Fiji Is More Than One Island, Kendrick Woman Finds on New Job

By Marsha Schoeffler

My mother was appalled. "It's just a dot in the Pacific Ocean! I don't think you'll even have enough room to stand on it!" she exclaimed.

Fiji, in fact, is a conglomeration of over 300 islands which supports about the same population as the state of Idaho. And, I've found not only a place to stand in its capital city of Suva, but also a very nice new 2-bedroom flat to live in, just at the edge of the University of the South Pacific campus where I'm employed as a video producer in the media unit for a contract period covering the next two years.

I flew from Lewiston airport on the 19th of August and 26 hours later, via Los Angeles and Hawaii, I landed in Suva. I crossed the International Dateline, so arrived the 21st—back to the future. (Fiji time is 19 hours ahead of PST.)

Fiji shed ties with the British Commonwealth to become a sovereign empire in 1970. USP was chartered in 1970 and provides higher education to 12 island member nations including Fiji, Kiribati, Nauru, Niue, the Island, Solomon Islands, Tokelau, Tonga, Tuvalu, Vanuatu, Western Samoa and the Marshall Islands.

In 1987, the democratic government suffered two coups. Though they were bloodless, they nevertheless impacted tourist trade and the economy quite severely. The situation has stabilized now, free elections are to be held next March and the economy is recovering.

The background of the coup is simply put by saying, Indians (from India) had gained political clout and Fijians could not abide that. Indians began their migration to Fiji a hundred years ago when the British imported them to work the sugar plantations they were establishing.

The weather in Suva is 79-86 degrees Fahrenheit year round with humidity ranging from 78-83 percent. Days of rain per month varies from a low of 5 days in August to a high of 15 days in March. Since it is in the southern hemisphere, the seasons, such as they are, are opposite of what is experienced in Idaho.

Suva is considered the crossroads of the Pacific and its downtown area is filled with narrow streets sporting a wide variety of small shops selling household goods, electronics, shoes and clothes. There are also many small cafes and bread shops. The public market displays a vast array of local fruits and vegetables. The business enterprise is shutdown by one or two p. m. on Saturday and doesn't open again until Monday morning.

Frequent bus service is provided for most of the town. I pay 25 cents for a ride downtown. Taxis are also available and very cheap. Cars are very expensive, new or used, about three times the amount for a comparable car in Idaho. They drive on the left-hand side of the road like the British. People generally drive with a wild and frantic air as if they think they are immortal, and God help the pedestrian!

Being 1,100 miles south of the equator, the flora is tropical. I have a mango and two lemon trees in my yard and see coconut, banana and Avocado trees growing everywhere. Ginger also grows wild and is blooming very beautifully now, as are the hibiscus flowers.

My job has already afforded me opportunity to travel to villages in the bush. Villages are commonly populated by about 150 people. Bures (hatched homes) are evident, but European style homes (cement block) are more common. Most villages have water systems (spigots on pipes throughout the village), but electricity is more rare.

Villages have community houses with wall-to-wall tapa (woven grass mats). Most people speak English as a second or third language, the first being Fijian (Ba) or Hindi.

I have spent several evenings in the community houses, visiting and ceremonially drinking the yaquona root which is pulverized, put in cloth, soaked in water in the tabua (a huge wooden bowl on short legs) and commonly called ava or grog. Kava is a soporific, so it has a sedative effect. A designated person fills a half-round coconut shell and presents it to each person present, the most high-ranking being served first. You clap softly as it is presented to you, drink it in one quaff, then hand it back, softly clap three times and say "bulala".

The Pacific Way, as they call it, is to greet everyone openly that you meet along the street, saying "Hello" or the Fijian "Bula". Another part of the Pacific Way is to arrive late.

Agnes M. Telford, 90, American Ridge Native, Dies Dec. 29 in California

Survivors include a son, George Telford of La Crescenta, Calif., a daughter, Gwen Smith of Tulare; a brother, Andrew Cox, Kendrick; six grandchildren, and seven great-grandchildren. Four brothers and Scheduled events often actually begin about an hour later than advertised. The word for "Thank You" is "Vinaka".

If you plan a trip to Fiji, I invite you to contact me through the Media Unit at the University of the South Pacific, P. O. Box 1169, Suva, Fiji. I'll greet any face from home with warm hospitality.

There are a number of radio stations here. One TV station that has been operating for one month.

Saturday Bean Feed Will be Benefit for Summer Baseball Program

The annual benefit bean feed for the Juliaetta - Kendrick Summer Youth Baseball Program will be held Saturday evening, January 11, at the high school cafeteria before the Nezperce-Kendrick basketball games.

Serving will be from 4 to 7 p. m. Admission prices are $3.50 for adults; $2.00 for children 6 to 11 years, and family tickets are available for $12.50.

Grace Konon, one of the chairmen for the feed, said the bean feed committee is looking for donations of pies which will be served that evening. Also needed for the feed is a few good volunteer workers who will help with the serving, clearing of the tables and clean-up afterwards. Call Grace if you'd be willing to volunteer.

The summer baseball program in the Juliaetta-Kendrick area involves dozens of young boys and girls and involves T-Ball, little league and the Babe Ruth league. Much of the money needed for this program comes from the annual "Bean Feed".

Advance ticket sales are now in progress and tickets can be purchased from the youngsters or at the door on Saturday.

Last Call for Material For Inclusion in Juliaetta Pioneer History Book

Plans for Juliaetta Centennial Continue To Progress; Center Open

The Juliaetta Centennial Committee met at the newly-opened Centennial Center January 6.

The grand opening of the center was on Saturday, December 21 and over 50 guests toured the center that afternoon. The center will now be open on Wednesday and Friday beginning January 8th, from 1:30 to 4 o'clock.

The center will have changing displays of the area (Juliaetta, Kendrick, Southwick, Cameron and Leland). Anyone or any group with pictures or displays they would care to share, are asked to contact a committee member.

If a group, (school, church, club, etc.) would like to tour the center, they may contact Tami Hitchcock or Harry Burmeister to arrange for date and time.

The committee has plans for a parade and food booths for the May 2 centennial. If your organization is interested in participation, you may contact Frank Groseclose or Jack Sherman about the parade.

Warney May of the Latah Search and Rescue offered to help with parade control the day of the centennial. The committee was more than happy to accept Search and Rescue's offer and feel the parade will now run more smoothly.

Any group interested in operating a food booth at the celebration, please contact Carolyn Brown to reserve space.

Sale of the Centennial Calendar and cookbooks are very good, but supplies are limited. You may purchase either item at local businesses or contact Margaret Bostick or Carolyn Brown.

The Centennial Committee will meet again at 7:00 p. m. Wednesday, February 5 at the Centennial Center (Granny's Pantry building on Main Street). The committee invites everyone with ideas to share to attend these meetings.

K-J Development Association Names New Leaders, Set Dirction for Future

The Board of Directors of the Kendrick-Juliaetta Community Development Association met for lunch at the Town and Country Diner on January 2 and welcomed new members Greg Mann and Zana Sherman.

Returning member Harry Burmeister began a second term on the board that day, joining other veteran members Wally Butler, Lil Howerton, and Frank Jacobson as the board made plans for the new year. Veteran Bob Hassold was out-of-state.

The board made some changes in the structure of the association: The vice president, rather than the president, will serve on the executive committee along with the chairmen of the three standing committees. This committee's function is essentially an administrative one, providing liaison between the standing committees and the board and association.

A Thank You from "The Little White House"

The Kendrick-Juliaetta community is a wonderful place to be a part of anytime. But, especially when emergencies arise!

We are so fortunate to have such dedicated EMT's, along with a shiny new ambulance, that is equipped with all of the life sustaining necessities.

A "special" thank you goes out to EMT's Debbie and Dave Klatt, Jane Ford and Chuck Lagergren who so graciously gave me a lift to the hospital.

Another "special" thank you goes out to my family and friends. The telephone calls, visits and tasty food have been so much appreciated. God Bless you all,

Humbly,
Ruth A. White

Rural Addresses Changed In Latah County

New addresses for Latah County rural residents were issued this week. This action was required to comply with the "Emergency 911" system that was adopted on July 15, 1991 in Ordinance No. 108. This has been a complex project requiring many hours of planning for its implementation.

The Latah County Planning and Zoning Commission has placed a metal post at each residence's driveway with a four-digit number on the post. That number, along with a road name becomes your new address. In the process, the ZIP plus four digits were changed for some residents. They are as follows:

American Ridge Road	9504
Bethany Road:
1200-1299	9703
1400-1599	9719
Brady Gulch	9510
Cedar Ridge Road
1000-1199	9713
1300-1499	9716
1200-1299	9723
1500-1799	9724
Clemenhagen Road	9721
Deobald Road	9508
Upper Big Bear Ridge Rd.	9720
Eichner Road	9500
Farrington Drive	9502
Havens Road	9503
Tiger Drive	9700
Highway 3
1600-1799	9508
2000-2099	9701
2100-2199	9708
2200-2499	9708
Highway 99	9509
Linden Road	9715
Little Bear Road	9727
McCloud Gulch	9702
Parsley Drive	9726
Riley Road	9722
Rose Drive	9729
Texas Ridge Road	9717
Three Bear Road
1000-1199	9714
2000-2099	9725
Westendahl Road	9728
Wheatland Road	9718
Wilson Loop	9709

With more and more automation coming into the processing of mail within the Postal System, it is becoming very important to use the Zip+4 number.

Copies of all address changes are available upon request from Latah Planning and Zoning office or your Latah County Commissioners.

Residents who live in rural Latah County but have City Boxes will use the 4 digit emergency number when calling the sheriff or the ambulance, or to identify their physical location for delivery by UPS; however, they will continue to use their Post Office box number as their mailing address.

The Kendrick area is unique in that several ridges and roads contain the name "Bear" in them. In order to provide quality and efficient service to the entire area, a few minor road name changes were necessary. A public hearing will be announced at a later date for anyone wishing to petition a change of road name.

Your post office employees appreciate your cooperation in this endeavor. If even one life is saved by a quicker and more accurate response time, the inconvenience of the change will have been worthwhile.

CARD OF THANKS

I would like to thank friends and neighbors for their cards, calls and other acts of sympathy which were extended following the death of my sister Agnes. Your kind understanding was truly appreciated.

Accidental Gunshot Wound Sends Mike H.
To Hospital

Mike Harris of Kendrick was hospitalized Wednesday evening, Jan. 1, after accidentally shooting himself in the leg with a .38mm pistol.

Mike was attempting to get to his feet from Don Galloway's new couch when the pistol (which was thought to be unloaded) discharged, wounding Mike in the right leg. The bullet entered his right upper thigh, went through the leg, and the couch.

Members of the J-K Ambulance arrived upon the scene, administered emergency care, and transported Mike to St. Joseph Regional Medical Center where he underwent surgery. Mike was spending the afternoon with his friends Don Galloway and Dale Renfrow at Don's home.

Mike's mother, Sharon, said much credit is to be given to Don and Dale for their good emergency care.

Mike is back home recuperating after a two-day stay following surgery at the hospital. The wound looks good and Mike hopes to be back to work soon.
