Contests for Area

In the spirit of the season, there will be holiday decorating contests for homes and businesses in Kendrick, Juliaetta and the surrounding areas. The contest is being sponsored by the K-J Community Development Association and the winners in the areas will receive either a Kendrick or Juliaetta Centennial medallion or a copy of the Centennial history book that will be available next year. In addition to the contests for decorated residences, there will be a separate contest for business establishment in the two towns.

Judging will be accomplished during the week of Dec. 13 to 17 and the winners will be announced December 20 in the Gazette.

Judges will be basing their decisions on originality, appropriateness, and displays most keeping in the spirit of the season.
