.

TAX EXEMPT STATUS: In the opinion of bond counsel, under existing law, including current rulings and official interpretations of law by the Internal Revenue Service, interest on these bonds is not includable in the federal gross income of the owners of the bonds and consequently is exempt from present federal income taxation.
LEGAL OPINION: The unqualified approving opinion of Chapman and Cutler covering the legality of the bonds will be furnished without cost to the purchasers. There will also be furnished the usual closing certificates, dated as of the date of delivery of and payment for the bonds, including a statement that there is no litigation pending, or, to the knowledge of the signer thereof, threatened, affecting the validity of the bonds.
DISCLOSURE CERTIFICATE: The closing papers will include a certificate executed by the Chairman of the Board of Trustees, or other officer of the district, confirming to the successful bidder that, to the best of the knowledge of the signers, and after reasonable investigation, (a) at the time of sale of the bonds and at the time of delivery of the bonds, the Official Statement (as amended or supplemented as of the time of sale) did not contain any untrue statement of a material fact or omit to state a material fact necessary to make the statements therein, in the light of the circumstances under which they were made, not misleading, and (b) there has been no material adverse change in the operations or financial affairs of the district since the time of such sale.
ADDITIONAL INFORMATION: Complete financial information and other related material with respect to the issue may be obtained from Marilyn Eichner, Clerk of Joint School District No. 283, Route 2, Box 6, Kendrick, Idaho 83537 or from First Security Bank of Utah, N. A., and First Security Bank of Idaho, N. A., Investment Division, 79 South Main Street, Salt Lake City, Utah 84111.

Local 4-H Club Recognized

The Mountain View 4-H Club of Moscow received "Honorable Mention" at a recent 4-H Community Pride Conference held in Coeur d'Alene. Two other Latah County 4-H clubs participated in pride projects: Happy Valley 4-H Club of Genesee, and Trail Blazers of Moscow. The Idaho Community Pride program is sponsored by the Cooperative Extension Service and the Standard Oil Company of California. The purpose of the Community Pride program is to stimulate increased participation of young people in community affairs and concerns. The program offers a variety of learn-by-doing projects and project related skills, knowledge and beliefs. Highlights of the Mountain View 4-H Club's activities included raising money to help Latah County Search and Rescue purchase a CPR doll. They also helped inform the community of the importance of CPR. As a result of their efforts, 20 4-H'ers and their families and approximately 300 community residents received training in CPR and first aid.

Slow Release Fertilizers May Be More Completely Utilized

Moscow—The use of slow release fertilizers, applied when winter wheat is planted, to combat fertilizer losses over the winter is being studied by University of Idaho scientists. G. R. Severson, a soil science master's degree candidate, reported the results of trials he is conducting in a technical paper presented at a recent meeting of the American Society of Agronomy.

Genesee Senior Citizens Enjoyed Potluck Dinner

The Genesee Senior Citizens held their annual Christmas potluck dinner Friday, Dec. 14 in the Legion Hall. Following dinner, President Gene Woodruff called the meeting to order. Claudia Carblum and Irene Nebelsieck were named the nominating committee. The seniors have been invited to have lunch at the school Tuesday and help bag candy for the Christmas party following the Christmas concert. Emma Hoduffer announced the Sr. Citizens bus will be Dec. 21. Change for the month only. Gene and Norma Woodruff furnished the door prizes which were awarded to Carl and Ingor Simons and Richard Neyens. Norma Woodruff and Evelyn Danielson lead singing for Christmas Carols. Wendy Allen and Bill Adley provided the musical program. Dinner guests were Wendy, Bill, and Ann Kessel. Card winners were Bernadette Weber and Leona Becker.

Severson found that applying a sulfur-coated area fertilizer with the seed at the time of planting reduced germination rates at high nitrogen application rates, but increased seedling vigor and yield enough so that few differences were found that could be attributed to the fertilizer application rates. Use of fertilizers and application methods can significantly reduce the amount of nitrogen leached below plant root zones over the winter.

CONVULSIONS

Convulsions are a physical manifestation of a disturbance in brain function. Other terms that describe a disorder of the brain similar to convulsions are seizure, fit, and epilepsy. Many dogs and cats suffer from seizure activity.

Disturbances of brain function can come from disturbances outside the brain in such as toxic diseases or from a diseased brain itself. Causes include various infections, tumors, genetic predisposition, liver failure and idiopathic (cause known) epilepsy.

The two basic categories of seizures are focal and generalized. Focal seizures are caused by a localized brain problem and involve a relatively small number of nerves. Generalized seizures often show violent muscle activity and are usually accompanied by temporary loss of consciousness.

Diagnosis of convulsions and the severity of the problem often hinges on a detailed description of past seizure activity. Young animals are more likely to have seizures from infections while older animals are likely to have seizures as the result of a brain tumor.

Some breeds of dogs are more likely to be affected by convulsions than other breeds. This breed predilection for seizures includes German Shepherds, Beagles, and Cocker Spaniels.

An epileptic is an animal that suffers from recurring seizures no matter what the cause. Epilepsy is only a symptom of underlying brain dysfunction. Epilepsy is often treatable with long term medication regimens.

Epileptic attacks are preceded by a period of restlessness or nervousness where they pet may whine, wander, hide, salivate, or seek attention. The restless period period before an epileptic event may last a few seconds or several days. An epileptic attack may last for a few seconds or several minutes; it often goes unnoticed because many seizures occur at night. Following a seizure is a period of disorientation where the pet can be confused, restless, unresponsive, and sometimes temporarily blind. This disorientation can last for days.

Tax Guide Available

The 1984 Farmer's Tax Guides, published by the U. S. Department of the Treasury is now available free of charge at the Cooperative Extension Office, Room 208; Latah County Courthouse. The 80 page booklet explains how the Federal Tax Laws apply to farming.

The publication includes sample tax forms for farm operators. Importance of Good Records, Filing Requirements and Return Forms, Accounting Periods and Methods, Farm Income and Farm Business Expenses are titles for five of the nineteen chapters included in the Farmer's Tax Guide.

ANGLER ON SALMON RIVER CITED FOR CUTTING STEELHEAD IN

An angler who cuts the dorsal fin from a wild steelhead can get a citation for breaking the law—and also inflict the fish with a poor chance for survival, according to Mel Reingold, a Department of Fish and Game regional fishery manager.

Reingold said when the dorsal fin is deliberately cut off on an adult steelhead, it has "an entirely different appearance" from that of a hatchery fish, because the raw edges and dorsal bones protrude.

Reingold said the dorsal fin is eventually infected by bacteria and fungus that reduce the steelhead's chance to survive long enough to spawn, Reingold said.

Idaho regulations specify that "it shall be unlawful to possess any steelhead with a freshly cut or mutilated dorsal fin."

Sad and glad news is found in the lives of those we know.

We had failed to express our sympathy for our friend Natalie Heath and her sister Talia Lynch, Lewiston residents, at the loss of their father, Abel Chacon, 88, who recently died at his home in Costa Rica. He was a retired government and construction worker.

The joy all felt who attended the 50th wedding anniversary of our friends, Eldon and Gertrude Gruell Heimgartner, held on Saturday, Dec. 22, at the Cottonwood Creek Community Church that afternoon, will long be remembered! Beautiful decorations, luscious refreshments, a continual coming and going of their many friends, and having their family present to share this important occasion, made it a heartwarming event! We hope life will continue to be kind to them!

Eldon's aunt, Minnie Heimgartner, Bkeley's voice greeted the young, 50-year newlyweds on their return home Saturday evening. She phoned "congratulations" from her condominium home in California!

Granddaughter Pam Flieger spent overnite Saturday in the Erma Stevens home.

Mr. and Mrs. Glen Steven's daughter, Linda Bakke, arrived from Sandpoint on Saturday to spend holiday time with her parents.

All but two children and grandchildren of the Eldon Heimgartner descendants enjoyed Sunday dinner at the home ranch.

Teresa Heimgartner of Pilot Rock, Oregon, with her parents, the Good Heimgartners, and Larry Heimgartner and wife, were overnite Sunday guests.

Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Heimgartner attended an early Christmas dinner at the Walter Zumhove home on Sunday. A large group was present and a happy time resulted!

Leslie and Delores Heimgartner met grandson Brian Straw in Moscow for lunch last Wednesday, Dec. 19 and gifts for the Mountain Home group were sent down by him! "There's more than one way to skin a cat!"

Rick, Lane and little Brittany Steigers brightened the Cherrylane grandparents by eating dinner at their home on Sunday, after an early Santa visit! Granddaughter Bekalyn Steigers was also a helpful and beloved visitor, home from the U. of I.

The last 5 names rung on "news gathering" promised much news for Dec. 31—which is in the making, as of Monday, Dec. 24—so...

May we all have survived a Happy first Holiday on Dec. 25, Christmas Day! (It's not really easy, this far ahead of publishing, when writing and collecting news (Dec. 24)

Monday, Dec. 17, dear neighbor friends, Mary Hayhurst and Dorothy Partridge, brot Christmas goodies and joy to the E. Steigers home. Diane and Kelly Pettit did likewise one day early last week! Neighbor Maggie Berry brot up the mall one day.

Magazine Names Fichter Conservationist of Year

Retired Idaho State University biology professor Edson Fichter has been named 1984 Conservationist of the Year by Idaho Wildlife magazine, the publication of the Department of Fish and Game.

Editor Diane Ronayne said Fichter was honored for his special ability to inspire hundreds of students to enter natural resource professions. "Edson used unorthodox (for the time) methods like pass-fall grading and bring out the highest potential of each student," she said.

"He has set an example, both in the classroom and in the field, of the highest ethics and research standards. He has been recognized both for his own research (in pronghorn antelope behavior) and for the top-notch biologists and wildlife managers he has turned out."

In addition, after retiring in 1976 Fichter began a "second career," as a poet, artist and art teacher. "Edson's poetry and wildlife art have instilled in people of all ages a respect for nature—both its power and beauty," Ronayne said. "He has the gift for bridging the gap between science and the humanities, and has shown others how to do the same."

Previous Conservationists of the Year are Scott and Mary Lou Reed (1983), Ted Trueblood (1982), Lee Morgan and Burt Trueblood (1981), Richard A. Schwarz (1980), J. Vard Chaburn (1979) and Morton R. Brigham (1978).

Fichter's poetry is featured in the November-December issue of Idaho Wildlife, accompanying the winning entries in the magazine's annual photography.

Idaho Wildlife is available by subscription to the Idaho Department of Fish and Game, P. O. Box 25, Boise, ID 83707, or for $1.50 a copy at any Fish and Game office.

'85 Spring Steelhead Seasons Offer Some Liberal Limits

Steelhead anglers will find some liberal limits on stretches of the Clearwater and Snake Rivers 4 daily, 10 in possession and 20 for the season—when spring seasons open January 1.

But Salmon River limits will gain be cut back. The 1984 fall season opened with 4, 10 and 10 limits, but those were reduced to 2, 4 and 10 by the Fish and Game Commission at its October meeting.

Next spring Salmon River limits will be 1, 2, and 3, with catch-and-release only above the mouth of the Pahsimeroi to Basin Creek. Spring season regulations were approved by the commission when it met in Boise December 6-7. The Columbia and Snake promised a strong upstream "A" run of steelhead bound for the Salmon River; strong enough to support the generous limit, said Herb Pollard, anadromous fishery coordinator, Department of Fish and Game.

However, warm water temperatures apparently held much of the A run between Bonneville and McMary dams on the Columbia during periods of gillnetting from July through early September. "The combination of factors severely impacted the Salmon River steelhead run," Pollard said.

Clearwater "B" steelhead that followed the A run escaped the downstream problems for the most part and this offers the opportunity for anglers to keep more steelhead, he added.

Spring steelhead regulations will have the dorsal fin restriction only for the Salmon and Snake. On the Deer Creek Bridge, fish with dorsal fins 2 inches or longer must be released immediately.

Cumberland wasn't a free pass.

But it was America's first generation gap. Between 1775 and 1880, generation after generation of American settlers plodded through the Cumberland Gap. A natural pass through the Appalachians that became the gateway to the West. It was tough going. The cost was great. In money. And lives. But they paid the price. Because they were building a country. Their country. You can help build America today by buying U.S. Savings Bonds through the Payroll Savings Plan. That way, a little is set aside from each paycheck to buy Bonds. Automatically. It makes saving easy. And that's something you can't pass up.

Take stock in America.

U.S. Savings Bonds pay 8% interest when held to maturity of 5 years (4.5% the first year). Interest is not subject to state or local income taxes, and federal tax may be deferred until redemption.
