Park News

By Jody Smith
 (Delayed from Last Week)
 Boulder Creek Campground (between Park and Helmer) opened for business at mid-week. A large contingent of camper units from a club in Moscow filled the spaces over the weekend.
 Work continues on the Park road with some medium-sided rock being put on the altered corners Monday morning.

About twenty Enger relatives gathered in Park Saturday afternoon for the burial service for Charlie Enger, whose remains were cremated following his death in February. The family gathered at the home of Karl and Wanda Enger for dinner a good visit. First to arrive was a cousin, Lois Harrison of Seattle who came Friday afternoon. Those attending Saturday were Charles and Carol Enger of Wenatchee, Wash.; Wayne and Kathy Doyle and her son Brian Kasper of Palouse; Lynn and Judy Enger of Genesee; Richard Enger of B. C. Canada; and his mother, Mildred Enger Oroville, Wash; Harold and Ruby Pederson of the Spokane area; Vicki Jenkins and her young friend Clayton Law, Lewiston; Mr. and Mrs. Babe Kriesher, Elk River; and Vern and Norma Christiansen, Walla Walla. The Charles Engers and the Doyles stayed on for a "we grown-up kids" slumber party Saturday night. After the last of the visitors left, Karl and Wanda spent a relaxing afternoon in Lewiston.

Wanda Enger had a busy day on Wednesday when an activity that started as a joke resulted in she and Maxine Bogar spending an evening as guest chefs at the Helmer Store! They cooked a complete pan-fried chicken dinner with all the fixin's for about 45 diners. When asked to repeat the performance next week, the pair asked for a month to recuperate. Wanda's brother and sister-in-law, Don and Jan Mullins of Orofino were some of the appreciative diners.

Clinton and Ethel Smith were in town on business Saturday. Jody Smith was in Moscow on business and Troy for a dental visit Monday. Tuesday and Thursday Jerry and Jody went to Pomeroy on business. Mark LaBolle spent Friday with the Smiths and they were joined for lunch by Ted and Babe Norton. Doug and Barbara Garrett of Kendrick also called. Saturday visitors were Ron Halseth and Carl Johnston. Sunday saw the Smiths sharing lunch and a church board meeting the home of Dennis and Bonnie Ward in Avon. Later in the afternoon Jody enjoyed the recital of Linda Foster's students in Deary. Al and Ike Lockman visited the farm and lent a hand in the evening.

Guests of Russell and Suzanne Brammer on Thursday evening for son Drew's 9th birthday were Jo and Cecil Brammer, Gary Brammer, Lorie Glenn and Suzanne's father, Kyle Westland of Bellingham who arrived on Tuesday to visit for a time.

Elmer and Thelma Cuddy drove to Rathdrum Saturday to attend the graduation ceremonies for Elmer's niece Kim Cuddy.

Delores Lyons left Wednesday for Eugene, Oregon where she attended a doll convention. She returned on Sunday.

Tuesday evening guests of Cliff and Jeanine Ensley was Sandy Poteet who is living in the former John Cuddy home.

A guest of the Clem and Flo Lyons was Clem and George's brother Ray Lyons of Lakewood, Colo., who arrived on Tuesday and left on Friday. On Thursday Flo attended the Evergreen Friendship Club meeting at the Town and Country Diner.

Granny Holt attended the Authors and Artists display at Potlatch on Thursday evening at the grade school. Granddaughter Nicole was one of the exhibitors.

Eileen and Erin Ball of Potlatch were Saturday helpers at the Poor

Farm. Sunday Sandy Poteet who has recently moved into the John Cuddy home visited Granny Holt.

Thelma Cuddy and Rose Ann Holt wish to thank the Cedar Ridge community for its generous support of the Cancer Drive.

RATTLESNAKE KILLED

As the weather warms up the rattlesnakes come out, and Werner Brammer was in the Gazette last Wednesday with a 2-foot rattler he had killed that morning above his place just west of town. It had about six buttons. A good warning that folks should be aware that the season is here again!

RAINFALL WAS 2.5 INCHES

The month of May brought some welcome rain to the area farmers, reported Frank Dammarell Tuesday morning. Frank said he recorded a total of 2.5 inches up until May 31, and the sky looked as if a little bit more moisture might fall the last day of the month.

Farmers and gardeners are grateful for any amount of moisture they receive.

Thanks for the info, Frank!
