Glen Stevens Honored On Ninetieth Birthday

The ninetieth birthday anniversary of Glen Stevens on Aug. 19, was Stevens household.

On Tuesday, Dr. Richard and Ly nda Carpener of Turlock, Calif., arrived for a week's visit. They were given the name Cole Edward. joined on Thursday by Linda Van Dellen of Sandpoint. The two Lindas (Lynda) had been busy for weeks planning this 90th birthday party for Glen. On Friday Carol and Tom Glass of Boise arrived, and Saturday Robert and Beryl Carpenter of Seattle, Clarence Van Dellen of Sandpoint, and Tom, Amy Samantha and Tommie Glass of Idaho and Lloyd F. Ware and the late Fay City joined the festivities at the Stevens home.

On Sunday, the whole group attended Sunday School and Church at Cottonwood Creek Community Church with Glen and Marjorie and Mrs. Effie Powell.

Following church the group decorated the church fellowship room with balloons and fishing symbols, and ate a quick luncheon at the church. Very special was the delicious turkey Mary and Bill Hayhurst had smoked for the occasion. They and Callie and Elton Ankney joined the group for lunch.

Other friends and relatives from near and far started arriving for the open house about 2 p. m. and for the next three hours the room buzzed with many congratulations, much visiting and laughing and reminiscing.

It was a most happy occasion for Glen and his family, and he wishes to express heart-felt thanks for all who shared in any way. Special thanks to the kitchen help and cleanup committee.

Children's Summer Art Project on Display In Kendrick Aug. 28, 29

The Juliaetta Library will be showing a video for the kids on Thursday, Aug. 26, at 10:30. The title of the film this week is "The Mouse and the Motorcycle".

Be sure to join us for the Storytime programs beginning on Thursday, Sept. 2, at 10:30. We will have Storytime for all pre-school age children every Thursday at 10:30. We always share some of our favorite books and have a simple craft for the children to make and take home. This program gives children a chance to get acquainted with others and also to learn many new skills that will prepare them to enter the school system. Please take advantage of your local library programs and bring your children to storytime!

The children who finished the library's Summer reading program by August 19 and received their prize book and certificate are: Andy Vakoch, Rex Ireland, Reece Ireland, Jessica Fitzjarrell, Kayla Pea, Heather Clayton, Chelsie Henson, Rebecca Call, Bryce Henson, Brandon where he goes every summer for a creative ideas and sources for limit- Morgan, who were not only big, but Steigers, Breanna Steigers, Michael month. # Experienced Tiger Football Team waits For Sept. 3 Opener

Coach Kevin Driskill has to replace two good linemen from his championship eightman football team from 1992, but other than that, the Tigers look in good shape as they work for the opening game Sept. 3 against the Troy Trojans on the KHS field. Coach Driskill is cautiously optimistic about his team's potential. Thirty-one young men turned out for the football team last week and that turnout include 20 lettermen from last year and six were starters on either offense or defense.

On offense the Tigers will have veterans Craig Tefft, the quarterback Taj Anderson, Josh Hudson, Chad Heimgartner, Brian Silflow, and Ryan Heier.

On defense will be Brian Silflow. Taj Anderson, David Tate, Chad
