Park News

By Jody Shura

A skiff of snow with promise of much colder temperatures to come, has brought winter into reality for the time being, anyway. Logging trucks are still working a "hoot owl" shift, to take advantage of frozen roads, but this may be changed to daylight hauling if the cold lingers long enough. The Park road has been in excellent condition the past couple of weeks, since the opportune timing of the last grading, just before the colder weather.

Clinton and Ethel Smith were especially busy last week. Thursday and Saturday, they were in Moscow to watch daughter Leah play in a U of I tennis tournament. On Friday, they went to Lewiston to help Clinton's aunt, Jessie McCoy, celebrate her birthday. A good meal at the Ranch Cafe was followed by cake and ice cream at the home of another aunt, Nadine Hanks. Others attending the celebration were Mrs. Hanks' sons and daughters-in-law, Edwin and May Hanks and Carl and Nora Lee Hanks, and the Smith's daughter, Kay Stout and grandson Nathan. May Hanks baked and decorated the birthday cake. On Sunday Leah Smith and her friend Erick Johnson drove out from Moscow to enjoy the day with her parents.

Sunday afternoon, Jerry and Jody Smith enjoyed a visit with Alan and Rosetta Lockman.
