COMMISSION TO CONSIDER LICENSE VENDOR POLICY

Revision of its policy for granting contracts to license vendors is one of the agenda items to be considered by the Fish and Game Commission when it meets in Boise, April 4-5. Sessions will be conducted at Department of Fish and Game headquarters, 600 South Walnut, with a public meeting scheduled for 7:30 p. m., April 4.

If the changes in vendor policy are approved, more businesses will be allowed to sell fish and game licenses, according to the department's Bureau of Administration,

Currently, there is a ceiling on the number of businesses authorized to sell licenses and requests to be vendors are evaluated by a criteria list to evenly distribute vendor contracts throughout the state.

Floral arrangement program at Garden Club

The Hill and Valley Garden Club met at the clubhouse on March 27. President Doris Pettichord conducted a brief business meeting and Joyce Brammer presented a report from the nominating committee naming the new slate of officers. They are Cathie Mosher, president; Ardythe Heimgartner, vice president; Betty Watts, treasurer and Dorothy Partridge, secretary. Grace Yenni reported from the conservation committee.

The Grubby Knuckles Garden Club from Culdesac and the Sod Busters Garden Club of Orofino were guests of the Hill and Valley Club for a table with a centerpiece of spring flowers. A large variety of salads and rolls were enjoyed by twentyone members and seventeen guests. A delicious dessert was served by the hostesses, Betty Watts, Patti Silflow and Barbara Hepler.

The program was an informative and beautiful display of floral arrangements. Ruth Armitage discussed her lovely arrangement of Resurection Lilies, forsythia, carnations, and yucca. Explaining her use of the diverse plants.

Joyce Brammer displayed an arrangement in a novel container: a kitchen bouquet in a Moullie grinder base on a green mat using daisies, forsythia, ivy, and daffodils, pointing out her use of selecting and arranging the blooms.

Barbara Hepler's use of flowering quince. Lenten rose and Tiger lily in a tall vase gave the arrangement an oriential motif. She also arranged flowers in a basket, showing what one can achieve with only a few blooms, using Japanese Iris, forsythia, asparagus fern, arum and some Shakespeare tulips.
