the new tax law REALLY did to your IRA?

True, the rules have changed. But the changes aren't as bad as you may think:

- You May Still Qualify for Current Tax Deductions.
- Your IRA Will Still Grow Tax Deferred. Over the life of an IRA, that can add up to thousands of dollars in tax savings.
- Your IRA is Still One of the Best Ways to Control your retirement future.

Latah Pomona Grange Met In Kendrick Jan. 9

Thirty-two members of Latah County Pomona Grange and two visiting members from Lapwai Grange attended the noon potluck dinner and business meeting held in Kendrick Saturday, Jan. 9 at the Grange Hall with Pomona Master Nell Heimgartner presiding.

Donna Cochrane of Princeton has been appointed State CWA, so she resigned her office as Latah County Pomona CWA. Grace Curtis of Mt. Deary Grange was elected to replace Mrs. Cochrane. Mrs. Curtis has been the Pomona Ceres, so she resigned this position and Ruth White of Kendrick was elected to that station.

Concerned Citizens' reports showed Troy Grange members interested in the proposed site for the new Troy Post Office; Kendrick and Juliaetta will celebrate Centennial observances in 1990 and 1992; Potlatch recently acquired a new ambulance, largely provided through volunteer services; the billing of Washington Water Power to elderly persons not able to meet their current bills; that Kendrick was pleased about the many boxes sent to servicemen and women in Korea for Christmas, and Moscow Grange urged all Grangers to write our Legislators and make our wishes known, especially on the subject of agriculture.

Activities reports were submitted by Kennedy Ford, Moscow, Mt. Deary, Troy, Princeton and Kendrick.

A Certificate of Award was extended Stella Benjamin for her years of service as Latah County Pomona Secretary. Many "thank you letters" have been received from 4-H members for the awards provided by Pomona.

The annual visitation program is being carried on—each Grange visits another Grange and entertains a Grange during the January, February to March 26, when Moscow Grange entertains all county Granges in a "Jamboree", including a potluck dinner and a program, which includes a number from each subordinate Grange in the County. Reporter, Nellie Handlin.

THE PARSON'S CORNER

By John Blom, Pastor
Cameron and Zion Lutheran Parish

Some of us get a bit confused by things that seem to be contradictory in the Bible. Of course, we do forget sometimes that peculiar sayings must be understood in their larger context.

Take for example the sayings of Jesus: "Well, done, good and faithful servant. You have been faithful over little; I will set you over much." (Matt 25:23). And yet again He said, "So you also, when you have done all that is commanded you, say 'We are unworthy (unprofitable) servants; we have only done what was our duty.'" (Luke 17:10).

Everyone of us, upon completing a job, task or assignment, like to know if it has been adequate, acceptable, "will I get a pass or fail mark?" A little praise never hurt anybody (especially if it seems to be in short supply.)

Of course, Jesus often had reference to the larger context of life and eternity. There are things in God's economy, which when done on earth, have the same value as if they were done in heaven. And there are other things that won't and never will attain or survive in the light of God's presence—you know what I mean. We are always encouraged by scripture that tells us, that in all we do, we should do them to the glory of God — to do it "as unto Him." After all, He is the only One who judges, who evaluates, who is merciful, who forgives—with any finality. When we try to do these things, we risk gumming up the works.

THANKS TO DAVE. I'm going to take a risk today. As Dave Vander Does prepares to leave our community in these days, I would just like to voice, on behalf of many of us, the gratitude we feel for his friendship, his cooperative spirit, his eagerness to have us all do things together. He knows well enough that togetherness is a pize hard to win, but that we must never quit working for it. His unflinching efforts with the Food Bank, E. M. T.'s, the Easter cantatas, Singspirations — just to name a few—stand as witness to his efforts. He was having fun, but it was for our enrichment, our good.

So, all we can say is: "Well done, faithful servant" and thanks so much, Dave. We wish you and Pam God's guidance and blessings upon your future endeavors.
