The public facility, housing, imminent threat and senior center projects were reviewed and recommended for funding to Governor Batt by his time to come and do a class for the Idaho Economic Advisory Council at its March 14-15 meeting in Boise. The Economic Advisory Council is a six-member, private-sector our club. We really do appreciate advisory board, appointed by the governor and directed to provide policy and program direction to the Idaho Department of Commerce. Kendrick businessman Dana Magnuson is a member of this council and he was in Boise last week for the meeting. Also in Boise was Kendrick mayor Jerry L. Brown, who an open house reception Saturday,

City officials predict 36 jobs will be created for area residents. Bill will make a decision on Rexburg's grant request later this spring.

ICDBG funds are awarded through a two-part competitive review process. During December of 1995, 39 requests for more than $13 million in pre-applications were submitted to the Idaho Department of Commerce staff and the Idaho Economic Advisory Council for review. Thirtytwo finalists with requests totaling $9.5 million were invited to submit full applications to the council prior to the March meeting.

A very relieved and plased mayor ner will provide the program. Jerry Brown said Monday afternoon that he and the city council were that he and the city council were thankful and gratified to receive the Big Bear Ridge News grant and he wished to thank all who worked to obtain it and who took time to write and call Boise urging its approval. The State can now go forward with calling for bids for both the highway and the water and sewer improvement work. It is expected that work on the project will begin June 1.

Other North Central Idaho communities receiving grants were: Lewiston: $500,000 for street improvements,
