> Mrs. Machlis received her BA degree in Art Education from the Uniat the University of Idaho. She has for about four months. She got many ideas from both of these cultures. She also learned about Chinese art.

Mrs. Machlis likes painting patterns and animals. She reads stories and other things about the animal before she paints.

She has also illustrated a few animal books. She now lives in Moscow and paints at a home studio. Her variety in paintings has increased since she returned from the Orient She now paints many collages with maps. She has used oil paints, air brushes, printmaking, abstract forms patterns of clothes, and water colors.

The grade school was thrilled to welcome Mrs. Machlis and enjoyed hands at art with a variety of art projects.
