Park News

By Jody Smith

With hot, dry weather holding, the hay is being hauled in Park and the last of it is being wrapped into bales at Helmer. Harvest of grain crops will start this week, barring breakdowns.

Potlatch, Corp. has started making roads and cutting trees along the Park road between the campground and the No. 3 divide. Full logging and hauling operations will swing in to full speed soon. Caution should be taken by people driving the Helmer-Park road, as loaders, trucks, and man crew vehicles will be on the road during week days. Special care should be taken by those traveling south in the afternoon, as the sun and shade patterns in the cuts, with dust in the air to aggravate the problem could be disastrous. A clean windshield helps immeasurably.

Many activities have taken place the past couple of weeks and have been sandwiched in between work schedules. Wanda Enger and Jody Smith spent most of last Wednesday in Deary, finalizing plans for the benefit yard sale scheduled for Aug. 8. The sale benefiting the area Food Bank and the "Talk of the Town", had to be moved from the city park to the Deary Community Church side lawn because of a conflict in scheduling and will be open from 8 a. m. to 4 p. m. Donations of Yard Sale and baked good items are needed and will be greatly appreciated. Items may be left off at the Food Bank office or at the Deary Shopping Center.

Kary Enger went to Deary last Saturday morning where he picked up his dad, Charlie Enger, to accompany him to the graveside service for Charlie's sister-in-law, Myrtle Mael.

Jerry and Jody Smith spent a very busy day last Saturday. Their first stop was in Deary at the service for Myrtle Mael, where they met Jerry's sister, Anna Hunter, of Lenore. She accompanied them back to Park for lunch. Within a few minutes of their arrival at Park, visitors from Portland to the Park area stopped in. Relatives of the Ringsage family were in the area to attend the 50th anniversary celebration of the cousin June and Don Boyd. Visiting Park were Rob and Janice Ringsage, Phillip and Evelyn Buell and daughter Laura, and Gail and Gene Long. The latter were from Tooele, Utah. After Anna and the Ringsages went their way, Jerry and Jody went back to Deary to attend the 40th anniversary celebration for Russell and Margetta Foster. Following that, they went on to Moscow to attend the Ringsage anniversary party. In the evening the Smiths attended the wedding of Becky Loyd and Luis Vargas at Deary.

Saturday, Aug. 1, the Smiths enjoyed the all class high school reunion at Deary.

Terry and Inez Willenborg visited her brother-in-law and sister Carl and Wanda Enger Saturday.

Jody Smith attended the memorial service for Nell Lawrence at Deary Sunday then called on Ruthie Wilson on Bear Ridge.
