Local News Of Kendrick

Mary Rosenau was admitted to St. Joseph Regional Medical Center Sunday for treatment of a broken hip she sustained in a fall.

Mary had spent Wednesday visiting with Marie and Harlan Fey.

Visitors last Thursday of Marie and Harlan Fey were Dan and Sue Willis of Roseburg, Oregon. They have been vacationing in Florida, Oklahoma and Missouri and were on their way home. The Willis are former residents at Park Ranch. Also visiting Thursday were Ann Patrick and her son Bill Patrick and family of Terre Haute, Ind. Eva Rosenau of Deary also came to visit that day.

Saturday Marge and Elmo Eldridge attended the 50th anniversary celebration in Oakesdale, Wash. for Bruce and Marvel Ebert. Bruce was the depot agent in Juliaetta from 1947 to 1949. Elmo and Marge visited her sister Frances Zimmerman in the evening. Sunday Marge and Elmo and Harold and Dorothy Silflow were guests of Leonard and Diane Eldridge in Lewiston. Marge and Dorothy were treated to Mothers Day dinner out by Leonard and Diane.

Jolene and Kurt Laven and son Kyle of Moscow were dinner guests of her parents, Jean and Ernie Brammer on Sunday.

Saturday Teresa and Ernie Sorg of Clarkston visited with Maxine and Art Foster. Teresa and Ernie took them for a drive to St. Maries. It was a beautiful route and a most enjoyable outing.

Early Sunday morning visitors of Art and Maxine were their daughter and son-in-law Dorothy and Wayne Darby of Moscow. Also calling on Sunday were Dale and Susan Alexander, Jeremy and Brenda and Margie and Clarence Alexander. Sunday evening Maxine and Art drove up to the Southwick Cemetery and visited family graves.

Sunday Rose and Darrel Brocke joined family members for a gathering at Freeman Creek.

Alban Nelson called on Hulda Clemenhagen Saturday afternoon. Hulda accompanied Cliff and Betty Jean Swanson to visit with Olga Swanson who is recovering from surgery. She is at the Clarkston Care Center. In the afternoon Hulda, Betty Jean and Cliff drove to Tensed where they joined twenty-one members of their families for a meal together at a restaurant. They had a wonderful time visiting and enjoyed the beautiful drive.

Thursday Don and Ula Cantril and Wayne and Wanita Arnett enjoyed a day of blueback fish at Dworshak Reservoir. Sunday Don and Ula joined family at the Ed and Darlene Reid home in St. Maries for a Mothers Day observance. Also attending were Ronnie and Brooks Reid and children, Billie and Shawn Green and children of Sandpoint, Rona and Carl Ware and children of St. Maries, and Mark and Lou-Juana Reid. There were nine of Ula and Don's great-grandchildren present. It was a good day for all.

Don and Joyce Brocke will be traveling to Spokane on Mother's Day so the children Gene, Rob Lee and Kell Lee can visit briefly with Priscilla Noble and Joshua Brocke and Grandmother Mary Ellen Welsh. Joshua Brocke is expected to come to Kendrick the weekend of Locust Blossom Festival.

Mother's Day guests at the home of Ruby Craig for a barbecue dinner were Tony and Trina Snyder, Cole and Whitney from Kamiah, Larmie and Paige Davis and Harley Davis, and Delmer and Keith Davis of St. John, Wash., Tim Lockett and Laey, and Dennis Lukehart.

Saturday Lori Warner and children and Terry Smith and children enjoyed a day of fun at Chief Timothy Park. On Mother's Day Roger and Lori and children went to Elk River where they fished and went swimming.

Clara and Pete Ware were visitors and dinner guests on Mother's Day with their daughter and son-in-law, Amelia and James Reeves in Orofino.

Burt and Sandy Souders spent Sunday with Vera and Bert Souders, Sr. They enjoyed dinner together and playing cards.

Frank Candler joined Ada Westendahl, Quentin Carlson and Bob Bain for dinner at the restaurant in at the Lewiston Airport on Mother's Day.

Julie Heimgartner and sons, Andrew and Brian hosted a family barbecue at their home on Mother's Day. Guests were Gwen and John Deobald, Lyle Deobald of Seattle, Lee and Claudia Deobald and Kelli Nicole of Moscow and Ed Rolfe of Lapwai. Lyle arrived from Seattle on Friday and stayed with John and Gwen until Sunday evening when he left for home. His wife, Dr. Jesse Deobald is in Dallas, Texas in a medical training program.

Mike and Kaye Morey treated Kathryn Morey to breakfast at the Diner for Mother's Day. Kathryn attended church and then went to Lewiston with Pat Morey. She enjoyed dinner with Pat and Darlene Phillips. They took an interesting drive in the afternoon along the river and came out east of Pomeroy. Pat brought Kathryn home Sunday evening. She attended Golden Sunset at the Senior Center on Monday.

Thursday evening Robin and Cindy Magnuson and Seth and Josh of Moscow brought dinner and spent the evening visiting with Lucille Magnuson. Miss Dessert joined the group for dinner. Robert and Ellen Magnuson planted garden for Lucille on Thursday—a job most appreciated. Sunday Rick Olson and Gisele Magnuson of Harrison came and shared a picnic with Lucille. All of Lucille's children called during the day to express their love and say "hello" on Mother's Day. Lucille feels very blessed to have such a caring family.

Fred Arnett and Frank Loeser spent from Monday through Wednesday at Harrison fishing. They had good luck catching bullheads. Sunday afternoon dinner guests of Fred and Betty for a fish fry were Ted and Phyllis Fey, Diane, Michelle and Jeff Arnett and Frank Loeser. Birthday cake and home-made ice cream were served in honor of Michelle's 15th birthday.

Sunday Bob and Judy Callison attended the 25th anniversary ice cream social celebration for Carolyn and Keith Ausman which was held in the Asotin City Park.

Elma Hazeltine joined Darel and Julie Hazeltine and Jenni and Laurine Hazeltine for Mother's Day breakfast at the Town and Country Diner. Jenni spent the afternoon with Elma.

Vicky Bencoter spent the weekend with her daughter Leslie and her husband Jim Kopp and grandchildren John and Michelle at Cove, Oregon. Vicky left on Friday and returned home on Monday. The weather was warm and wonderful.

Friday Resi Brown visited Jenny Brown in Lewiston. They enjoyed shopping and lunch out. Resi joined Jim and Jeanette Thiel Sunday morning for breakfast at the Diner. Resi was treated to Mother's Day dinner out in Lewiston by her family, Mary Lou Taylor, Shelley Taylor, Jenny Brown and Ron Beard on Sunday afternoon. Jerry Bruce stopped by Sunday evening with a Mother's Day gift and a visit. Resi's son Danny Brown called Saturday night from Great Falls, Mont. to express his Mother's Day greetings. Ken Brown called his mother Sunday evening.

Wednesday Beulah Deobald of Moscow visited with Mildred Johnson. Mildred enjoyed attending the Golden Sunset potluck on Monday.

Norma Crocker of Spalding took Nell Crocker to Moscow on Monday. They stopped by to visit Norma's father Ernie Andrews while in Moscow.

Ross Armitage and Joyce Clemenhagen took flowers to Inez's grave in Lewiston Sunday. They also visited with Thelma Mellinger at her home in Clarkston. Ross took flowers to the family graves in Southwick.

Helen Zelinsky attended the funeral for Don Morgan on Tuesday of last week in Lewiston. Helen called on Mildred Johnson one day this past week.

Marlene and Ted Meyer brought Mother's Day dinner to her mother, Martha Wilken on Sunday. Loeda Reil was a visitor with Martha one day this past week.

Trailblazers 4-H Members Did Well at Activity Day

Saturday, May 7th, Latah County 4-H held an Activity Day in Moscow and members of the local Trailblazers Club participated. They were Anna Brown, Ben Marek, Amber and Alicia Brocke. They took part in wildlife resource identification, judging and individual demonstrations. All received awards.

The District 4-H Horse Bowl was held at KHS on April 30th. Bonner County placed first, Latah County second, and Idaho County third. Terry Sheets placed 5th in the overall individual scores. All three teams will take part in the State Horse Bowl in Caldwell in July.

Dorothy Grant has been generous enough to donate time and effort to make another quilt for the club to raffle. It will be on display at Red Cross Pharmacy. Tickets are available at the Pharmacy, Juliaetta Market or any Trailblazer member. The club will be selling tickets on Locust Blossom Festival and the drawing will be that same day. The club would like to thank Dorothy for all she has done. It is really appreciated.

There will be a leather craft meeting at Tom Marek's home May 13 after school.

Robert Magnuson and Ben Marek will be attending 4-H camp at Twin-Low in Northern Idaho this summer.

Next meeting will be May 16 at 6:30 at the Southwick Community Hall.

Mother's Day Remembered At Kendrick Senior Center

By Marjorie Cobb
Friday was so near Mother's Day, it was a special dinner for the mother's we all love. They are that someone we can't forget and that someone we always remember. When things are good or things go wrong, it's wonderful Mother's wisdom we treasure. "Thank you, Mother, for your loving kindness."

Friday was a day when the meal site patrons enjoyed the meal and the table settings of a white lily with nuts and candy inside them. Kaye Morey, our temporary cook, served another delicious meal. Vera Hutcheson was the leader and announcer. Pearl related information concerning the Community Block Ramp building. There will be a fund raiser to increase and renew buildings for seniors. Alice gave the April report of attendance and Viola gave a financial report. A scheduled music program had to be cancelled because of an emergency.

There were 37 meals served with 14 home deliveries also being made. There was also an excellent meal served on Wednesday, May 4. Vera made her announcements and each signed a "get-well" card for Lucille Magnuson. There were 32 meals served that day with 16 home deliveries.

Arsonists Burn Old Cabin—

Last Tuesday, a person or persons yet unknown, set fire to the last log cabin in the area when a cabin originally built over 70 years ago by Frank Gusworthy in the Seldon Seen area was destroyed. It had been moved from its first place out to property owned by Ben Colston. The cabin was built with wooden pegs and squared logs. It is a shame that someone would do this to such a landmark.

Jim and Bev Bafus and children of Deary arrived with dinner for Lillian and Dan Bafus Saturday evening. All enjoyed dinner out on Sunday. Roy and Donna Syverson returned home Friday afternoon after traveling to Caldwell where they attended a wedding shower for Melissa Wheeler. On Mothers Day Roy and Donna enjoyed dessert at the home of Bill and Alice Searcy. They then went to Moscow for supper with Matt and Carman Engberg. Bill and Darlean Wilson visited with Diane, Terry and Brian Clemm and then drove on to Kendrick and visited Alvin Wilson, Terri and Jory before going on to Lewiston where they had Mother's Day dinner. Saturday night Clem and Flo Lyons joined Dale and Orita Stuart of Frazier and Mitch Stuart and friend of Lewiston in Orofino for supper. Sunday Flo and Clem were guests of Howard and Diane Holt in Bovill. Mother's Day guests of Bill and Alice Searcy were Roger and Sue Syverson, Roy and Donna Syverson. Grandson Lt. Thane Syverson called from Fort Leonard Wood, Mo.

to wish both his mom and grandmother, a happy Mother's Day. On Friday Bill and Alice drove to Spokane to attend the graduation of a their grandson's wife Andrea from nursing school. Roger and Sue Syverson also at the graduation ceremonies for Andrea. They returned Saturday. Archie and Polly Henderson of Cavendish were Sunday guests of Bob Kimbley. Elmer and Thelma Cuddy were dinner guests and visitors of Gary and Renee Ball in Craigmont Sunday. Suzanne Brammer and children called on Jo Brammer Mother's Day afternoon. Sunday dinner guests in the home of George and Deloris Lyons were Chris and Dan Fey and Josh, Lisa and Cameron Walker, Lath and Leslie Hutcheson. Dorothy Grant was an afternoon caller.
