The Stonypoint Friendship Club

The weather cooperated and The Friendship Club met Thursday at the home of Gert Heimgartner. Work was done on a quilt for the hostess. All members except two were there. Lots of visiting was done.

Eldon Heimgartner was a Moscow visitor on Thursday.

Wayne and Ruth Heimgartner and Leslie and Delores Heimgartner attended an FFA spaghetti feed at the Grange Hall Thursday evening.

Friday afternoon Wayne and Ruth visited Laverne Harri and Lillie McCall at Laverne's home.

Shelley Heimgartner of Seattle was a Saturday afternoon visitor.

Sunday evening dinner guests were son Allen, Jaci and Cody Jo of Potlatch.

Leslie and Delores Heimgartner were weekend visitors in Clearwater.

On Thursday, Jan. 21st, Mabel Steigers flew to Seattle to the home of son Carl and Wilma. She and Wilma flew to Tucson, Arizona where they spent several days visiting Carl and Wilma's son Chad, wife and sons. Carl had gone earlier to be there so he could take care of his grandson when a new baby arrived. Mabel returned home on Monday, Feb. 1.

Eldon and Gert Heimgartner spent Tuesday in Lewiston. They visited Carl and Lee Wesanen.

Linda and Tyke Van Dellen of Sandpoint came to visit Glen and Marjorie Stevens and Effie Powell on Friday evening. Saturday night Marjorie, Linda and Tyke attended the Lewiston-Sandpoint basketball game at Lewiston.

The Van Dellen's left for home on Sunday afternoon.

Visitors of Lawrence and Nell Heimgartner this week were: Don and Barbara Bencosote of Sweetwater, who called on Tuesday. Saturday morning Betty Stone of Lewiston was a visitor and that afternoon Katie Holsington called. Sunday guests were David and Jo Johnson of Lewiston.

Friday, Ken, Linda and Nellie Steigers traveled to Missoula where they spent the weekend. On Saturday Keith and Carolee's family came bringing food and they celebrated the birthdays of the "two ground-hogs", Ken and Keith. They returned home on Sunday.

Saturday guests of Jim and Jeanne Black were son Steve, Pam and John of Colfax.

Lee and Barbara Heath returned January 29th from a cruise. They flew from Spokane to Los Angeles, then flew to Barbados where they boarded ship and sailed south in the Caribbean and up the Amazon River for approximately 1000 to 1200 miles. They stopped at Devil's Island and several other interesting places along the way, including a plantation to see how Brazil nuts are grown. They also visited Granada. They flew home from Manaus, Brazil.

Quite a change from our weather, then going into the tropics where it was so hot.

When they arrived home they learned that Lee's brother-in-law, Ray Evans, had passed away in Orem, Utah. Ray had worked for Lee several summers. He had battled
