Local News Of Kendrick

Tuesday visitors of Fred and Betty Arnett were Phil Bahr and Wanita Nail of Lewiston. Thursday afternoon Fred and Betty visited with Bill and Maud Lublow in Juliaetta.

Jo Bencoter reported she had a lot of nice visitors in her home last week including Ruth White, Opal Draper, Vicky Bencoter, Don Bencoter, Esther Shreffler, Nell and Lawrence Heimgartner, and Priscilla Armitage.

Mabel Callison accompanied other Kendrick folks to the Singing at the Juliaetta Nazarene Church Sunday evening.

Myrtle Mael and Hazel Candler were in Moscow Thursday for lunch and shopping. Curt and Opal Hamilton of Libby, Mont. visited with Myrtle one day last week and Sunday callers were Ron and Carol Craig of Lewiston, Bernard and Pat Mael of Moscow, Arnold and Lois Mael and grandchildren Randy and Mindy, all of Deary.

Dick and Velma Benjamin returned Thursday from a pleasant vacation trip where they visited nephews of Dick's in Kennewick and Yakima. Sunday they went on to Morton, Wash., and attended church services at the Methodist Church with former Kendrick minister Steve Caskey officiated. They later spent the afternoon with Steve and his wife Beth, reporting a very nice visit. Dee Morton, nee Magnuson, also a former Kendrick resident, is organist at the church and they had a short visit with her. Monday Dick and Velma drove to Mt. St. Helens which was the highlight of the trip. The road is blacktop all the way and the sights are simply breathtaking, they reported. The day was gorgeous and they had a wonderful time. From Mt. St. Helens the local couple went on to Kelso to visit Velma's sister and brother-in-law Carl and Vina Weber.

Out-of-town visitors recently in the Nell Crocker home were Dee and Jerry Miller of Lewiston and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Bowers of Kamiah. Visitors of Art and Maxine Foster one day last week were cousins Flora and Paul Rhodes of Bend, Or., and J. D. and Bernice Perry of Lewiston.

Tom, Roseann and Ellen Rowden attended a birthday party for John Hall Saturday evening. It was John's big "5-0" Among others at the party were Carol Petter, Jeanette, Bret, Chad and Cody Allumbaugh and friends Tiffany and Becky of Kirkland, Wash.

Nancy Turner was a visitor of Alberta Turner last week. They enjoyed a day in Lewiston shopping, having lunch, and visiting. Nancy spent the weekend with her parents, Lauren and Katie Hoisington before returning home.

Ross and Inez Armitage have been very busy this past week attending the district volleyball tournament games in which granddaughter Karen Clemenhagen has been playing. Friday Ross and Inez called on son Max and family at Winchester and Doris Mustoe called on the Armitages on Monday of this week.

Pat Heimgartner of Clarkston spent Friday and Saturday with her mother Millie Corkill. Millie returned home with her and on Monday they traveled to Spokane to keep doctor appointments. Kelli Corkill spent Thursday and Friday with Millie.

Olean Cuddy visited Monday afternoon with Ava Weyen. Ava is feeling better after having some medication adjustments.

Visitors in the home of Manning and Elsie Onstott this past week have been Ed and Erna Nelson, Ken Jackson, Gordon Peters and Dee and Jeri Miller.

Linda Moss and three daughters and Edna Magee of Lewiston called on Lloyd and Pearl Kimbley Sunday.

Don and Marlene Millard were Saturday night supper guests of Doug and Traci Hermann and children Chandra and Ryan.

Kathlyn Morey, Martha Long and Mabel Callison spent Friday in Lewiston. On Saturday Kathlyn was in Potlatch with the Golden Sunset Senior Citizens of Kendrick.

Bob and Lucille Magnuson were in Tacoma last week to help her mother Mrs. C. E. Rudd celebrate her 90th birthday. Lucille's sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. D. S. Judy were also present to take her out to dinner and then birthday cake at home afterwards, where they were joined by a grandson and his wife and great-grandson. On their way they stopped in Morton, Wash. to visit Dee and her family.

Sunday Lloyd and Clara Ware were in St. Maries at the home of son Carl and his family. Amelia Reeves of Spokane was also present and all enjoyed the day visiting.

Local Talent Participated In Organ Society Recital—

Program for the Moscow Syringa Organ Society Monday evening, Oct. 10th at the Good Samaritan Village included much local talent. Featured was a men's quartet composed of Dale Harms, Pastor John Skillman, and Noel Williams, all of Culdesac, and Neil Williams of Lenore. Kristen Kirkham of Lenore played a most enjoyable piano solo. Ruth Slind played organ solos and accompanied Mararget Cox and her sister Betty Chisholm in several vocal duets. Joanne Schetzle of Culdesac and Marjorie Stevens played organ and piano, and Neil and Marjorie paired up for another. Neil played a much appreciated piano solo, "Sentimental Journey". Oscar Slind, Glen Stevens, and Alberta Turner joined the Moscow group in applauding the program.

Craigs Now in Yuma

A postcard from Lloyd and Juanita Craig informs us that they are now at their winter home in Yuma, Arizona after a safe and pleasant trip down with good traveling weather.

Date of Cholesterol Tests Will Now be November 29

Ruth White informs us that the date for the cholesterol testing has been changed from Oct. to November 29, from 1 to 3:30 at the Kendrick Senior Citizen Center. Seniors who wish to take advantage of this valuable and convenient service should remember the date.

The main reason they wrote was to let the Gazette know that their ZIP code has been changed slightly and is now 85385 (just a change in the last number). Burt and Vera Souders have, or will soon be down in Yuma, too.
