Mabel G, Says Thanks-

I would like to thank the Kendrick Grange for giving me the honor of Granger of the Year. The dinner was wonderful, as was the cake with the "lady with the garden tools" and the farm scene arrangement that Betty Cowger provided.

A special thank you to

Grange Honors Mabel Glenn

"Old MacDonald Had a Farm" has probably never been sung so long or with such gusto as it was last week when Mabel Glenn was honored as Kendrick's Granger of the Year at a festive potluck supper held in the Grange Hall. Seated with family, Mabel looked out on a miniature farm, head table decoration reminding all of Mabel's love of farm life and all that it meant to her and Roy and their children.

No. 16

Present to share in her honor were family members Warney May, Dorothy and Charles Taylor, Sally and Gary Browning, Bernadine Easterbrook, and numerous grandchildren and great-grandchildren.

Kendrick Grange Master Frank Jacobson reviewed Mabel's many contributions to the life to the Grange over the last 53 years, including 15 years as Chairman of the Women's Activities Committee, in which position she made major contributions to the design and construction of the present Grange Hall on the ground floor of the Fraternal Temple, an activity that won National Grange recognition as a community service project in 1973.

For years Mabel has played the role of Mrs. Santa Claus, a tradition that goes back to the days when her band Roy Glenn was Kendrick's Santa Claus.

Presenting Mabel with a framed certificate of recognition and a Kendrick Centennial coin, Jacobson held her up as a model of community service for all to emulate. The crowd present joined in a heartfelt rendition of 'Let Me Call You Sweetheart' to conclude this evening of warm friendship and good memor-

Mabel is now a contestant in the annual Idaho State Grange Granger of the Year competition.

Thanks to Betty Cowger for managing the meal and table decorations. And thanks to all who came to celebrate with us!

Darrel Brocke Wins Weekly Football Forecast

Darrel Brocke, who has been a pretty regular, contestant in the K-J weekly football forecast contests over the years, finally hit the big time last week and missed only three games to win. Five other players only missed three games, but Darrel Jeff Smith, who checks the entry Activities for 16 years.
