Centennial Comm. Looking for Ideas and Suggestions

Kendrick's Centennial Committee is looking for ideas and suggestions on events that might be included on Saturday, October 13, the date the community celebrates its 100th year.. Kendrick was incorporated on October 15, 1890, and plans are now being made to observe this date,

There is a Centennial Committee functioning under the auspices of the Kendrick/Juliactta Community Development Association. This combeen concentrated on assembling the material for the centennial history book project. Now the book is almost ready to be sent to the printers back east and attention needs to be day.

Some events for the day are now settled on: there will be a parade in the morning, and prelimary discussions are being made for a picnic in the park with food booths selling a variety of items for those who don't wish to bring a picnic basket. It is also hoped to arrange for musical entertainment in the afternoon There are also plans for a Centennial Ball in the evening.

Montie Wilson of Lewiston visited with Mike and Warney May from Wednesday through Sunday. Sunday evening Mike and Warney drove him home and visited with Dave and Janet Wilson. Sunday evening Warney and Mike Karen May and Family to celebrate participation. Thanks again, Father's Day. Tami Moscow and Priscilla Armitage were Wednesday morning visitors in the Dick Benscoter home. Don Benscoter was also a visitor one day last week. Vicky Benscoter visited with Ann Turner in Troy one Monday. Pat and Tammy May and Jerome spent Sunday afternoon fishing on the East Fork. Tammy's parents were there also, having camped over the weekend.

CARD OF THANKS

We would like very much to thank Ann Parks, Patti Silflow, Robin Sandino, Ellen Magnuson, Nancy Hammond, and Tami Hicthcock for making our Centennial Ethnic Heritage Project at the grade school such a success. These women gave so much of their time and financial support to create an organization that our communities can be proud

Also to the parents and grandparents that helped-we really appreciated it.

A special thanks to Dave Jones, Eldon Taylor and the staff at the grade school for being so supportive. To Dale Taylor for backhoe use and Roger Syverson for putting up our sign, we extend our thanks and most of all, to the students for their

Fourteen Grangers were served a delicious dinner by CWA Betty Cowger and her helpers on Thursday, Granges represented at this session. The Idaho State Grange Lecturer, Ruth Bright, and the Idaho State Grange DWÁ (Director of Women's Activities) Marlou Wagner were present. Each brought a message of information on the prejects of their respective office and encouraged more participation,

It was stated there is a packet on "Sound and Hearing" for fourth, fifth and sixth grade students that available through the National Grange. There is also a large chart of the Pledge of Allegiance in "sign language" available.

The ladies were ably assisted by their husbands, Avery Bright and Howard Wagner.

They also brought some old re-June 14th at noon. There were five cord books from the State Office to be given back to the orignal areas. They included Joel, Slickpoo at Culdesac and Rimrock at Nezperce.
