Wayne and Wanda Hoskins had a good week's visit in the Prineville Oregon area where Wayne's brother Alan lives. They also had the opportunity to visit his uncle Ray ad family in Bend, Oregon. Ray was seriously ill in the hospital. Many of the family were present there and they visited with them, also. The Hoskins had only been home a couple of days when they received word of Ray's death. They returned to attend the funeral that was held in Spray, Ore., and were accompanied by Loretta Hawkins of Lewiston and Mike and Iva Hoskins of Culdesac. Burial was in Heppner, Ore. They also visited with many relatives while there for the services and the good dinner following. Ray was 76 years of age.

The locals stayed Sunday night at Pilot Rock with cousins Alvin and Carolyn Britt and had a good visit. All returned home Monday. Wanda added the weather was just beautiful for traveling.
