Heavy rains Friday afternoon stopped combines in their tracks, but the deluge was of such short duration it gave the harvesters only the week-end off. Cutting resumed on Monday. This week promises the windup

September Sadness

of harvest.
 Nonie Bechtel visited Clinton and Ethel Smith Wednesday evening and called on Karl and Wanda Enger Thursday.
 Clinton and Ethel and Jerry and Jody Smith went to St. Joseph Regional Medical Center Thursday as Ethel and Jerry's mother, Eva Daniels had been re-admitted in failing health. They had a good visit and saw several other family members there. Word was received Saturday morning that Mrs. Daniels had passed away. The family gathered at the home of Clem Smith in Lewiston that afternoon to decide on arrangements.

September spells summer's end sadly, Frenzied bees warn by swarming madly. Softly the dry leaves start their turning As grasses finish season's burning. Mourning doves call to the high-flying geese, As if yearning for the same release. We face the inevitable chill, Knowing autumn obeys nature's will.
