Stonypoint News

The Stonypoint Friendship Club

(This Week's News)

(Note: To our much-appreciated correspondents and readers of the Stonypoint area — sometimes your news just doesn't get to us on Tuesday. This was the case last week. The news came in Wednesday morning, too late to get into type. We are really sorry about it.)

The Stonypoint Friendship Club met at the Genesee home of Marie Zenner, on Thursday. Work was done on a quilt. A delicious dinner was served by the hostess.

The next meeting will be on Wednesday, Dec. 1st, at the home of Jeanne Black.

Local Post Offices Gear Up for Holiday Rush

Every holiday season, the Kendrick and Juliaetta Post Offices gear up for the mail and package rush which generally starts around the Thanksgiving season and doesn't let up until after the new year. Millions of holiday well-wishers send gifts letters and baked goods through the mail to loved ones, special friends or business associates. This year, the post office staffs want to provide their mailing customers with the very best service they have to offer. Their 1993 holiday theme is "You get it here. We'll get it there." The goal is to help local residents get their holiday mail to the right place on time and in good shape. The Post Offices in Kendrick and Juliaetta can share quick and easy holiday mailing tips with readers—from proper wrapping procedures and labeling advice to "should mail by" dates, as well as great, affordable holiday gift ideas. Sharon and Ben thank you and wish you a happy holiday season. Wrap It Right For The Holidays Since you've taken the time to choose the perfect holiday gift, why not take a few more minutes to ensure that it arrives safely by wrapping and addressing correctly? Follow these helpful tips from the U. S. Postal Service throughout the year to make sure your packages are delivered to the correct address, on time, and in good shape.

1. Include a return address label inside the package prior to wrapping and sending.
2. Select a container strong enough to protect the contents during handling. Fiberboard containers are generally strong enough to ship most materials. Your local post office offers packing products designed for safe and sound delivery. No need to cover with brown paper. The PO has labels and tape available free.
3. Leave space inside the carton for cushioning. The container should have enough space to hold the contents plus cushioning to prevent damage. Leak proof containers and mailing materials should be used if shipping liquids. Items which have an odor should be placed in a container which is impermeable to the contents.

Prevent contents from shifting and absorbing shock by using good cushioning materials such as polystyrene shredded or rolled newspaper, bubble plastic and fiberboard inserts.

5. Use reinforced tape—DON'T use twine and cord; they tend to catch and bind in mail processing equipment.

6. Mark the address and ZIP Code clearly and make special markings to alert the Postal Service to packages that are fragile or should not bend. If you are shipping framed photographs, it is a good idea to remove the glass and wrap it separately.

Tom and Gayle Marek traveled to Boise last weekend to pick up son Jake at the bus station. He attended the National FFA convention in Kansas City, Mo. He arrived there by private plane and returned home on the Idaho FFA delegate bus.

While at the convention he attended FFA meetings, went to career shows, saw a Lee Greenwood concert, attended a rodeo and met other FFA members from across the nation.

Recently, Sandi Flowers, Daisy Stage and Laura Adamson traveled to Post Falls for the day.

Sandi Flowers attended the Christmas Bonanza at Lewiston this weekend where she had one of the professional artist's booths.

Weekend visitors of Bud and Laura Adamson and Daisy Stage were Jim and Edna Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Darrel Smith, Dennis Smith. They were all cutting and wrapping pork meat. The Smith families are all from Lewiston.

The Cameron-Southwick communities extend condolences to Roy Silflow and Gladys Whittinger at the passing of their mother, Emma Silflow.

Jean Wegner's grandson, Doug Wegner and his friend, Nora Fuentes of Boise were Saturday morning visitors of Jean. They were joined by Nellie Millard and Cynthia Pavel for breakfast at the Diner.

Sunday Jean and Connie Lohman were luncheon guests of Lois and Don Johnston of Lenore.

Other recent guests of Jean have been Polly Koopp, Marge Wilken, and Roy and Doris Silflow.

Diane and Kimberley Czmowski returned home Sunday after spending three weeks in Mesa, Arizona. Kim had a lot of fun going to the zoo, going horseback riding, going through a copper mine, and loved a trip to the beauty shop for a haircut.

Dear Bill:
We would like to thank Juliaetta Grade School and Brian Heimgartner's fourth grade teacher for allowing our son, John Ryan, to visit the school while we were in the area for an early Thanksgiving. J. R. really enjoyed the visits and we appreciated the courtesies.

Thanks.

Have a wonderful Thanksgiving...

Thanksgiving is our truly American holiday whose tradition goes back over 350 years to the time of the Pilgrims. It is both a joyous and a serious time—joyous because we celebrate the conclusion of almost another year, and we celebrate another successful harvest and give thanks to God for the many blessings he has bestowed upon us. And, serious because we truly do appreciate and acknowledge all the wonderful gifts we receive.

But Thanksgiving of 1993 will be sad for many as we face a holiday without the presence of some we love and had come to be so much a part of our lives. We say, "life will never be the same", and it won't. No one can call back yesterday. But everyone we have ever loved, appreciated or enjoyed knowing has left their mark on us and have become part of who and what we are. It is their precious gift to us and a gift that will live in our hearts forever.

We appreciate the friendship and patronage of the community. All of you are among the special blessings we count on this holiday. We sincerely hope that all of our friends find this season to be filled with the spirit, comfort and pleasure of the season.
