Park News

By Joey Smith

Unsettled—That's the word for the weather. There were enough fine days strung together for the road department to grade the road from Helmer all the way to the South Latah District line on the Boulder Creek road. Quite an improvement.

New Home! Karl and Wanda Enger watched with baited breath as the trucks pulling their new modular home into Park worked to position it on the footings, fighting mud all the way. Karl's efforts to establish a firm driveway had gone awry when load after load of heavy rock and gravel just mushed away in the mud. They had to be pulled in across the foot of Don Smith's hay field next door, and even then it was nip and tuck. The lovely home was ready to be moved into by Friday. Congratulations, neighbors! Visiting Karl and Wanda on Friday were his cousins, Arnold and Lois Mael, Helmer. Clinton and Ethel Smith and daughter Leah, celebrated the couple's wedding anniversary with a dinner in Moscow on Monday. They were back in Moscow on business Wednesday. Friday, Leah and her Mom went to Spokane where Leah competed in a tennis tournament. They spent the night with Ethel's nephew and family, Jim and Brenda Smith, Sarah, Kristin and Scott at Hayden Lake. Sarah returned to Park to spend the week visiting. Kay and Doug Stout of Lewiston were Father's Day visitors.

Dan and Sue Willis visited their son, Shannon McMillan at Colfax on Wednesday. Sue was in Lewiston on Monday and received an excellent report from the doctor on the progress of her eye surgery. She visited Charlie and Hazel Enger in Deary, Thursday. Tracy Harrol, Daniel, Jessica, and Jennifer were Friday overnight visitors of the Willis. Jody and James Smith were Lewiston visitors Wednesday and Saturday. On Sunday they celebrated Father's Day by accompanying Jerry on a drive just for the fun of it. They traveled North, up the White Pine scenic drive, through St. Maries and Rose Lake to Coeur d'Alene. They paid brief visits to their son and daughter-in-law, Jim and Brenda Smith, Kristin and Scott at Hayden Lake, and to friends Mark and Debbie LaBolle, Daniel and Andy at Rathdrum before returning home via the Potlatch Route. One benefit of the wet weather this spring is a lovely growth of new greenery. It was a beautiful drive.

To get back one's youth, one merely has to repeat one's follies.
