The accident resulted in a brain concussion that caused his death. In those days, mail was carried to Gold Hill and Linden by horseback once a week from Cameron. The carrier would cross the canyon at the Bill Wilson place. Emma later taught school at Gold Hill.

At about this same time, a young girl, Ida Sturdevant, came to the Gold Hill-Linden area with her parents Joseph and Juletta Sturdevant from Missouri. Frank and Ida eventually courted and married March five children were born and raised. They are: Daniel (Spokane), Raymond (Lakewood, Colo.), Clem, Joyce Lyons Murphy (New Mexico), and George.
