By Stonypoint Friendship Club

Ladies of the Stonypoint Friendship Club met at the home of Marjorie Stevens last Thursday, Mar. 31. Mabel Steigers of Gifford will be hostess to the Club for its April 21 meeting.

Glen and Marjorie Stevens enjoyed having Mrs. Effie Powell as an Easter Sunday dinner guest.

Gertrude and Eldon Heimgartner visited her brother and sister-inlaw, Cecil and Crystal Gruell on Tuesday. On Easter Sunday they met Marie and Everett Custer of Clarkston for dinner out, and later visited son Gerald Heimgartner and family.

Ruth and Wayne Heimgartner are entertaining their granddaughters Haylee and Kylee for the week of Spring Vacation. Easter Sunday dinner guests were Harold and Carlene Heimgartner of Clarkston and Alan and Jacie Heimgartner of Potlatch. On Saturday evening Ruth and Wayne had dinner out with Bill and Lavern Harri of Clarkston and Janet and Dean Rynearson and children from Sandpoint. On Wednesday they visited Ruth's mother, Mrs. Yvonne Hunter, in Lewiston, Dale Heimgartner of Coos Bay Oregon was a weekend visitor with his parents, Adrythe and Roy Heimgartner. Easter dinner guests were Barb and Lee Heimgartner and family, and Deb and Ken LaBlanc and family of Troy, and Tom Bonin of Kendrick.

Chris Tiller from southern Idaho, was a Friday luncheon guest at the

THE PARSON'S CORNER

"IN THE SHADOW OF EASTER" By John Blom, Pastor

Flowers spent Saturday morning visiting with Art and Maxine Foster, Cameron Emmanuel - Zion Lutheran Parishes

I have read that in the Peace Park in Hiroshima, Japan, there is a Easter dinner guests at the Don statue of a young girl whose name Parks home were Ted and Theo was Sadako. She is holding the im-Meske, Frank and Virginia Jacobage of a paper crane. In Japan, the cranes are very numerous, and it is Mr. and Mrs. Rick Gertje and believed that these birds live a thoufamily were Saturday dinner guests sand years.

Sadako was two years old when the great bomb dropped on Hiroshima. Amazingly, she survived that Mr. and Mrs. Rick Gertje hosted a horrible moment, and grew to be a 4th birthday party for their daugh- fun-loving, high spirited, popular life. Lying fatally ill, her classmates and friends urged her "before it was too late" to make a thousand paper cranes. For centuries the Japanese have believed that if one could make 1000 paper cranes, it would ber for life.

For me, it is another glaring example of how pitifully far short humankind falls in all its endeavors-
