Elton L. Fraser, Formerly of Kendrick, Dies Feb. 20 in Portland

The funeral for Elton L. Fraser was held at Burns Chapel in Hermiston, Oregon February 26.

He was born to Minnie (Riley) and Kenneth Fraser, Feb. 22, 1927 at Kendrick and died Feb. 20, 1996 at Portland, Ore., after a long battle with cancer.

He attended grade school at Pine Creek and Juliaetta and moved to Irrigon, Oregon where he attended high school. Then he joined the Army and served in the miltary. When he returned from service he operated a service station at Stanfield, Oregon. He is survived by his wife Dot and a son Lee and three grandchildren at Stanfield; two sisters, Maxine Leonard of California, Ellen Brown of Hermiston, and a brother Jim of Pilot Rock, Oregon. He was a member of the V. F. W. and was a past president of the Moose Lodge at Stanfield where he was active until his death.

Burial was at the Pleasant View Cemetery, Stanfield with the Hermiston and Echo V. F. W. Posts officiating. A dinner was held in his honor at the Stanfield Moose Lodge following burial services.

Relatives from Deary, Kendrick, Lewiston, Clarkston, Juliaetta and Lenore attended.
