Park News

By Jody Smith

Clear and crisp weather made Christmas travel trouble-free for Park folks this year.

Guests with Karl and Wanda Enger starting on Christmas Eve were their daughter Vickie and her friend Clark Law and his son Clayton of Lewiston. Wanda's brothers Don and Bob Mullins and their wives Jan and Linda from Orofino; their sister and brother-in-law, Inez and Terry Will-enborg, Juliaetta; and Inez's daughter and son-in-law Pam and Jim Walk, Kelly and Kevin, Southwick. Part of the group stayed overnight and others returned home to come again to share the family's Christmas dinner.

December 23, The Jerry Smith family arranged their family Christmas celebration at the Deary Fire Hall. Not by coincidence, this was also the birthday of their younger son, Jim. About 50 people gathered in the morning to surprise Jim in a setting of balloons, crepe paper streamers and candles, with a Mickey Mouse theme. Several high school classmates enjoyed a "catchin' up" visit, as well as relatives and friends from Coeur d'Alene, Lewiston, Moscow, Spokane, Bovill and Deary. This is one birthday celebration that won't blur into Christmas memories.

In the afternoon, the immediate family enjoyed an old fashioned roasted pig and all the trimmings as part of their family party.

Visiting Clinton and Ethel Smith for the holiday weekend were their daughter and son-in-law, Kay and

Jerry and Jody Smith made a trip to Lewiston which served several enjoyable purposes Christmas Eve. They attended the 75th birthday reception for a friend of long-standing, Faith Osborn. They also visited Jody's mother Betty Stone and Jerry's aunt, Paulina White. While at (Continued on Page 3)

As the old year draws to a close we pause to reflect on its passing and have feelings of both sadness and joy—just as 1995 had both sorrow and happiness for us all. We feel the sadness of having lost old friends who will always remain as precious memories. We have also lost friends who have moved from the community and are no longer part of our daily lives; but we wish them happiness and are so happy to have known them. There are always losses in our lives.

But as we are saddened by loss, we are cheered by gratitude for our family and friends who are so much a part of our lives and make our happiness possible.

We are grateful for the patronage and support given us during the year. We hope you too, had a good year all the days of the community year are filled with spirit of happiness.

We want to thank everyone who donated to the

Toys for Tots Program

This was a very successful event for our store to be a part of. Some wrapped toys were returned to our area for distribution.

The world's largest stocking give-away drew more than 200 entries and was won by Don F. Johnson of Clarkston, Wash. We want to thank everyone who entered the contest.

We thank all our great customers for the past years' business given to us.

We're wishing you all a very Happy and Prosperous 1996!

Big Bear Ridge News

By Arlyn Clemm and Betty Schuman

Sunday, Keith and Donna Ingle and girls of Waitsburg, Wash visited his Dad, Jerry J. Ingle. Christmas Day, Charles Bower and Dorothea Headrick celebrated the day with Eddie and Elaine Galloway. Christmas Day Eldon, Loriann, Lonnie Ruthie, Wayne and Glenda Wilson enjoyed dinner and visiting with Leona and A. C. Wilson. Chad Sneve from New Orleans, LA, came home last Tuesday to spend the Christmas holiday with his family Nels and Alana Sneve and brothers Adam and Kevin. On Christmas Eve, all of them visited Gertrude Sneve. Christmas Day, Nels and Alana and the boys celebrated with Bev and Gary Silva and family in Lewiston. Christmas Eve, Jeff, Katie, Hance and Nevada Sowle were visitors of Jerry Galloway and Carol Bradford. Karl Galloway and Marilyn Sandmeyer visited with Jerry Galloway and Carol Bradford for a Christmas Day brunch. Jerry later spent the day with friends in Moscow. Christmas Eve, Jack and Louella Smith visited Louella's cousin, Diane and Steve Schully at Clarkston. Afterward they went over to Louella's son, Dale Fry and daughters Cori and Faron, in Lewiston to spend the evening. Christmas Day, Brenda, Mike and Kalob Halen hosted her parents, John and Gretchen Herman of Genesee and Larry and Jenny Bailey of Moscow and her sister, Stacl, Tye and Derek Harper of Genesee. Bruce and Hollay Scharnhorst of Genesee visited later in the day. Leonard, Teresa, DeJter and Altha Jones spent Christmas at Post Falls visiting her sister and family. Mr. and Mrs. LeRoy Williams of Culdesac visited A. C. and Leona Wilson a week ago Sunday. Christmas Day visitors and dinner guests at Terry and Diane Clemm's home were Bill and Darlean Wilson, Jim and Karoleen Lohman, Alvin, Teri and Jory, and Arlyne and Larry Clemm. Betty and Dan Kechter, Roger, Patti and Darbi Kechter, Jim and Zelda Sturman, Mike and Judy Halisey, Brad and Nikki, Charles Bower, Dortha Headrick and Gene Perryman joined the Galloways for dinner on Christmas. Rick and Yvonne Boyd and children along with LoriAnn and Lonnie Wilson were Christmas Eve visitors with the Galloways. Maycelle Emmett's family gathered at Maycelle's for Christmas dinner. Jennifer and Alan Long traveled from Montana to make the celebration complete. Daughter Maxine Sommers and her husband are here visiting Oscar and Ruth Slind this week.

Park News

By Joey Smith

Clear and crisp weather made Christmas travel trouble-free for Park folks this year. Guests with Karl and Wanda Enger starting on Christmas Eve were their daughter Vickie and her friend Clark Law and his son Clayton of Lewiston. Wanda's brothers Don and Bob Mullins and their wives Jan and Linda from Orofino; their sister and brother-in-law, Inez and Terry Will-ernberg, Juliaetta; and Inez's daughter and son-in-law Pam and Jim Walk, Kelly and Kevin, Southwick. Part of the group stayed overnight and others returned home to come again to share the family's Christmas dinner. December 23, The Jerry Smith family arranged their family Christmas celebration at the Deary Fire Hall. Not by coincidence, this was also the birthday of their younger son, Jim. About 50 people gathered in the morning to surprise Jim in a setting of balloons, crepe paper streamers and candles, with a Mickey Mouse theme. Several high school classmates enjoyed a "catchin' up" visit, as well as relatives and friends from Coeur d'Alene, Lewiston, Moscow, Spokane, Bovill and Deary. This is one birthday celebration that won't blur into Christmas memories. In the afternoon, the immediate family enjoyed an old fashioned roasted pig and all the trimmings as part of their family party.

Visiting Clinton and Ethel Smith for the holiday weekend were their daughter and son-in-law, Kay and

Doug Stout and children Nathan and Nicholas of Lewiston, and their younger daughter Leah, from Moscow. They attended the 75th birthday reception for a friend of long-standing, Faith Osborn. They also visited Jody's mother Betty Stone and Jerry's aunt, Paulina White. While at Lewiston which served several
