Local Food Bank Could Use Donations

The Kendrick-Juliaetta Food Bank is running short of supplies because of the demand for assistance. Anyone who has food in their cupboards they aren't going to use is welcome to call any of the helpers and they will see that the donations are put in a place where it is needed most. What is needed are canned foods, packaged food, etc. It is also possible to drop items off at the food bank which is located in the old Blewett grocery store building (in the back), on any Thursday from 1 to 3 p. m.

Bingo Games Planned At V. F. W. Hall

A Kendrick VFW Post 3913 committee headed by Harold and Doris Ellis of Kendrick and Chuck Ahrent of Juliaetta is planning a trial run of three weekly bingo games beginning at 7:00 p. m., Saturday, April 2 at the VFW Hall. Games will continue (same time and place) April 9 and 16.

Size of the cash prizes, as well as the long-time continuation of the games, will depend upon the total number of players. So if you are a bingo enthusiast, come on out and bring the family, friends and neighbors (adults only).

The VFW Auxillary will sell coffee and snacks (hot dogs, sandwiches, etc.), and if there's enough call a bar will be open.

If the turn-out is large enough, weekly or bi-weekly games will continue into the spring season, after April 16.

Local Development Assoc. Officers At Leader Forum

Attending a March 11th and 12th Community Leader forum held at the U. of I. Student Union building, were Kendrick-Juliaetta Community Development Assoc. representatives Lillian Howerton, president, and Christine Clayton, chairman of the Business Retention and Expansion committee.

The program, engineered by the Idaho Rural Development Council created a forum to strength management skills for citizens in rural Idaho based on community identity, shared decision making, and common experiences.

Their programs were very informative and gave an opportunity to have contact with representatives from thirteen different government agencies.

These Development Assoc. representatives have acquired not only new contacts for project assistance but also better understanding of the changing times in the 90s that are ahead.

The Pullman-Moscow Regional Airport recently put a display created by Judy White a member of the Development Assoc. in its lobby. The display is entitled, "Kendrick-Juliaetta, Hub of Rural Living", and features the attractive brochure the group recently developed (and funded in part through a Dept. of Commerce grant), copies of "A Walking Tour of Kendrick and Juliaetta", a copy of the Centennial History book, centennial medallions, and a year book article highlighting the high school football team.

Each of the smaller communities in Latah County will ultimately be featured in Latah County's kiosk space at the airport.

 Bicycles will be checked for parts that are present and in good working order. You will get personalized 20 point check list.
 3. Skill tests:
