Jeff Lohman, mayor of Juliaetta, and Dana Magnuson, Latah County Commissioner, served as hosts and guides for the evening.

A Thank You Note From Esther S.

I wish to thank Wally and Bonnie Butler and Dean Brock for their quick response to help me when Wally discovered smoke coming from my house.

And to Marlene Millard for coming over and taking me to her home to lie down when she saw how sick I was from "breathing gas" caused by fans running in the smoke.

And also to Sharon and Doug Harris, Helen and Bob Heidenreich, Doris and Bob Hansen for taking me into their homes while waiting for my house to be refurbished.

Also thanks for the many phone calls from friends and family for their concerns after my misfortune of falling.

And, not forgetting Helen and Lynda for their final touches to my cupboards with their paint brushes.

Esther Shreffler

Juliaetta Library's Summer Reading Program

The Summer Reading Program continues at the Juliaetta Library. Three ambitious children have already finished reading their required number of books and received their prize book. They are: Mysti Solberg, Laura Nye and Beth Hanes.

Kendrick Watering Restrictions Now In Effect

With the coming of the first warm days of summer, the Kendrick City Council has put watering restrictions on outside watering within the city limits effective immediately, reports clerk Lynne Bruce. While no present danger exists, the city feels it should take precautionary action to see that there is an adequate supply of water for any fire threat.

The restriction are basically the same as those of last year. Watering will be on an odd-even day basis with watering allowed on the north side of Main Street from the West city limits to the School House hill street on Monday, Wednesdays and Fridays. Watering is permitted South of Main Street and that part of Kendrick East of School House Hill on Tuesdays Thursdays and Saturdays. NO SUNDAY WATERING.

The city would appreciate the cooperation in this matter.

Time Out for Meal Site—

By Marjorie Cobb

Time out for Meal Site to enjoy the specials and the delicious meal Louise has provided for us again. We forget our duties at home, the office hours and others also interview a special movie "Last of the Log Drives", Jan Welles, so kind to show us. June 15, Wednesday. Lucille added to announcements a few extra thoughtful words: "Lots of smiles, a smile s a curved line to set things straight. Laugh, if you're too busy, laugh, or are you too busy! Think about it. It can brighten the day."

Movie: Logs both Summer and Winter float down the Clearwater River. Men with long handled hooks direct logs into fast, moving current of the water. Their life jackets on corks wade into water, some use cable and ropes to guide logs into center 1928 was the first log drive, maple and cheery logs. Interesting to know that corks wear out in three days must either be repaired

Call Before You Dig!

WHO SHOULD CALL?
Anyone planning to dig or excavate could damage any underground pipes or cables at the site.

WHAT DOES IT COST?
Your only cost is the time it takes to make one toll-free phone call. For that investment of a few minutes, you will receive the following dividends:

- The peace of mind of having avoided the possibility of hitting a pipe or cable carrying gas, oil, or telephone or electricity which could be life-threatening.
- The satisfaction of contributing to lower utility rates by holding down repair costs.
- The appreciation of consumers in your area who will not have utilities interrupted by unnecessary dig-ins.

Park News

By Joay Smith

(Delayed from Last Week)

"On again—Off again" weather has people jumping from one job to another but nobody's complaining. We need the moisture as much as the sun. Be careful of exposure to the sun on cloudy-bright days, as Wanda Enger and others who attended weekend auctions will warn. Ouch!

Visiting the Engers recently were his brother-in-law and sister, Wayne and Kathy Doyle and her son and daughter, Brian Kasper and Rhonda Quist of Palouse on Tuesday. The Engers and the Clinton Smiths attended the Kelly Estate auction on Little Bear Ridge Sunday. Visiting the Enger home Saturday evening were her brother-in-law, Terry and Inez Willenborg of Juliaetta. Carl and Karen Johnston of Deary called on Sunday.

Lisa Stoltz of Moscow visited her friends Clinton and Ethel Smith on Friday to help them celebrate their wedding day plus 38 years. Saturday evening Don and Eniss Smith of Moscow and Jerry and Jody Smith helped them celebrate with a special cake and greeting cards. Nathan Stout spent last weekend with his grandparents and they got to be with him again Sunday as he and his parents, Kay and Doug Stout of Lewiston and Smiths joined a large group at the Cedar Creek picnic.

Jerry and Jody Smith attended the Walla Walla Community College graduation June 4 with her mother Betty Stone as they watched their daughter-in-law Jodi Smith receive first, her graduate nurses' pin and then her diploma as a nursing associate. All that remains is to pass the state board examinations to obtain her R. N. Jodi's parents, Jerry and Shirley Womack hosted a buffet reception in her honor that afternoon—family and friends who also lead busy lives.

Last Sunday afternoon Jerry visited the Lennie Jordan family in Avon and in the evening, visitors at the Smith farm were Darin and Virginia Anderson of Deary, and Delbert Harris, Boyd Candier and Mike Broeke of Kendrick. Jody was in Lewiston on business Friday and attended Helmer Day on Saturday.

Sunday morning Jerry and Jody attended the memorial for her cousin Charles Bower's wife Erma on Bear Ridge. They enjoyed the delicious dinner following, which gave them an opportunity to catch up on visiting with relatives and friends.

(This Week's News)
Just the right amount of sun to get the haying started in Park. The clover crop is heavy.

Clinton and Ethel Smith went to Lewiston Friday where they met his aunt Nadine Hanks and enjoyed a restaurant dinner. Later they picked up another aunt, Jessie McCoy, and continued on to Nadine's for dessert.

where they were joined by Kay and Doug Stout and Nathan and Bertie Stephens and Leah Smith and Eric Johnson.

Karl and Wanda Enger and Jody Smith went to Bovill Saturday afternoon to enjoy the many yard sales.

Father's Day visitors in Park were at the Engers—daughter Vickie; at Clinton and Ethel's, visitors were Kay and Doug Stout and Nathan.

Jerry and Jody Smith spent the afternoon hiking to see the 3 parts of Elk River Falls, with a brief visit with Andre Molsee and his bride at Huckleberry Heaven.
